

already fixed on the 20th of this month, and we shall be obliged to make the necessary arrangements before that time.
We presume the first business of the Convention will be regulating the movement of the militia, and that if necessary, in the mean time the several committees of observation may be directed fairly to collect the sense of the provinces, on the subject of Independence and make report thereof to the Convention in any mode their representatives may think proper to point out, would be better wished by the people, than for us to put them into a violent ferment in a way, that might not be approved of. - This is a point of great magnitude, and we think it's best, the shortness of the time considered, to leave it untouched until the meeting of the Convention on Thursday next. - Mr. Pava, no doubt, is with you before now, Mr. Johnson & Gohde brought still with their families we hear - we wish to have you all down, when the
