

Mr. [unclear] [unclear] [unclear]

You are to proceed from hence with all possible dispatch to the Island of St. Eustacia, with the letter directed to Mr. Abraham Vanbollen, who will give you directions, what you are to do with y^e Cargo. — his advice you are to follow in every particular; should you have any goods put on board by Capt. Vanbollen to bring back, as soon as you have done your business, make the best of your way home, and avoid speaking with vessels on the coast, or elsewhere; when you come into the latitude of our Cape, if you have a strong fair wind in and no danger of men of war or tenders, push up the bay, as far as possible — if you find a better chance of getting safe into any of the inlets between Cape Henlopen and Cape Charles than into our Bay, you may push into one of
