

Sept. 1776

We have sent inclosed to Capt. Agt. Hall the Commissions for your Subalterns, and request you will march for Philadelphia, as soon as you are ready, and then apply to Congress for further orders - you will be provided with Barracks, when you arrive at Camp - as we are informed Barracks are erecting there with the greatest expedition for the reception of the Soldiers now stationed there, as well as those, who are expected to reinforce the army.
