

convention, and therefore as far as respects Mr. Dickinson and others, requires no answer from them. We have inclosed you an order on the C. & S. Treasurer for £ 200 which we hope will be sufficient for the present. The Council desire you will furnish them with an Acct. of the expenditure of the money they have already advanced you towards cloathing the Troops; they have determined not to advance any more money without Accts being produced to them.
