

to the Southern - the other smaller <sup>Promotions</sup> ~~Chapters~~ you will see in the Papers - about four fifths of the House of Commons continue as blindly devoted, as your humble servant to a system of Exertions, that this Nation can make beyond any Nation in the World, and that we are too enough to think the Nation thoroughly disposed to make - You who are a moderate Man, and wish well and kindly to both Parties, at the same Time that you dislike the extremes of the Language and Conduct pursued by both, with distinguish Truth from Falshood in the strange Jumble of Misrepresentations, with which our News-Papers are stuffed - I shall only add for the present, that I hope we shall all find some Quidge at last to lead us back to our old good Humour and Prosperity: but we have a rough Road to go over, before we can arrive at it. -

Believe me ever very affectionately yours
Wm. Eden
