

that there is one Alexander Rose in your Colony, who has late by been with Lord Dunmore, and is regarded as a dangerous Partizans of the British Administration, how also the Congress are desirous of apprehending, and for that Purpos, have pass'd a Resolution, which you have inclosed with the other.

The Congress, relying on your Oath, confide that you will exert your best Endeavours in executing said Resolutions. I have the Honour to be

Gentlemen

Your most obed^t & aff^o Serv^t

John Hancock Presid^t

The Hon^{ble} The Committee of Safety of the Colony of Maryland. at Annapolis.

(Vid: Journal of Proceedings on Thursday 18th April, for the Resolutions above referred to.)

(Answer thereto)

Sir

April 18th 1776

N^o: 123

Your Letter inclosing the Resolves of Congress