

by Major Gist relative to Christianus Castles, the Council of Safety are of Opinion that his Case comes properly under the 7th Article of War. and that he cannot be punished with Death, and therefore that the Appointment of a Court-Martial by the Council of Safety is unnecessary.

D. May 1776.

Wm. J.

N^o. 160. To Mr. Henry Gosh. (Trust: City)

Sir. In November last you contracted with the Council of Safety for the Delivery of seventy five Muskets, with Worms, stock Ramrods, Bayonets with stock Ramrods Blades &c on or before the 1st of May to the Council of Safety at the City of Annapolis, and received £150⁰⁰ for Advances we are now in great Want of the Guns, and the Time being past, we request you would let us have them as soon as possible, or at least as many as you (have)