

To Mr. Josef Hollenhorst.

You are hereby requested to cause the two Brigs Tatnall, and Rogers now lying at Baltimore Town to be unladen, and have their cargoes, as also the cargoes bought of Adams and Palfrey carefully examined; should the flour be in such order that 'tis likely to be spoiled, you are directed to have the same baked into bread for the use of the province such of it, as may be fit to be sent to market, you will send down the Bay in proper vessels, and have landed at Pitt's Landing in Pocomoke, to the care of Capt. Spear of a Mr. Beck of the schooner John, to be thence carried by land to Chingoteague, and put on board the said schooner John now lying there, burthen about 550 Barrels if that quantity of Barrels of flour should fall short, the rest of the schooner John's load you are to send in bread - what flour is likely to spoil, and must be baked you will lodge with Mr. M<sup>r</sup>. Spear, and some part with Mr.
Cumberland Dugan, which they are to have baked for the public use. - You are to let the owners of the vessels, Mess<sup>rs</sup>. Hugh & Bonby & Geo. Woodley know that their brigs are discharged for the public service & that
