

FOR CONGRESS, HENRY R. TORBERT, OF CEIL COUNTY.

The Democracy and the New Voters. It is amusing to see the shifts of the time-serving, office-hunting Democracy...

The colored people of Cecil county, are blessed with a fair share of book learning among their leading men...

"MARYLAND POLITICS.—On Thursday last there was a Democratic Conservative mass meeting held at Upper Marlboro'...

After reading the tirades of The Cecil Democrat against "negro suffrage," what its innocent dupes think of the proud Democracy...

"Mr. Waters, President of the Democratic Conservative Colored City of Baltimore, then took the stand and proceeded to reply...

From the same paper we have notice of still another "colored Democratic mass meeting," held in Annapolis, the Capital of the State...

"A colored Democratic mass meeting, under the auspices of the Colored Democratic Association of Baltimore," was held in Annapolis on Wednesday evening...

The Democracy on the Eastern Shore would seem to be anxious to emulate their brethren of the Western respect to catering to the colored voters...

The Cambridge (Md.) Democrat and Herald, one of the Democratic organs of Dorchester county, betrays a strong anxiety to secure at least a portion of the colored vote for the Democratic candidate...

In Kent county there is a colored man named William Perkins, who is the owner of considerable property in Chestertown...

"The CONSEQUENCE.—William Perkins, the restaurant keeper and ice preserver and distributor, having neglected his proper calling and business and turned his political opinions, has doubtless expected that his eating saloon is not patronized by the Democrats and Conservatives as formerly...

"Alas, my folly!" I wish I had continued in my proper calling and let political and office-hunters and office-hunters and carpet-baggers and scallawags alone, and had adopted and practiced upon the advice which my best friends have given me...

"If 'William' made the 'best speech' at the Torbert meeting, 'it is pretty evident that the Chestertown Democracy have now shown against him on the stump, and hence in true Democratic style the F. P. endeavor to get rid of his dangerous oratory by attacking his business..."

The election news which we publish from the great States of Pennsylvania and the West indicates that the masses are abandoning the party which sustained the rebellion, and only aims at political control for the profit to be derived from the offices...

The question of the Fifteenth Amendment is settled beyond even agitation by the result of Tuesday last, and in future, the Democratic capital of Maryland and other rebel ridden States, invested in these questions will share the fate of their ventures in Confederate Bonds...

"The election news which we publish from the great States of Pennsylvania and the West indicates that the masses are abandoning the party which sustained the rebellion, and only aims at political control for the profit to be derived from the offices..."

Republican Meetings.

H. R. Torbert, Esq., our candidate for Congress in this District, is making a vigorous canvass of the Eastern Shore. He has already spoken at several prominent places on the Shore, and is advertised to speak at the following places on the days herein named...

THE ELECTIONS AND THEIR LESSON. The election news which we publish from the great States of Pennsylvania and the West indicates that the masses are abandoning the party which sustained the rebellion...

The next Congress will be Republican as well as the present one, and the vexed and difficult questions of reconstruction having been disposed of, the question of Finance, the tariff and other measures which are needed to restore the business of the country to its former prosperous condition, will demand and receive the earnest attention of Congress...

REPUBLICAN VICTORIES. The election in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio, Iowa and Nebraska, on Tuesday last, resulted in a great victory of the Republican party. It was evident on Wednesday morning that Democracy had suffered a crushing defeat. No noisy Democrats were seen drunk and shouting on our streets, but all
