

N^o 99. The General Quarter

Sir

We received the journals gathered of wooden Pots, & is. Regs - we should be much obliged to you to buy two thousand of them of the sort marked at 27 - we approve of it and imagine you can engage a quantity much cheaper than a single one, we desire you will buy them immediately.

30th July 1795

N^o 99. Major Thomas Price

Sir

Capt. Mantz, who commands a Company of the Frederick Battalion well armed, and accoutred, this day marches to relieve Capt. Thomas of his Company, whom you may thereupon order up to this place in his way to the camp to the Northward. He may leave his Pots to Capt. Mantz's Company to cook with and may be supplied here with Camp-Hotels or Pots more portable than those he has now in possession.

Capt. Mantz will occupy the posts and places, where Capt.
Thomas's Company was stationed until further orders.

The officers dispatched by you to give

(Capt. 7)
