Harry L. Dill

Funeral services for Harry L. Dill, merchant seaman who received two citations from the Secretary of the Navy, were held 9 A.M., Saturday at the Cook funeral establishment, in Baltimore.

Mr. Dill, 57, a native of Chestertown, died at University Hospital Thursday after a long illness.

He received his citations during World War II, one for his life saving efforts in 1943, when a ship was torpedoed from under him off the East Coast of Africa. His career in the Merchant Marine lasted nearly three decades.

A native of Chestertown, Md. Mr. Dill had lived in Baltimore since childhood. Since retiring in 1957, he had been a re-

French Violin Artist Here On March 3

The French violinist, Michael Chauveton, will be the featured artist in this season's Fourth Washington College Community Concert. It will be presented at 8:30 p. m., Wednesday, March 3, in William Smith Auditorium on the college campus.

A highlight of the program will be the first American performance of Andre Rottet's "Dualities," dedicated to Chauveton by the composer.

Also on the program will be works by Vivaldi, Beethoven, Stravinsky, and Bartok. Accompanying Mr. Chauveton on the piano will be David Garvey.

Mr. Chauveton recently returned from a successful tour of Europe and the Scandinavian Countries, including an official French Government tour of Spain and Portugal.

Mr. Chauveton has performed for the Washington College Community Concert Series before, in November 1961. His present appearance in Chestertown is in connection with a tour of the United States and Canada.

A native of Paris, France, Mr. Chauveton studied the violin with his brother-in-law, Loewenguth, and with Andre Tourret at the Paris National Conservatory. Since then, he has given numerous recitals and concerts with famous European orchestras. Conductors under whom he has played include Sir Adrian Boult, Pistouari, Otto Ackermann, Caraguly, and Fritz Mahler.

The final concert in the Washington College Community Concert series scheduled for Thursday, April 20, will feature the University of Maryland Madrigal Singers.

Newnams FHA Family Of Year

A Massey couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Newnam, Sr., last Saturday was named as the "FHA Family of the Year" for Kent County. A certificate of award went to them last Saturday at a "Dutch Treat" dinner meeting which saw similar presentations go to Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. England, of Cecil County, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Dukes, of Queen Anne's. The affair, served at the Parish House of Christ Methodist Church, Chestertown, was open to former FHA committeemen, or preceding agencies, dating back to 1938. Present active members reviewed progress and reflected effects on the county economy through FHA.

Attending from the state office were Edward F. Holter, director; N. R. Quesenberry, real estate loan officer; J. E. Bryan, operating loan officer; Howard M. Bailey, area supervisor. Special guests were C. R. Hare, former state director and Mrs. Hare of Salisbury.

A movie especially produced for FHA entitled, "The Turning Point" was shown along with color slides showing some of the tremendous changes made in the three-county area in the past 20 years and how these changes affected the family-farm.

State Director Holter presented the new Economic Opportunity Loan authorities and pointed out where there was a definite need for such a program in this area. N. R. Quesenberry and J. E. Bryan gave short discussions on their parts in the FHA Program, working out of the state office.

Those attending from Kent County were: Julian Hill, Jas. Z. Lusby, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newnam, Jr., Walter L. Walbert, Geo. Robert Moffett, Wm. L. Ford, James A. Weamert, Edgar D. Lusby, Howard S. Leaverton, Sr., Howard S. Leaverton, Jr., Stuart Groves, Julian Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson Coleman, E. Thos. Massey, Wilbur Morris, Ronald Hawk, Rev. Edwin Horney, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Newnam, Sr.

J. Weldon Walbert, county supervisor, was in charge of the meeting, assisted by A. H. Ssham and James Pasike, assistant supervisors, and Mrs. Emil Bartz, county office clerk. Mrs.

Bartz was also in charge of the dinner served by the Joy Circle of W. S. C. S. Christ Methodist Church.

A gallon of seawater contains about a quarter of a pound of salt. In all, the oceans have about 4,500,000 cubic miles of salt. Major efforts are being made to find large-scale, economical means of extracting the salt, so that seawater can be used for drinking.

Parents' Body Of College In Session Here

The Parents' Committee of Washington College added four new members at a meeting last week-end. They are Arthur F. Hirsch, Bethesda, representing the class of 1966; William M. D. Roe, Sudlersville, and Mrs. H. K. Daly, Woodbine, both representing the class of 1968. Mrs. Daniel Cades, Philadelphia, Pa., was re-elected to represent the class of 1967.

The members were proposed at the Parents' Committee meeting Friday, February 19, and they were approved at a meeting of the Parents' Association the following day.

In other business, the committee reaffirmed the importance of its support of Bunting Library, and decided to make more active efforts in its behalf.

On Saturday, February 20, the Parents' Association installed officers. They included John Dressel, Bethesda, president; William M. D. Roe, Sudlersville, vice president; and F. W. Hynson, Chestertown, who was re-elected executive secretary.

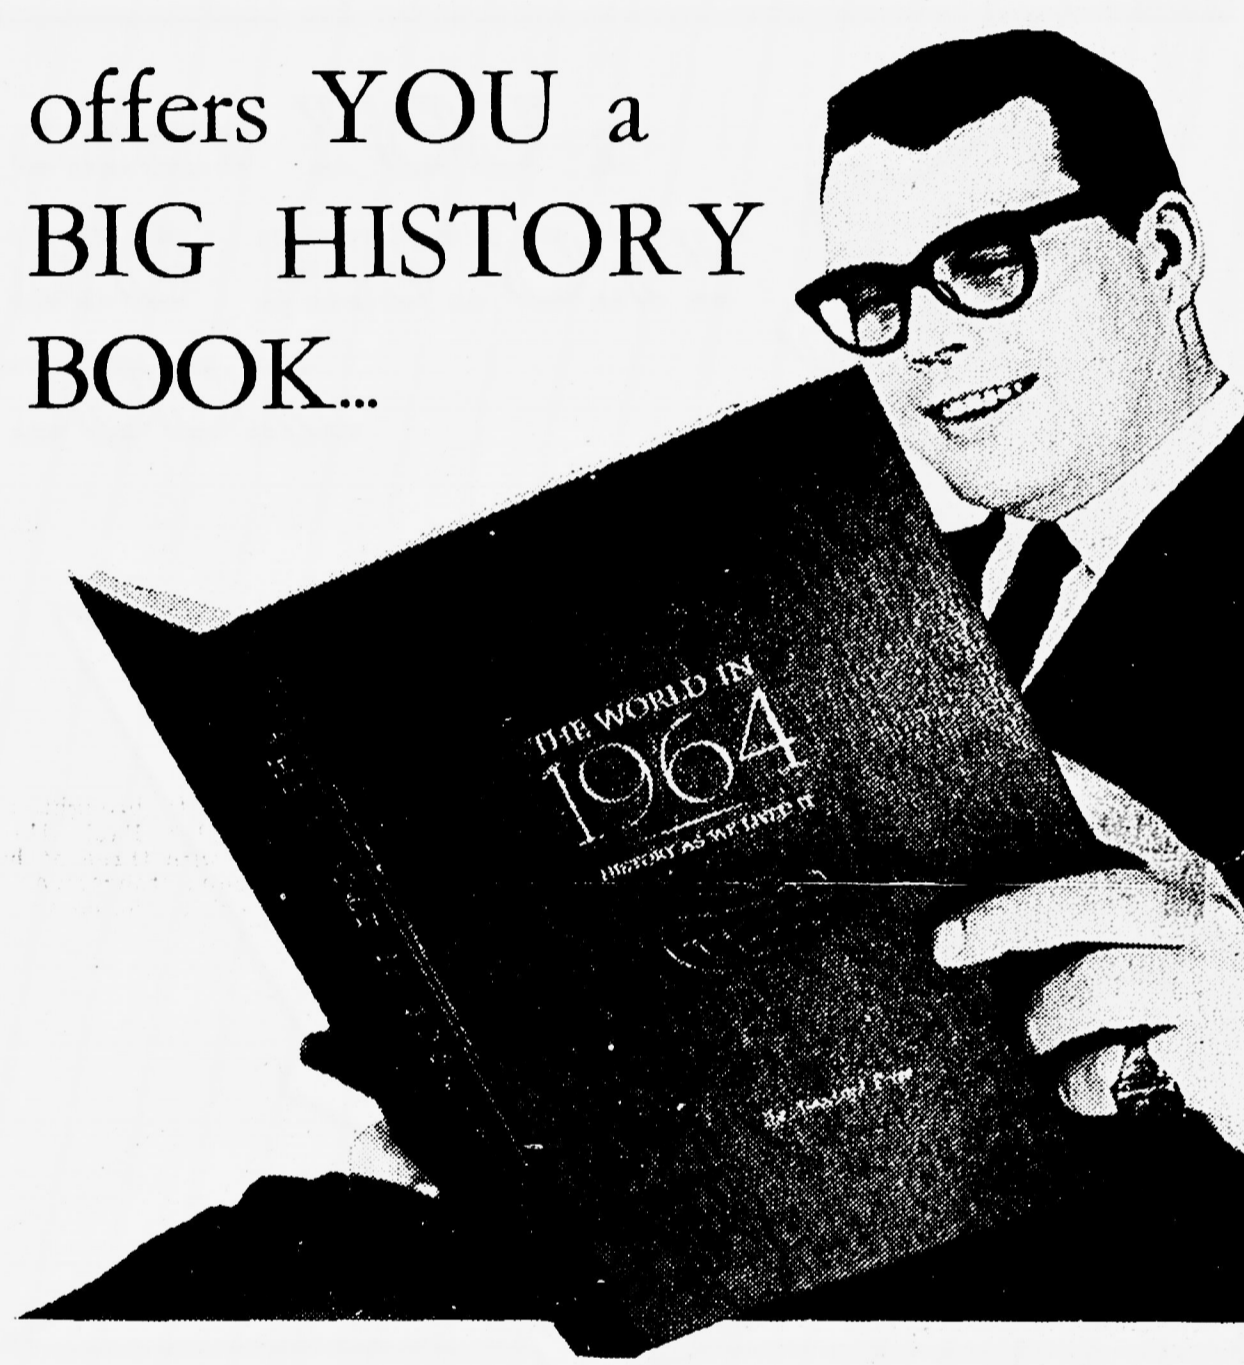

ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR winner in Acme Spot-Gold contest last week was Mary Wright of Church Hill. At left is Robert Nickerson, Chestertown store manager.

His master's '65 Ford.....rides quieter than his master's Rolls-Royce

If you want one of the world's finest handcrafted luxury cars, look to Rolls-Royce. But if you want a popular-priced car, consider this: By test,* Fords ride even quieter than a Rolls-Royce. And quiet means quality—the '65 Ford is exceptionally strong, well designed, solidly built. Prove it, firsthand, with a test drive...

- Feel Ford's Solid Quality
- 100% new body—strongest ever on a Ford
- Frame "tunes out" vibration
- New suspension puts a big ultrasoft coil spring at each wheel

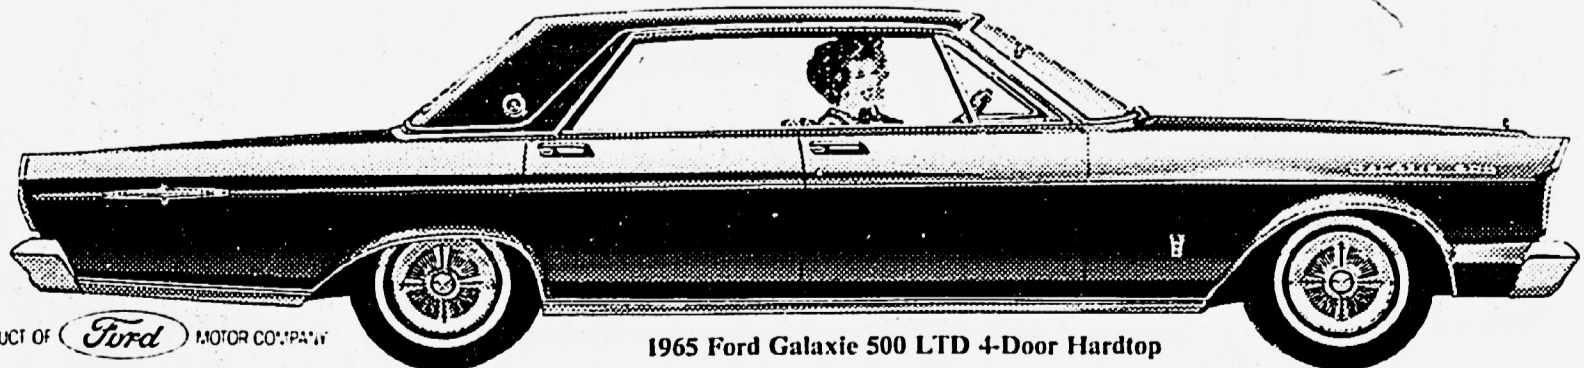

- Inspect Ford's Luxurious New LTD's
- Decorator interiors, thick nylon carpeting
- Walnutlike vinyl inserts on doors and instrument panel
- Rear-seat center arm rests, five ash trays (4-door hardtops), padded instrument panel, and more

- Elegant nylon-vinyl upholsteries—treated with Scotchgard* to resist soiling, pleated for luxury appearance
- Test Ford's New Power
- Big, new 289-cu. in. V-8 standard in XL's and LTD's
- New Big Six—biggest Six in any car. Not available in XL's or LTD's. Test-drive a '65 Ford.

*Leading acoustical consultants conducted tests in which 1965 Fords (Galaxie 500 Sedan, XL and LTD Hardtops) with 289-cu. in. V-8 engines and automatic transmissions rode quieter than a new Rolls-Royce. These tests were certified by the U.S. Auto Club.
