

they have, and intend to take of the molly's cargo, belonging to our Province. We are not yet certain whether ~~whether~~ we shall order waggons from Alexandria or send a vessel to the mouth of Potomack for it - this will depend upon the information we may receive from Major Paine, who has the command of our troops stationed on St.
Mary's River - should he think that it may be transported across the River without danger either above, or below St. Mary's; - it is probable we shall adopt what he may recommend.

No. 101 Capt. Thomas Conway,

Sir, Our Council would be very glad to see you immediately at Annapolis - to consult you about another voyage for the molly - and also to be informed of the particulars, that have happened relative to her last.
