

they belong to Milling of Morris, and that there may be more money on board. - he confirms the report of stock on the Island and says a Commissioner is appointed to see that the people are paid * we wish to hear from you by every good opportunity and am Gent^l

* Mr. Smith also says that Commodore Jamieson and Lord Dummer both assured him that they had certain intelligence from the fleet was expected with the troops from England with the Commodore, he also says they told him a very powerful fleet was expected with the troops from England but that the fleet was at Grenada Island, that she was not yet ordered, and that the Commodore was that she was not yet ordered, and that the Commodore was in a log of wood, which probably would condemn her!

No. 9. To the Committee of Obsⁿ for Balt^o City

Gent^l

We received intelligence this morning by the Governor's Secretary, who is just returned from the Peabuck, of Grenada Island, that the whole fleet, which left Norfolk, consisting of about 90 sail was arrived at Grenada Island, that they had landed their men and were intrenching themselves; that they found a large supply of fresh provisions on the said Island, that no ships of war were coming up the Bay, only!