

~~My dear Sir~~ ~~the same~~ ~~hand~~
I am glad to hear you have included in Invoice and Bill of Lading for the Bble Flan, the Bble Bread of 250 Flazgs ditto, on the schooner Three sisters captained Joseph Hanny Mastor, which we hope will reach you safe -; you will dispose of the cargo to the best advantage, for the benefit of the Province, according to your general instructions, and the letters heretofore sent you; and be pleased to make our returns by the same vessel in small arms, to which you may add a few fowling pieces, if to be had cheap, if those cannot be got, you are to send us Powder and Blankets - we designed to send you also two other vessels the Brig Fortune and Roger, but these vessels have been long detained by the men of war and Tenders, the Brig Fortune had sailed, but was obliged
