One or Two Parcels shipt by William Anderson, and One or Two small Parcels, by other People ; but as the Gentlemen took away their Papers, before the Committee could Copy or take Notes of all of them, we cannot give them to the Public—Indeed the Gentlemen promised to return them to us, and we endeavoured to get them, but could not, as will be seen in the following Account : Besides the above Goods there were on board,

N^LF Twenty-one Parcels, shipt by John and Walter Ewer, for Use of the Nottingham Forges, the Property of John Buchanan, James Russell, and Walter and John Ewer, all of London, Merchants, £. 393 2 6

Captain Errington being asked, if he had any Goods of his own in the Vessel, answered, only a few Casks of Porter.

Messieurs James Dick and Stewart, then laid before the Committee their Papers, viz.

1st, Their Letter to the Committee, as follows :
