Lying as a Science.

Lying was reduced to a system by the Copperhead party of this State in the last political canvnss. And in no part of the State was it more unblushingly carried on than in this county. The speakers and newspapers didn't scruple to proclaim the most unmitigated falsehoods in the very face of facts and figures to prove the contrary of what they asserted; but a still more ingenious and astonishing system of lying was resorted to on the day of election. In this latter respect Port Deposit appears to have carried off the palm. There the Copperheads proclaimed it in the streets that the most prominent men of the Republican party had voted open Democratic tickets, among the latter Mr. James A. Davis and others, equally as strong Republicans, whom we could name, were reported as having gone over to the enemy. Such astonishing reports had the effect to carry some Republican voters under the excitement of the moment, over to the rebel party. Many Republicans who were gulled by these arts of the enemy are now heartily ashamed of themselves and declare it will be a lesson for the future which they will not readily forget. In the meantime let every man wh would see his State prosper and advance in the path of improvement and intelligence, gird up his loins and prepare to do battle for the right. Our cause is just and will stand the severest tests, when those tests are applied with candor and a regard for truth. Look abroad over the country and you will find wherever Republican principles have been in the ascendancy for a reasonable length of time, education thrives under a system of common schools, the people advance in morality, intelligence and material wealth. Taxes are lessened and public debt reduced. On the other hand, look at the States, the counties, the cities under Democratic sway. Debt and taxation are increasing, while unthrift and official extravagance mark the reign of that party. Look at Baltimore, -a city of rings under Democratic rule, fast approaching the reign of tyranny which plunders and is depopulating New York City, where the taxes are ten times greater for corporation purposes than the tax for the support of the General Government. Under a Republican Administration in Baltimore, contracts were let to build the City Hall for something less than a million dollars. When the Democrats gained control of that city these contracts were annulled, and on the cellar alone of the new Hall, they spent over a million. This is the history of that party in this county, in this State-everywhere where it is in the ascendant. It works itself into power by falsehood, fraud and violence, and seeks to retain its control by adding bribery and plunder to its catalogue of sins.

The Gunboat and the Duckers.

On Monday last the gunboat commanded by Capt. Davidson, of the "Oyster Navy," on the duckers who all made for shore, effecting their retreat in good order. One of the duckers named Poplar, was boarded, posse, headed by the doughty Captain of the gunboat, who with pistol in hand, commanded the surrender of Poplar, who consequently surrendered, having taken the precaution to send his guns and other the defect of the late election, which was the result the surrendered of the late election, which was the result the surrendered by the dought? The precaution to send his guns and other the defect of the late election, which was the result the surrendered from the have great reason to regret the defeat of General surrendered, the same have great reason to regret the defeat of General surrendered, we have great reason to regret the defeat of General the worthy man, and was a capable leader.—

His loss was undoubtedly the greatest of the canvass. The Administration will certainly miss his power in the House." from the gunboat arrived. Nothing was found on board the captured boat that would condemn her as a lawful prize, and the ducking craft and her crew of one were released. The gunboat was lying near the wharf at Havre de Grace, on Tuesday afternoon, when we were there.

The visit from the gunboat caused intense loud and bitter were denounced against the "man of war" and her crew.

This war on the Havre de Grace duckers by the nacy of Maryland, may be sport to outside parties, but it is a serious business with those who depend almost solely on their guns in the ducking season, to procure a living for their families. The ducks shot by the Havrede Grace people produced the principal part of the revenue of the town, and the sudden and violent interrup tion to this source of gain is a very severe blow,-amounting almost to a question of starvation among a large class of poor people, whose little all is tied up in their outfit for the ducking business. Those rich men who have been the cause of so sudden and overwhelming a calamity to these people should, at least, raise sufficient funds to pay them for the property which becomes useless on their hands. If the gunners were able to bear the-to themheavy loss, the case would be robbed of its harshest features-for we would not advise resistance to the law, although a hard measure pushed through the legislature at the heels of the session by a few nabob Democrat shore owners-but its effects fall upon men who are entirely destitute of means when this their only source for support is suddenly cut off, leaving their families without bread or fuel at the approach of Winter, when the chances fo finding employment are extremely meagre. It is pitiable to think of the suffering their wives and children must endure by this sudden blow to their only source of income

Corporation Taxes. Elkton is claimed by the enemies of the Republican party to be a Democratic town, and as such, that party are responsible for the money that is collected from the people under the name of tonw tax. Enough money has been assessed upon the property of the town this year to have materially improved it. We appeal to every man to answer, how that money has been expended. Is there one who will not say that it has been foolishly thrown away-uselessly squandered, without one dollars worth o: benefit to the town, except cleaning the mud from Main street last Spring? The fire apparatus, such as it is, was never before in such a useless condition-without buckets, ladders, or anything most necessary in case of a fire. When a fire occurs a rade is made upon the kitchens in the neighborhood for tin kettles, and water buckets, while a search is being instituted among the carpenter shops for ladders to reach the roof of the burning building. An old clap-board shanty which would dis grace Water street, serves as a pretense for an engine house. By what process of reasoning seven-supposed to be, before they were elected Town Commissioners -of the wisest men of the town, could reach a deliterate conclusion to levy 35 cents on the $100 for corporation tax, and then appoint a bailiff for the purpose of disbursing the amount when collected, is a mystery that no one can explain, that we have met with. For all necessary repairs and scavenger work about the streets, we doubt not that a score of responsible men election, where he was insulted by a could be found willing to give their obliga tions to do the work for 10 cents tax on the $100 of assessable property of the town. A lunacy for taxing and squandering the funds thus collected, seems to pervade not, would feel more honored than shamed

Next House of Congress.

After the smoke and din of battle has subsided, as the politicians say, we are enabled to ascertain the result of the recent which leaves the Republican party strongly master of the next Congress with a majority amply sufficient to control every measure, and complete the work of reducing, and funding the public debt, at a lower rate of interest, decreasing internal taxes, and carrying out the Republican policy to a complete succes. The States which have elected members for the next Congress return 129 Republicans and 94 Democrats. New Hamshire, Connetticut, California and Texas have yet to hold elections and will add 14 more to the list. Of the 14, at present 10 are Republicans. Georgia, unrepresented in the present House is entitled to 7 members.

The paper gains of the Democrats of last week are considerably reduced by the official figures, which when correctly stated shows the party to be where it has been since it took up arms against the Government-behind: and where it is likely to stay while it remains the same old rebel party that it is now and has been since

The blast from the Copperhead organ of this county, last week was simply tremendous as a wind squall, and some of the steady heads of its party were inclined to put faith in its statements of 110 Democratic members in the next Congress. But that count grows beautifully less when compared with the official figures, as given

We thought that experience had taught even the members of the Democrat party that the worst place to go for truth is to The Cecil Democrat.

Democratic Majority The registered vote of the State is 162,387 being 29,358 more than were cast at the election, showing an abundance of material for a thorough reform the State, which would lift it out of the slough of Democratic debt and stagnation which that incubus again visited Havre de Grace, and bore down on the duckers who all made for shore, land to. Hambleton's majority is 3,947. It will be seen that several of the counties are very close, and when the Republican regret." Yes, sir," he answered, "we have sentiment is fully represented they must "traps" up into town before the cutter of unparallelled lying, bluff and brag, must citement in the town, and curses both in which innocent Democratic roughs had indulged in the righteous employment of sufficient tariff for revenue; but we must take from the tariff list such articles as beating and shooting inoffensive colored men at some election poll; but we soon ascertained that the criminal act under discussion was the matter of negro voting, which seemed to be regarded by these Bourbon's as a serious offense against the "peace and dignity" of the common wealth. In the opinion of these gentlemen there had been a very serious crime committed somewhere, and according to Democratic reasoning the "Radical" party was the guilty one.

The day which says to a man we must keep up at least a revenue tariff. When the people see and understand these facts they will appreciate the mission of the Administration.

"You think, then, that the present party divisions or organizations will continue beating and shooting inoffensive colored

We haven't a doubt that these serious Democrats who looked upon the enfrauchisement of the colored man as a crime of the most appalling nature, still considered the slaveholders' rebellion against the Government a righteous act, such is the base perversion of judgment resulting from the teaching of that party.

THE FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. Washington despatch to the New York Tribune says that Mr. Gary intends to contest the election in his district, and his friends say he has excellent grounds for a contest. The Baltimore American says:

Mr. James A. Gary has, it is claimed by good authority, abundant testimony to prove that most outrageous frauds were perpetrated at the late election. Voters were intimidated, ballot boxes were "stuffed" with tickets bearing the name for the statement of the st "stuffed" with tickets bearing the name of his opponent, hundreds of names were stricken from the registry list—in short, all possibly known devices of rascality to crush out and misrepresent the will of the majority of the voters of the Fifth District were used by Mr. Merrick's supporters. In one election district two hundred Democratic ballots were deposited in the ballot-box before the opening of the polls. Mr. Gary has under the law sixty days in which to notify his opponent of his intentions to contest his "election."

A New Party. Hon. Senator Trumbull, from Illinois, is at work trying to frame a new party, of which he is to be the presidential e.ndidate. The Chicago Tribune, part of which is said to be owned by Senator Trumble, is out in advocacy of the new party, which is to be placed on the "Civil Service" and "Revenue Reform" Platform. The ambitions Senator from Illinois took too active a part in shielding Andy Johnson from merited punishment in the famous impeachment trial, to ever make any show as a candidate for the Presidency.

THE ESSENCE OF DEMOCRACY .- One of our most respectable citizens, an old resident and one of the principal business men of the town, received the following whiskytorial note a few days after the election. What respectable man will not hang his head and blush to think he aids to uphold a political party which breeds such monstrosities :

"you Ar dam fol you sun B—ch you dam Black Pubcan you dam Black Pubclion got Beat i hate you very duyal."

-A gentleman and former resident of this county, visited Cecilton on the day of drunken Democrat, who had been a candi date some years ago for the Legislature. He sends us an account of the affair with a request to publish it. The sot, we doubt leave him unnoticed to wallow in the gut-

Postmaster General's Opinion of the Recent Elections.

A correspondent of the Washington Star has been "interviewing" Mr. Creselections more definitely than a week ago well and in a two column article gives the substance of the conference. In reference

THE RECENT ELECTIONS.

"The result has not surprised me," he answered, "though, of course, I am dis-appointed in Maryland. I ascribe the loss appointed in Maryianu. I ascend of that State to the energetic canvass made by the Democrats, who brought out their entire strength, including voters who had and to the jealousy or prejudice of a large number of persons who have previously voted against the Democrats, but who last Tuesday voted against the negroes. Some of them will learn before next year that it will not hurt them to vote their own sentiments even if these sentiments are also voted for by black men, and more of them voted for by black men, and more of them will learn the same thing the year following, so that it is not impossible that we may carry the State at the next Presidential election. Our people relied on the majority which we evidently had by calculations based on the new registration, but I warned them not to be confident. What I tell you about the defection of white voters to the party I know to be true from personal observation. I was in Elkton on the morning of the election, and at Port Deposit in the evening, and I saw myself that we were losing votes in that way.— Deposit in the evening, and I saw inject that we were losing votes in that way.—
The good order maintained throughout the State, of which I am certainly proud, is indicative of a condition of the public mind which is favorable to the increase of

"How do you view the result at large as directly affecting the Administration?"
"Well, as I said before I am not surprised. The history of all previous Admin-istrations will show you that they have suffered similar treatment. In other words he election intervening between the Presi dential contests has always been and always will be more or less unfavorable to the will be more or less unfavorable to the Administration in power. It is natural that it should be so, for it is a season of apathy, or what the politicians call the 'off year,' when the policy of the administration is only partially developed has been but briefly discussed, and is not well understood. I was in the Thirty-eighth Constitution. stood. I was in the Thirty-eighth Congress, which, you remember, was the second of Mr. Lincoln's first term. We came very near losing the House then.—The Border States alone saved us. In fact we had but a fair working majority, and many of our most important war measures were carried by from fourteen to twenty votes. The Freedmen's Bureau bill, for instance, was adopted by only one majority. So you see there is nothing new in the present condition of affairs. In fact, I think we might have expected it, and I am certain that the President didn't anticipate the re-election of all his friends. After all, the most serious result which follows our losses is the disappointment of office-seekers in our party, and they are a small class, you know. They will not have their Representatives here to help them along, and they will be compelled to wait and work for better times in the future. I think, on the whole, that we will be better. think, on the whole, that we will be better off with the fair working majority which we have in the House than we would with our former power. We were too strong. The members were not compelled to consult with each other; there were too many aspirants for leadership, and there was too much opportunity for the display of personal jealousies. We will be free from all this now; there will be no risk of imperium in impeiro, rings within rings, and there will be greater and more confidential concert of action. In short, I am very well satisfied with the result.

"There are especial losses," we suggested, "which you no doubt have occasion to regret."

NO REASON FOR UNEASINESS. No REASON FOR UNEASINESS.

"I looking to the future," he continued, we have no reason for uneasiness. We are in a condition now to patiently wait for the mistakes which our adversaries are sure to make. We have only to continue the development of our policy to win in the next elections. In other words, we must keep our finances firmly in hand, continued, we not remarked that he did "not blame the niggers." We supposed that one of the many breaches of the peace was being discussed, in the same time relieve our public debt, which is the most effective way to maintain the national credit, and at the same time relieve our policy to win the national credit, and at the same time relieve our people as much as possible from taxation.

No REASON FOR UNEASINESS.

"Looking to the future," he continued, we have no reason for uneasiness. We are in a condition now to patiently wait for the mistakes which our adversaries are sure to make. We have only to continue the other witers in the country, on the start from the object bounded with a time refer to waiter from the object with original next elections. In other words, we must keep our finances firmly in hand, continue to reduce our public debt, which is the most effective way to maintain the national credit, and at the same time relieve our policy to win in the next elections. In other words, we must keep our finances firmly in hand, continued.

"You think, then, that the present party divisions or organizations will continue until the next Presidential canvass?
"I certainly do," he answered. "There will be, as a matter of course, numerous side issues like those developed in New York, Pennsylvania and Missouri, but they will be comparatively local, and the national organizations will continue the same.—The movement in Massachusetts, with Wendell Phillips at its head is one of these; but the workingmen know that they are as well off under the present condition of affairs as they would be with such men as he in control. I think the most independent man in the world is the skilled mechanic. I have no genius that way myself, and consequently I often look at them mechanic. I have no genius that way my-self, and consequently I often look at them with wonder. They command good wages, live happily, and if they are honest and industrious they invariably rise in the world. They are certainly to be envied, and I believe they will be contented with their adhesion to the Repablican parry." POSTMASTER GENERAL CRESWELL .- The

POSTMASTER GENERAL CRESWELL.—The Washington correspondent to the New York Times says:

Among the most persistent, yet unfounded rumors which have been hatched and set alloat here lately is that which asserts the early retirement of Postmaster General Creswell from the Cabinet. The truth is of all the members of the body Mr. Creswell is probably the least likely to go.

There is no conceivable reason why he Creswell is probably the least likely to go. There is no conceivable reason why he should. He is popular with the President and popular with Congress. Being a good politician, and having the appointment of twenty-eight thousand Postmasters, he could not well be otherwise. His opposition to the franking privilege has not hurt him with Congress, and has helped to make him popular with the country. Then he is slowly, but surely, putting the service on a self-sustained basis, and that is popular with everybody. Last, but not least, he undoubtedly prefers to remain where he is to going anywhere else, and that is another undoubtedly prefers to remain where he is to going anywhere else, and that is another good reason why he will remain.

The Tribune editorially says:
Postmaster General Creswell is right in holding our reduced majority in the next House no calamity. His other riews of the political situation, as reported by the Washington Star, are, in most regards, judicious. The administration, conducted by such men, is not likely soon to fall into the disfavor its enemies are so foul of prethe disfavor its enemies are so fond of predicting. SHOUTS FOR JEFF DAVIS .- On the night before the election, as well as on the night of the election, the shouts which the Democracy sent forth for "Jeff Davis," who made evon a bad rebel President according to Southern Historians, were only outnumbered by those for Ritchie, whilst during the entire canvass we never heard one shout from that capacious throat either for the Union or for any of its defenders when shout from that capacious throat either for the Union or for any of its defenders when its life was imperilled. This shows how thoroughly rebelized in sentiment this party still is in our county, and how strange it is that loyal men, Union Republicans, should give this rebel party votes enough each year to enable it to carry the county because they are unwilling that loyal peo-ple with black skins should have the same rights in a free country, as all other people rights in a free country, as all other people have.—Hagerstonen Torch Light.

-The Democrats held a saturnalia at Port Deposit, on Tuesday night last, the every city and ham'et in the country. Why by a public notice, and we think it best to 15th instant, celebrating their late victory over the negroes, they say. The affair was intended as a treat to their rank and file, -"Autumn" is very clever and will receive attention soon; also "Stray Mus-ings."

as a Sunday-school pic-nic is intended as an encouragement to the scholars to be studious and attend punctually to their class in future. The similarity stops here.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color. A dressing which is at ouce agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or fulling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can merely for a

ALL POLICIES NON-FORFEITABLE. GEORGE P. THOMAS, President. A. K. FOARD, Secretary.

Hamilton Easter, Allen A. Chapman, George P. Thomveliugh Sisson, Hiram Wood, George H. Miller, William Berrier, Chailes Webb, Thomac Cassard.

Three gentlemen are all well and favorably known among the best commercial men in the State. This is THE ONLY MARYLAND COMPANY.

DIRECTORS:

Its success has equalled the expectations of its most sangular friends. Its rates and dividends compare with the oldest and best companies in the country. It is emphatically gotten up to afford opportunity for all to insure without sending money out of the State.

It must be clear to every intelligent mind, that if we would secure the largest prosperity to our State and the people individually, we must build up our institutions, by keeping capital at home.

The laws of trade, commerce, self-interest and self-respect combine to make this the Company for Marsiand. Had the Five Million Dollars sent out of our State an nually for insurance been invested at home it would have told favorably upon one own wealth and commerce. We hope by care, prudence, economy and strict integ-rity, to merit and secure for the future as we have done we hope by care, principle, economy and strict large, rity, to merit and secure for the future as we have done in the past, the co-operation and putronage of the people in all parts of our State. It is gratifying to all true friends of Maryland's interest that a great want of our State is supplied in the entire success of this Company.
