

The Commissioners are on their way, may good success attend them - we shall do all we can to get provisions, as soon as our salt arrives, which we daily expect.

We cannot but observe that our People seem very backward, in carrying the new Government into execution. - Annapolis has named no Electors for their Senate, nor any Committee of Observation, none of the Judges attended, and very few People - The city of Annapolis has not named any Electors, and we expect news of the same kind from other places; what this can be owing to, we leave you to judge. - The people are uneasy, we are informed, in Charles County: - Mr. Stone has wrote the Major - Mr. Stone is very unwell, so that he cannot attend Congress at present.

We will forward the Acct. against the Continent, as soon as possible - and endeavour to get orders in Cash to put you in Cash.

Sir,
Mr. Middleton will deliver you 250 Bushels of Salt to care Reef and Parks, which we must have purchased for our Troops. - If you can buy more than this salt with care, be pleased to let us know it, if we will supply you with a further quantity. Mr. Stansley informed us, that there was a great deal of Park to be sold in Lower Arms. - We think you (might)
