

Friday, and two Letters of Recommendation, one from Governor Loring, and the other from Lady Dunmore: — these we think are material, his other Papers, which we likewise send, we have searched, and find Nothing of Consequence — since our last Nothing new has occurred, except the Examination of Mr. Puryear before our Board — he at first deny'd the anonymous Letter, afterwards on Reflections acknowledged it contained some of his Sentiments, but could not remember, when he wrote them. — he perjur'd most abominably. — We hope the Time of calling the Convention will meet with your Approbation, we apprehend bad Consequences from Delay — No Messenger is yet returned from Philadelphia; you may judge that we wish to hear some favorable News from you — be it as it may we have (the)