

Prussia, you had better bring away none at all. - we shall be much pleas'd to have a Line from you now and then, to give us Intelligence how Affairs go on in the Jersey - we shall advise you how after how the militia move forward. - We concur with you in Opinion about sending up a recruiting Officer, and shall apply to the Generals to name one he can depend upon. -

Brigadier General Buchanan

Sir, Enclosed we send you copy of a Resolve of Congress requesting the militia of two Counties in your Brigade to march immediately to reinforce General Washington - be pleas'd therefore to give the necessary orders - Gen^l Johnson, who takes the command, is already arriv'd at Philadelphia with the militia of his Brigade on his way to the Jersey. - should any commissions be wanting, we will send them up to you, on having a list of the Persons you recommend - Lt^o Rumsey, and all his Field Officers have resigned, there ought to be appointed to the eighth Battalion. -

We earnestly recommend that no Time may be lost in forwarding this necessary service; those, who have not arms, will get them at Philadelphia. - we intend to write particularly to Lt^o Dorsey, Lt^o Weems, and Lt^o Worthington of New Brunswick, and to the Lt^o of some other Counties. Viz: P^{er} George, Hunt and Lucer - Anns.
