

paid by the twentieth day of the said month of December, in the same manner and under the like penalty as before directed as to the first account, and for not duly paying his first balance, the like proceedings shall be had on his bond as are before mentioned; and the said commissioners are hereby directed to adjust and transmit the said second account, in the same manner as they are directed as to the first, on or before the first day of January seven hundred and eighty-four.

And it is enacted, That the collector of each county, at the time of the settlement of his account, shall pay to every commissioner twelve shillings and six-pence for each day he shall necessarily attend; and shall also pay to the said commissioners, for the use of their clerks, twelve shillings and six pence per day for his service; and for the use of the said assessors, for the full and faithful performance of their duty under this act, any sum not under five pounds nor exceeding forty-five pounds current money for each assessor, which the said commissioners shall judge an adequate reward for his service; and the amount of all the sums so paid shall, by the said commissioners, be allowed to the said collector, on the settlement of his account, in which account shall be expressed the name of the clerk, and the names of the assessors for each district, and the sum of money to them respectively allowed; and the said commissioners shall, after the receipt of the said sums for the use of their clerk and of the said assessors, pay the same to them or their orders respectively on demand, under the penalty of fifty pounds current money to the party grieved.

And, Whereas it is just that all persons who have ability, should contribute in some degree towards the expenses of government and the support of the war,
Be it enacted, That all free, able bodied, male inhabitants of this state, who are above the age of twenty-one