

shall live, and he shall, if known, transmit to the collector of the county where such person shall reside, a copy of the assessment and rate made on the property of such person in his county, and such collector, on receipt thereof, shall enter the same under the hundred where such person shall reside, and shall attend in such hundred herewith, and give notice thereof as aforesaid, and if required a copy thereof as aforesaid.

And be it enacted, That where any person shall think himself over-rated by any assessor, he may offer to declare the real and actual value of his property on oath, which the assessor may if he pleases administer and accept as sufficient evidence of the property of such person, and rate him accordingly.

And be it enacted, That all and every person or persons within this state, having or exercising any public office or employment of profit, and all and every their clerks, agents, substitutes, deputies and registers, and other inferior ministers whatsoever, (hired clerks who do not act by commission, in respect of the wages they receive for their hire only, and such military officers who shall be in the pay of the United States, or of this state, in respect of such military employment only, excepted) shall be assessed two pounds ten shillings for every hundred pounds of the clear annual amount and profit of such office or employment; and that all and every person or persons within this state, having an annuity, stipend, or other yearly payment, payable or secured to be paid by any person or persons within this state (except such as are issued out of lands, tenements and hereditaments, or chargeable upon the same) shall be assessed two pounds ten shillings for every hundred pounds, or the value thereof in any species or commodities whatsoever, which he, she or they, do receive in one year