

as soon as you can, with any degree of Convenience. — My Congress is very thin, and entreats your immediate Attention in which we join, and wishing you as pleasant journey, and Dec: 12th 1775.

The Committee of Observation for Balt. County —

N<sup>o</sup> 57.

Gent<sup>l</sup>, Some Papers of an alarming nature have been produced to our Boards by Melchior Tienore, signed Legion dated in Baltimore Town, originating in a club, called The Whig Club, as we are informed, which seems to assume to themselves not only legislative, but executive Powers, and we heard others of the like import, have been sent to several Persons — concerning ourselves vested by the late Convention with the executive Powers, we cannot pass over this Procedure without Notice; it is contrary to our Association, flying in the face of Resolves of Congress, and against the spirit of our Declaration of Rights — the Peace of the State ought to be preserved, therefore we call upon you, the Committee of Observation for Baltimore County, to point out to us — any Person, who may have acted contrary to the Resolves of Congress Convention, or the laws of the State, so as to endanger the same, and we will take the proper steps to secure their Persons and have them brought to a regular

(Toyal)