

very Words of the Association, and therefore not practicable upon any fair Construction of it; and the said Committee being fully convinced, by a Multitude of Proofs and concurring Circumstances, of the ungenerous Principle, which apparently actuated Mr. Buchanan, in trumping up old Orders, to colour a premeditated Design to subvert the Association.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of the Committee those Goods ought not to be landed.

AGAINST LANDING.

The Committee then proceeded to examine the several Papers laid before them, by Thomas Jennings, Andrew Buchanan, and John Hall, and resolved, Nemine Contrahente.

That the Goods wrote for, and imported by them, per the Good Intent, William Errington, were conformable to the Association.

Resolved, That a Pair of Mill-Stones, which appears by the Manifest to belong to the Reverend Mr. Hugh Deans, were imported conformable to the Association.

Resolved, That a Box, I D, for James Dick, containing Spectacles, was imported conformable to the Association.

Resolved, That a Box of wrought Plate, A S, belonging to Mr. Anthony Stewart, was imported contrary to the Association, and therefore ought not to be landed.

The Committee then examined Joshua Griffith, and the Papers he laid before them, as to Goods, Value 32 l. 13 s. 4 d. imported by him in the Good Intent, Captain Errington; and it appeared, that in the Month of July 1769, he wrote to John Buchanan for some Nails, Osnabrigs, coarse Woollens, and Three Pieces of coarse Irish Linen, all strictly within the Association.

Resolved, That it appears that all the said Goods are shipped according to Order, except One Piece of Irish Linen, at 19 d. and One Piece Irish Linen, at 23 d. which exceeds the Prices limited by the Association.

Resolved, That under these Circumstances, the above Goods may be landed upon this express Condition, that Joshua Griffith return the Two Pieces of Linen imported contrary to the Allowance of the Association to London immediately, and lodge a Certificate of having done so, with William Paca, Esq; of Annapolis.

The Committee having thus gone through the Examination of all the Goods on board shipped by John Buchanan, who hired the Vessel, and had Authority over her, proceeded to examine into the other Goods.

Resolved, That a Box of Goods, shipped by William Anderson, of London, containing Silk Lutestring and Paste Buckles, were shipped contrary to the Association, and therefore ought not to be landed.

They next proceeded to examine into the Goods of Samuel Dorsey, Edward Dorsey, Corbin Lee, William Cox, and John Ridout, Esq; but as upon Enquiry it was found some of them had not had Notice of the Vessel's Arrival, therefore Resolved, That William Paca,
