

us that he has heard there is a good Flint-Quarry about two miles from the Head of Elk, and of course we are to take care must be near your house, as on your land.

The Congress pursuing the necessity of having gun Flints manufactured among us have requested the strictest search to be made after, and earliest intelligence given them of the discovery of any such Quarry in any of the independent States - we request you will make enquiry and acquaint us of the success of the enquiry with all the speed in your Power

N<sup>o</sup>. 103. Mr. Alex<sup>r</sup>. M<sup>r</sup>. T. adon, Secy. Treas.

Sir
There is an immediate Demand for Tenting & Shirting Linen for the Troops raised by this Colony in the continental Service.

It would be extremely serviceable to the public and agreeable to us that you would exert yourself all in your Power to furnish this Province with what you can of such Linen directly to this Place. We are &c
