

Alicajah Perry.	Joseph Adams.
William Hunt.	Robert Cary.
Robert Cruickshank.	John Peete.
Jonathan Pearth, and Son.	John Wilks.
Samuel Huswell.	William Black.
John Maynard.	Samuel Woodlaw, for
William Darvins.	Thomas Colmarc.
Humphry Bell.	Richard Burbydge.
Thomas Mercer.	Thomas Sandford.
Harb Arbutnot.	Jonathan Forward.
William Torver.	Ch. Smith.
Thomas Hyam.	Samuel Hyde.
Henry Stevens.	James Bradly.
James Buchanan.	John Falconar.
Jeremiah Quarc.	John Berry.

N. B. These Resolutions were confirmed at a General Meeting the Fourth Day of April, 1728; and then Sign'd by the above Persons, who were all that were present.

THESE Resolutions are (I believe) agreed upon by every Merchant in the Trade; whereby the Reader will see, that they are under good Regulations, for orderly and frequent Meetings; and I've very great Hopes, that those Meetings will be attended with very good Success, tho' there was little more done when I left London, than appears by the foregoing Resolutions, unless it was the Settling a Salary of Forty Pounds per Annum, on Mr. John Walkely, their Clerk, to be paid him out of the Publick Stock: And a positive Resolution and Agreement among them, that not any Tobacco, even the worst of Scrubs, should be Sold under Two Pence Half Penny per Pound. But as I came from thence the 29th Day of April, and a General Meeting of the whole Trade, was to be on the Second of