The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Well, the honeymoon is over, and it was grand while it lasted. But now, it's back to the mines and one digs in, like it or not.

The lucky souls who are planning their southern ventures have a different outlook and we are both envious and happy for them simultaneously.

Already, we've had a cheery card from the Wroth Stavelys from Daytona Beach, Fla., where they are staying at the Desert Isle Motel for a month or more. Located right on the ocean, the picture looked enticing.

Mr. and Mrs. Chetwood Elliott, of the Country Club Estates left Sunday morning, driving to Captiva Island, where they will remain until Spring. Of course, they will be near and see the Kirk Dugdales, who have been there since Thanksgiving.

Having just returned from a shorter trip to Florida are Mrs. Franklin Wood, Mrs. Bernard Wilson and Miss Jean Wilson, of Rock Hall and Mrs. Rose Hadaway of Chestertown. They motored down on Dec. 19 and returned Sunday, Jan. 3. Mrs. Hadaway visited her brother, Mr. Herbert Walbert and Mrs. Walbert and daughter, Mrs. Black in Miami Springs, while the others stayed with Mrs. Wood's sister, Miss Nettie Wilson in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Whiteley spent the past week-end in Kennett Square Pa., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Powell.

Mr. William H. Coleman, of Chicago, has returned to his home there after spending the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman.

Robert L. Davis Jr., has returned to Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, Penn., after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Davis, Sr., in Chestertown.

Mrs. Frank Y. Lloyd, of Baltimore, visited her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Skirven Startt, of Washington Ave., for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Craddock, Sr., entertained over the Christmas holidays, their children, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Craddock, Jr., and daughter, Carol Ann, of Lanham, Maryland, and Dr. and Mrs. Arlen W. Frank and children, Diane and Warren, of Grand Island, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Merriken, of Glen Cove, Long Island have returned home after a week's visit over New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Calvert C. Merriken, Jr. Mrs. Merriken will be remembered here as the former Miss Josephine Welch, of Georgetown.

T/S James A. Dwyer and Mrs. Dwyer, of Virginia Beach, Va., spent the holidays with Mrs. Dwyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Strong.

Mrs. Joseph Oip, of Haddonfield, N.J. spent the holidays with her brother and sister - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilson, of Phoenix, Md., who spent several days here over the New Year's week-end were extensively entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Giratts entertained at a dinner party Saturday evening, Jan 2, the occasion of Mrs. Giratts's birthday. The piece de resistance was goose and rabbit.

And again, another birthday party that evening was given by two young ladies from Church Hill, who celebrated their birthdays at a gala party in the American Legion Home, Chestertown.

The Misses Bette Lou Shipley and Marty Bostic, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Shipley and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Bostic, respectively, were the celebrants.

Miss Bostic's birthdate was Tuesday, December 29th and Miss Shipley's was January 2nd.

The girls hosted friends and fellow graduates of their high school days and, in turn, received many lovely gifts. Young girls don't reveal their ages either!

Diane Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berry gave a slumber party, Jan. 1 for six of her girl friends at her home in College Heights.

News from now on will be a little on the dull side, and so, if you have any to spare, we'll be grateful to hear from you.

Yours hungry for tid-bits,
—The Wanderer
