

By the Pelth. boat to the States & you will be pleased to fill up the vessel with some of the superior flour, most likely to sell and answer the market, and when flour cannot be stored away, then bread - and if there be not flour sufficient, that is good and likely to keep them upon board bread to make up the cargo - no time is to be lost, that this vessel may be got away with all imaginable speed -
