

that is likely fatal to your fatal to a beyond of Co's guard, coming down the road not far from J. Hammonds, a bridge over a deep gulch, that runs through his old field, gave way, and wounded two of the people, shattered the wagon, and threw some of the powder, the loss of one Barrel of Powder is trifling to the loss of the serjeants, he is not dead as yet, but his apprehensions cannot live; another man slipped his shank but is yet better — the Powder and arms are safe at the Magazine, except part of two barrels, making in all about one barrel lost. — We cannot but admire at what you say that there are only 3,000 militia in Jersey, — permit us to ask what are become of all the militia, that we read in the Papers, are marched from Pennsylvania, Jersey &c. be pleased to explain how it has happened, that no more have as yet marched to their station in that province.

By the southern post we have intelligence that the Cherokees have committed some outrages on the borders of Georgia; that the Squadron of Parker & Hunter are moving frequently from Island to Island, and are growing sickly — yesterday our objection from this county, began to get under, we are sorry to inform you that Messrs Johnson & Day & Carroll of Ga. from present appearances will not be elected Washington, Carroll, Bart, Chase & R. Hammond are greatly beyond any others on the poll — very few people
