Meeting of the Mutual Building Asso-Association will hold its second monthly meeting, the last Saturday night in the month being the night of meeting to collect monthly dues, &c. As the Association is organized on principles differing somewhat from the first society organized in this town, known as the Elkton Building Society, it will be interesting to have a comparison between the rates of premium and ascertain where they approximate each other. To ascertain this fact, we will suppose that 30 per cent premium has been bid on five shares in the old Building Society. Sunday School Pic Nic.—The Elkton Presbyterian Sunday-school held a pic-nic on last Thursday in Mr. H. McCullough's grove, about two miles from town. The day was all that could have been desired, perhaps a little too warm. And the children can. Their hilarity had not subsided when they returned to town.

Exeursion.—A colored exeursion from Port Deposit, visited our town on Thursday last, on the steamer Alice. The members wore blue badges with gilt letters, "N. S.," inscribed on them, which represented the "North Star" lodge, we were informed, of what Order we did not learn. A colored band from Baltimore accompanied the excursion, and treated the Elktonians to some lively music on the fife and drum.

Minnelala Lodge, I. O. G. T., was very largely attended,—the attendance being variously estimated at from 5,000 to 5,000 to 7,000. Delegations commenced to arrive in the morning, and continued until after 10 clock. Some ten or twelve Good Templar Lodges turned out in a body, and made quite an imposing display in the parade from the Railroad Station to the Grove,—a distance of one mile—accompanied by the "Octoraro" and "Rising Sun" Cornet Bands.
