The Workman to his Wife.

Come, Mary, throw your work aside,
And let your troubles be;
Leave care and toil and smoke awhile,
And spend an hour with me!
We'll seek the cowslip on the bank,
The primrose in the lane;
And happy sighs and sounds afar,
Shall make us young again.

It's long, my love, since you and I
Have heard the black-bird sing,
Or caught by running brooks or woods
The glory of the Spring;
It's long since you and I have trod
The paths where hawthorns blow,
Then, Mary, fling your work aside,
And let your troubles go.

The trees shall bend to welcome us,
The flowers shall clasp our feet,
The very bees shall hymn our praise
In murmurs soft and sweet;
The winds shall swell with ready voice
The chorus high and loud,
And we'll forget the world, my life,
And its busy crowd.

A thousand things await us, love—
Blue skies and balmy air,
Green fields, whose very sight shall make
The heart forget its care;
Then never sigh, be glad to-day,
Throw sorrow to the wind,
Nor pause till we have left our ills
A summer's hour behind.

Good News for Housekeepers.
Whitewashing Superseded!
MAXWELL'S
PREPARED GYPSUM,
FOR
Whitening and Coloring Walls.

A BEAUTIFUL, DURABLE AND CHEAP ARTICLE.

To invent a substance which would supersede the old style of Whitewashing, has long been the aim of the subscriber, and a wish often expressed by housekeepers. That desideratum has at last been obtained, and it affords the inventor much pleasure that he can supply the public with a substitute, which, while it has all the good qualities of Lime, has none of its objectionable features.

The Gypsum gives the walls a brilliant gloss, will not rub off, and is therefore more durable, is easily mixed, and costs no more than the common Lime, and its sanitary qualities are excellent; it is therefore in every respect unsurpassed by anything of the kind ever offered to the public.
