

WILLIAM PARKS, Annapolis

1728

Daniel Dulany, Sr. The Right of the Inhabitants of
Maryland to the Benefit of English
Laws

This pamphlet by Dulany the Elder, leader of the Maryland Bar of his day, is of great historical importance as supporting the demand for the benefit of the English laws, unless superseded by Maryland statutes. This copy is unique and was formerly owned by the lords Baltimore.

Loaned by Maryland Historical Society