

N: 110 Mr. Kiehl, at Smoyer's Saw Works

Sir, Being informed there is a large quantity of stones on the wharf at Smoyer's Saw Works, we request you will immediately on receipt of this, favor us with your opinion advising whether there are any such there, or not - If of them should be, we request you will endeavour to get them into a situation to be removed from thence to some place, where they may be manufactured into planks, any expenses which you may incur in this business, we will cheerfully allow you, also a reasonable Price for the stones to the Proprietor of them. —

We are &c

P.S. If it can be conveniently done, we would chuse to have them manufactured on the spot
