

100.

Mess<sup>rs</sup> Vambibber & Harrison

Gent,

Mr. McGreany who but lately came into this Province, has informed the Council of Safety that he shipped from Rotterdam on Account of this State to Atatia 200 Stand of Arms addressed to Mr. Vambibber & that he had heard that Mr. Vambibber refused to pay the freight & that some other Person had disposed of part of them to pay it if this be true we are surpris'd at it, & beg that you will inform us how this Affair is and what has become of the Arms and if to be had ship them by the first opportunity, We are &c.

February 18th 1777

Capt. Nathaniel Smith

Sir,

In Answer to yours of 15th by Capt. Funnival we are to inform you that we expect some Cloathing every Day from Virginia which in all probability will do very well for you Men, The Leather Breeches you may get for your Company they paying ten Shillings as Capt. Funnival do - Inclosed is an Order on the Treasury for Linen for Shirts - The Increase of Pay is now an Object of Consideration with the Assembly & we doubt not will take place, Any Alteration in the Articles of War must be made by the general Assembly & upon a proper Representation of the Inconvenience you mention, probably they will come into it

February 19th 1777

We are &amp;c.

Sir,

Mr. William Johnson

We will take the Comas you mention and upon producing the Commissarys Receipt we will direct payment to be made, We are &c.

February 20th 1777

Capt. George Cooke.

Sir,

The disputes between you and the Purser of the Defence is not of consequence,

No 100

No 109