

N. 9. To Col. Thomas Dorr

Sir
You will see by the inclosed resolves that the Convention have directed the place of their regulars, that are to march from hence to Philadelphia, should be supplied by three Companies of the neighbouring militia, till the militia for the Flying Camp can be ready - the Council of Safety have thought proper to order a Company of your Battalion to march down here immediately, and we desire you will dispatch them with the utmost expedition - we expect a sufficient number of the militia for the Flying Camp will be raised in a very short Time to supply the place of y^r with the other Companies, which shall be discharged, as soon as possible - Col. Weeks and Hammond are now with us, and intend that the Company, they are respectively to furnish, shall be composed out of the whole Battalion - Companies if wholly ordered out, may be much distressed and very indifferently armed.

We are
