

Brown-Gendreau

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gendreau

The marriage of Miss Martha Quimby Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fisher Brown, of Sudlersville, to Mr. Robert Earle Gendreau, son of Mr. and Mrs. John New, Jr., of Galena, took place May 15 in the First Methodist Church, Vineland, New Jersey.

The doubling ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Braun.

Mrs. Richard Phillips, of Sudlersville, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor.

Mr. James Mon Pardini, of Vineland, N. J., served as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Midway Inn, Buena, New Jersey. After a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Gendreau will reside at Kentmore Park, Kennedyville, Md.

Mr. Gendreau is a draftsman with the Wilson, Nuttall and Raymond Company in Chestertown.

Taylor-Schmidt

A beautiful wedding ceremony was performed in the Holiness Christian Church, Millington, last Saturday, May 22, when Miss Miriam G. Taylor, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul S. Taylor, became the bride of Mr. Dennis Lee Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Schmidt of Warren, Mich.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Kenneth Wooten, Crisfield, and the Rev. Paul S. Taylor, father of the bride, who also gave the bride in marriage.

The bride wore a white lace gown and her attendants were attired in yellow floor length gowns.

Miss Dorcas E. Taylor, sister of the bride was maid of honor, while Miss Betty Louise Dixon of Galena and Mrs. David P. Taylor of Newark Del., were bridesmaids.

Mr. Daniel H. Taylor, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Mr. David P. Taylor, of Newark and Mr. Frank Johnson of Marlon, Md.

Jill Bloom, Reading, Pa., and Robin Lynn Taylor, Newark, Del., were flower girls, and Master Randy Carroll, Elkton was a page.

Miss Bess Marie Holden, Chestertown was the pianist, and Mr. James Holden sang "Wither Thou Goest, I Will Go", and "Because".

A reception was held in the Millington Fire Hall immediately after the wedding.

The couple left for a trip to Detroit, Michigan, stopping at points of interest enroute.

Mr. Schmidt is serving on the U. S. S. Intrepid, which is now undergoing renovation at New York. After his expired term in September, the couple will make their residence nearby.

Winner In Poster Contest

Douglas Jones, oldest son of Commander and Mrs. S. O. Jones, Jr., U. S. Navy, of Florida has been judged winner in a state-wide poster contest. Mrs. Jones was the former Miss Betty Turner, of Chestertown, daughter of A. S. Turner, Jr., of Mesa, Arizona. The title of the poster is "Virtue Leads to God" and will be submitted by the state of Florida in a nation-wide contest.

The above information was received in a letter from grand dad "Sid" who says that he and "Ida", Mrs. Turner are enjoying Arizona very much and describes it as an ideal place in which to retire. He says that they travel a great deal being not far from California, Mexico, Las Vegas and the rugged mountain area of Arizona. In the letter he notes that the mailmen in Chestertown have progressed to the use of golf carts in which to carry the mail; in Mesa the carts are attached to bicycles and suggests that we get on the ball.

Here Wednesday

John D. Morriss of the Social Security Administration will be at the Post Office in Chestertown on Wednesday, June 2, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

The week-end past was gay as predicted. Saturday was a beautiful day, specially for all those who said "I do". Locally, the Hurd - Switz wedding was the highlight of the day, when nearly four hundred attended the ceremony at St. Paul's and the reception at "The Reward". Under a marquee arranged around the circle of boxwood with the fountain playing in the center, small tables were set with white flowers to accommodate guests, and their refreshments on the lawn of the 17th century home. Music played continuously and the improvised dance floor was constantly filled. Leaving by boat from the boat house on the lower terrace, the bride and groom were carried to the opposite shore by Mr. Sterling Larrabee, where their car awaited them. Then, off to Bermuda by plane, on Sunday, went the happy couple, who will live in Cleveland Ohio.

Over a hundred out-of-town guests from Cleveland, Chicago, Washington, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore were present.

Mrs. Henry C. Beck, from Dallas, Texas arrived on Thursday in time to enjoy the nuptial festivities and has been staying with her niece, Mrs. C. Francis Foster at Quaker Neck Landing, up until Tuesday. She has now opened "Kentmere", where she will be in residence for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckingham, of Baltimore, were guests over the weekend of Mrs. Buckingham's mother, Mrs. John E. Spelcher and were among the out-of-town guests at the wedding.

On Friday, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick and Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines attended, in Baltimore, the reception at The Mt. Vernon Club given by Judge and Mrs. Hall Hammond in honor of Mrs. Hammond's daughter, Miss Hope Cannon. Miss Cannon, a senior at St. Paul's School for Girls, will be among the season's debutantes and will be presented at the Bachelors Cotillion this winter.

Afterwards, Judge and Mrs. Hannond entertained some of the out-of-town guests at dinner at the L' Hirondelle Club.

Another event last Saturday pertained to an event of pre-nuptial nature. Mrs. Manfred J. Gerstley and Mrs. Anderson F. Whitsitt entertained at a tea and shower in honor of Miss Anja Gieseking, of Kiel, Germany, at the home of Mrs. Whitsitt. Miss Gieseking's marriage to Ensign Walter F. Burns, III, will take place June 12.

The cocktail-buffet last Saturday given by Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Gale was lively and gay with music on the lawn while guests imbibed and then, later inside when singing and dancing continued the merriment throughout the evening.

The cocktail party, also last Saturday, given by Miss Harriette Welch was in honor of Mrs. W. J. Stenger and Mrs. Ernest H. Strong (not Miss Helen Simpers). We apologize for the boo-boo to Mrs. Strong with belated Happy Returns to both.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Harris, Jr., as members, were guests Saturday last at the Opening and Dedication of the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum at St. Michaels.

Mrs. Nicholas B. Merryman of Wilmington, Delaware, spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Marion A. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Whiteley spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Powell in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania.

The Senior Class of Chestertown High School was entertained last Sunday at a yearbook signing party held at the Frank M. Jarman American Legion Home. Thanks from the Senior Class were given to Mary McGinnis and Dianne Meyer and their parents for complete arrangements of the party.

Mrs. Nell C. Westcott is spending the week at All Saints Convent, Catonsville, Md., with Miss Nancy Sedwick, formerly of Chestertown, now of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Elliott, of the Country Club Estates, will leave tomorrow, Thursday, to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Elliott, Jr., at their home in Richmond, Va. While there, Mr. Elliott, Sr. as a guest of his son, will play in the Member-Guest golf tournament at the Meadowbrook Country Club, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will return home Monday.

Looming ahead is Memorial Day, Sunday, with Monday a holiday for most. No doubt many will come, many will go away. Parades and episodes in commemoration of the day will be in progress throughout the land. So with all the ado, may we be ever mindful of the WHY of it all.

Yours in remembrance,

The Wanderer

Miss Keer To Graduate

At Connecticut College's 47th Commencement ceremonies to be held Sunday morning, June 6, Miss Ann C. Keer of Chestertown will be awarded the Bachelor of Arts degree by the first liberal arts college for women to be established in the State of Connecticut.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Keer, Fey Road, Miss Keer majored in fine arts. She has served as secretary of Canterbury Club, advertising staff member and circulation manager of CONN CENSUS, the school newspaper. Miss Keer was graduated from the Baldwin School.

Miss Dierker Weds Charles Blyman

Miss Nancy Carol Dierker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dierker, Jr. of Fairlee and Charles Blyman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Blyman Sr. of Chestertown, were married Saturday, May 22, 1965, at Wesley Chapel Church, Rock Hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Joseph V. Holliday, Jr.

Miss Sue Ann Dierker, sister of the bride was maid of honor and only bridal attendant.

Mr. Franklin Blyman, brother of the groom served as best man.

After a short wedding trip, the couple is residing at their new home in Byford Heights.

--Want to buy, sell, hire, or trade something? See the classifieds.

Miss Elise Hurd Is Bride Of Dr. Donald McLean Switz

MRS. DONALD McLEAN SWITZ

Miss Elise Hurd, daughter of Edward A. Hurd, Jr., of Lake Forest, Illinois, and the late Mrs. Harriet Niles Hurd, was married to Dr. Donald McLean Switz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Switz of Chicago, Saturday afternoon in St. Paul's Church, Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. George A. Taylor. A reception was held at the "Reward", the seventeenth century house belonging to the bride's grandfather, Mr. Hurd, Sr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza with an empire bodice of applique embroidery and a full length illusion veil adorned with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Deas Boykin of Boykin, South Carolina was the bride's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Ellen P. Hurd of Baltimore, a cousin; Suzette de Marigny Smith of Lake Forest; Rosalind V. Avnet; Nancy Smith and Rosalie Oster of New York; Mrs. James McLane, sister of the groom; Mrs. Leif Thorne-Thomson of Lake Forest and Mrs. Frederic W. Constant, the former Mary Hutton Warfield of Baltimore. A half-brother, Christopher Newell Hurd, and half-sister, Victoria Marie Hurd were train bearers.

Dr. James Covell was Dr. Switz's best man. Ushers were the Doctors John Schneider; Martin Broder; John T. Morrison, Jr.; Joseph Baron; Mr. John Linsay Hurd, the bride's brother; Mr. William J. Schneider; Mr. James Gladish, and Captain John Ross.

The bride was graduated from the Garrison Forest School in Garrison, Maryland, and from Smith College. She was presented at the Bachelors Cotillion in Baltimore in 1960 by her uncle, Mr. Elliot Hurd, and was a member of the Junior Assemblies in New York. She is the granddaughter of Edward A. Hurd and the late Mrs. Hurd of Chestertown and Mrs. Walter L. Niles and the late Dr. Niles of New York.

Dr. Switz was graduated from the Ecole Lemania of Lausanne, Switzerland, from Carleton College and from the University of Chicago Medical School. He is a resident in internal medicine at Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

Dr. Switz is a grandson of Dr. N. Alvin Pedersen, emeritus dean of the College of Arts and Science at Utah State University and Mrs. Pedersen of San Marino, California.

STEVE WADE HOP

SATURDAY, MAY 29

Frank M. Jarman Post

American Legion Home

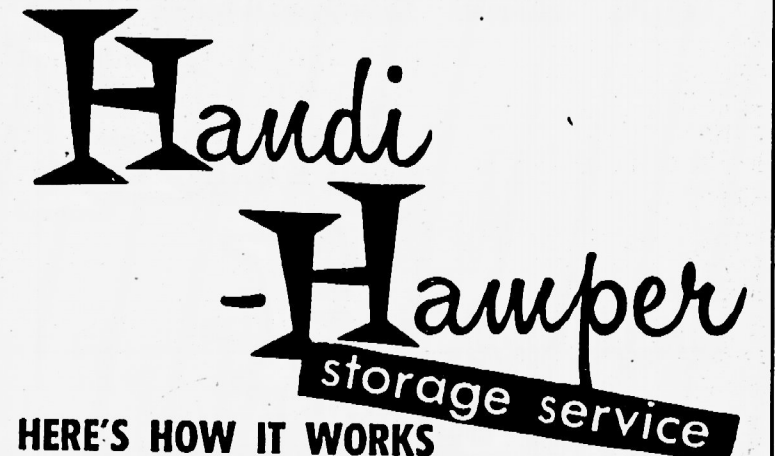

8 to 11

Admission 75c

NOW Store ALL Your Woolens

This EASY Low Cost Way

Pay NOTHING Until Fall

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

We furnish a giant-size Handi-Hamper. You fill it brim full of all the winter woolens you want to store. No more overloaded closets and drawers.

Call us when you're ready - we'll take your Handi-Hamper, clean and moth proof every item in it, and store everything on racks throughout the summer in our fireproof vault.

You pay nothing until Fall, when we return everything refreshed for another season's wear - each garment in a lovely Proteclo Bag.

STORE EVERYTHING FOR ONE LOW PRICE!

Send suits, dresses, coats, children's clothes, jackets, sweaters, shirts, blankets, snow and ski suits, mackinaws, corduroys and hunting clothes.

This one low Storage Charge includes insurance protection up to $250.00. Cleaning is charged for at our usual reasonable rates. Pay monthly if you wish.

Just Drop All Your Woolens In This Big Handi-Hamper. Sure Cure For Closet CRAMP.

First Hamper $4.95

Extra Hampers only $2.95

McCORD'S

Laundry · Cleaning · Storage

Where PERSONAL Care Means Longer Wear

HIGH STREET - CHESTERTOWN
ONE DAY DRY CLEANING

We store everything on hangers, not in a box.

Now Open RESTAURANT

located at
DAVIS PIER
off Bayside Avenue
on Rock Hall Creek

featuring
Imperial Crab
Crab Cakes
Daily Specials
Open From 4 a.m. Daily

THE DRIFTWOOD
On Route 213 at Morgneec Road
COCKTAILS - DINNERS
Live Music Friday & Saturday Evenings
Open Daily from 5 p.m.
Sundays from 1 p.m.

TO RENT TO BUY TO HIRE TO SELL
ADS
HELP WANTED LOST & FOUND