

and yourself in as for your behaviour individually you are behaving in a Manner to deserve great Credit; you are acting the dignified determined Part and are showing yourself a Friend to both Sides of the Atlantic — you have all due Honours for it here, and I hope you will be treated with equal Candour on your own Side of the Atlantic. —

The Bill, which had the Royal Assent yesterday puts an End to all commercial intercourse between us. I hope the Southern Countries will begin to see the Consequences of continuing upon themselves the Miseries, which that Bill must bring on them, and that they will learn what they might have learned longer ago, that if they succeed in their present united Enterprise, they will immediately find themselves in a State of Subjection to the New-England and that the longer they persevere in that Enterprise (if they are fortunate enough in the End to fail in it) the more they must suffer — for others —
