

Account of these matters, and you are to march with the utmost dispatch to Philadelphia, where apply to Congress for, and receive further orders.

Mr. James Boone.

Sir, All the gunlocks you can make, are wanted here: you will therefore be kind enough to send them down to this Place, as soon as you can.

Col: Thomas Hughes.

Sir We would have Capt. Maxwell's Company march immediately to Philadelphia. The Captain will there apply to, and receive further orders from Congress. It is doubtful whether the Tents can be had for them at Phil: if they can, they will be furnished, but we presume, as Baracks are building at the Camp, that the men will be well provided for, when they arrive there.

Benedict Edward Hale,

No 216.

Sir, We request the favor of you to send us down immediately the Blankets for our Hospitals, they are much wanting, and also any others you can spare, you will take the most expeditious means to get them to us.
