LOCAL AFFAIRS.
Burglars in everything at the Elk Hive, and terms cash.
Books, etc.—Nothing nicer for a present than a good book.

Christmas Presents.—Mrs. SCOTT & LITTLEWOOD, opposite the Court House, Elkton, Md., have just received a large stock of Christmas presents.

The Sewing Machine.—If we had not one of these useful pieces of household furniture, we certainly would purchase one of Howe's improved from Mr. Danforth.

Exchange.—Rev. A. Cookman, of Grace Church, Wilmington, and Rev. H. F. Price, of the Elkton M. E. Church, will exchange pulpits to-morrow.

Elgin Watches.—Among the several standard American watches, none appear to possess greater merit than the celebrated Elgin watch.

The Chesapeake and Delaware Canal.—At a meeting of the directors of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company, held on Monday, a cash dividend of three per cent. was declared on the outstanding capital stock.

The "Singing Pilgrim."—The concert advertised to be given in the Old Fellows' Hall, by Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," on Thursday evening last, attracted a large audience.

Books.—Scarcity of books in the Second District schools, is complained of by one of the teachers. By the size of the bills for books, we think it probable that the scarcity of books and stationery in any of the Public Schools.

Advertising.—Large type isn't necessary in advertising. Blind folks don't read newspapers.
You can't eat enough in one week to last a whole year, and you can't advertise on that plan either.

Local Miscellany.—Money sold at the Elkton Building Society on Saturday night last, for $200.
James B. Groome, Esq., sold on Tuesday last, the farm of Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs. Cox, situated two miles from Elkton, and containing 41 1/2 acres, to Mrs. Harriet H. Calkens, for $1,500.

A Weather Yarn.—Chestertown can boast a first class yarn spinner, according to the Journal. That paper publishes the following as a specimen of one of his miscellaneous stories:

Let any person recount a marvellous story, and he will find an audience.
More marvellous. One of his listeners happened to speak of a heavy snow storm in Philadelphia, which was followed by a hard, cold rain.
Though the snow lay several inches deep in Philadelphia, yet thirty miles south of that place nothing but rain fell.

PORT DEPOSIT ITEMS.

Mr. McCormick coming into Port last week made a narrow escape. His horse became frightened near the depot, and would have run into the river had it not been for the driver.

Thursday evening, Messrs. John Vanant and Joe W. Howland returned from Ulster county, N. Y., having succeeded in getting their horses which were stolen the day last July. The thief had escaped from a Pennsylvania jail, where he had been confined for horse-stealing; came here; got the two horses; put them to Mr. Caldwell's buggy and drove to New York.

Buy your goods for cash, and go to the Elk Hive to get them.
Fires.—An alarm of fire was raised on Wednesday morning last, between 9 and 10 o'clock, and smoke was seen issuing from Mr. John Crawford, deputy post-office, on Main street, near Mr. Jos. Wells & Son's meat and provision store.

A fire in the residence of Mary Heman created an alarm of fire, but was extinguished in ten minutes.
A delegation of colored Old Fellows attended the funeral of Richard Gray, one of the most estimable colored men of our town, on Monday last.

RISEING SUN ITEMS.
Apprentices.—John W. Buckley, Jr., is building an addition to his residence on the north side of the town, which will be an ornament to the borough.
A delegation of colored Old Fellows attended the funeral of Richard Gray, one of the most estimable colored men of our town, on Monday last.

Change.—Mrs. Mary A. Sharpless, has removed to Fairville, Pa. Mr. Robert Cochran, photographer, has sold his house to Mr. H. Sheppard, tailor, and removed to Avenue, Pa. Mr. Sheppard has removed from Philadelphia to the residence purchased by Mr. Cochran. Haines Bros., having sold their store to M. E. Martin, of Chester, Pa., and W. Martin, of Wilmington, are preparing to leave.

Building and Loan Association at the last meeting, on 12th inst., sold $1,000 at 30 per cent. premium.

NORTH EAST ITEMS.
The Sunday-School Exhibition.—The Methodist Episcopal Sunday-School Concert and Exhibition is to take place in the Church, on the evening of Monday, the 20th inst.

Deaths.—On Tuesday, the 6th inst., Mr. J. H. Cooper, a highly respectable citizen, was called away to his heavenly home. He has for many years lived in this vicinity, and has ever proved to be what he was, a true and worthy citizen.

FOURTH DISTRICT ITEMS.

Considerable building is going on in this District. Mr. Jesse Irwin has just finished putting up a splendid stone residence, on his farm, lying in the northwest part of the District, and will give an appropriation to the neighborhood. Mr. Wm. Wade has added a third story to his house, which, with a coat of paint, makes it look comfortable.

Mr. John H. Irwin, who has a magnificent stone school-house near the site of the new one. When finished it will be one of the first in the county. The building is confined for the winter on the first, and a public hall on the second floor, which is to be used for Sunday-school, lectures, debates, &c. The trustees of the school, at the head of Aves, took them home and sold them for $370. The holders were to part with them and offered to re-purchase, but the school board refused to do so.

The balance has nearly all been raised by subscribers in money, material and labor. The young ladies are making preparations for holding a fair and festival, to commence Dec. 29th, and continue until after New Year's. It is hoped that people will turn out largely and spend their money freely.

While speaking of schools, I would just state for the benefit of our School Commissioners, that school No. 8 presents a very desirable looking appearance, never having received but one coat of paint in twelve or thirteen years ago. This school has a regular attendance of from 40 to 50 scholars, under the able management of Miss Mary Quinn, one of the Commissioners will be near this in mind.

Site of Real Estate.—Wm. McClelland recently sold the farm of the late John McCarty, lying in the eastern part of this District, to Frank Zebby, of Virginia, for $5,000.

Farming.—Farmers generally have finished their work, and are now enjoying a season of rest. They certainly need rest, for there are not many other people who work harder from early spring to late fall for less pay.

Debate.—The spirit of debating is kept up, and is apparently on the increase. There is a new organization at the session-house of the Church, styled "The Farmers and Mechanics' Club," and "Literary Society," conducted in the lecture hall. It has had but three or four meetings, but has informed its members in many other respects.

Deaths.—On Tuesday, the 6th inst., Mr. J. H. Cooper, a highly respectable citizen, was called away to his heavenly home. He has for many years lived in this vicinity, and has ever proved to be what he was, a true and worthy citizen.
