Death of a Former Citizen .- Dr Edward Veazey, oldest son of the late Gov. Veazey. of this county, died a few days ago, at St. Louis, Mo., at an advanced age. We met the Dr. some two years since when on a visit to Eastern Virginia, at his home near Farnham Church. He purchased a tract of land in that neighborhood containing several hundred acres, where he at that time resided. The Dr. was jovial and hospitable, and we spent a very pleasant hour at his Virginia home. A few months since, we learn, he returned to St. Louis. where he had previously resided, and where several members of his family remained after the doctor moved to Virginia. All who knew the warm hearted old man will drop a tear to his remembrance.

Throwing Off the Wrong Mall .- On Monday last the Newark mail was thrown out at Elkton, and as the Elkton mail did not arrive till the next day, the supposition is that it was left at Newark. Vandenhoff.-We cannot remember when ve enjoyed a more pleasant hour than on Tuesday evening, listening to Vandenhoff's readings; and all who were present will, we are persuaded, bear us out in the opinion that few entertainments can be devised, which combine enjoyment, to all intellectual minds, with instruction, which are superior to that of listening to a reader like Vanlenhoff. Not, as in ordinary reading, when the characters dimly appear before the mind in shadowy forms on a far-distant last, his sentence having been commuted stage, do they seem when Vandenhoff holds the book. They rise in all the distinctness of real life, -in flesh and blood, as it were, and became real beings as they appeared to the author who conjured them up; or as they would if they were in very life efore us.

Christmas Day.—It is announced that there will be services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, on to-morrow, (Christmas day,) at 5 o'clock, A. M., and an appropriate sermon preached, by the Pastor at 10 o'clock A. M. The Protestant Episcopal Church will also suitably observe the occasion, by the usual ceremonies of that denomination.

The Meeting at Boulden's .- The revival continues at Mrs. Boulden's, with unabated interest. There have been about twenty-five conversions during the meeting which has been in progress six weeks. Mr. Chas. S. Grant, of North East, has labored with this people most faithfully from the first, and deserves the credit of being the instruand deserves the credit of being the instru-ment in securing the glorious result achieved. Rev. Thos. L. Poulson organ-ized a Methodist Episcopal Society at this place, last Monday evening, receiving the names of twenty persons thereunto. Mr. Grant was made leader of the Society, with Mr. Ebenezer Aufree as assistant.— We might add, that the foundation is already laid for the new church of the Society, and an energy exhibited in the Society, and an energy exhibited in the matter that gives promise of an early completion of the edifice.

Our Universal Holiday .- Christmas is universally observed as an occasion of merry making, and the giving of presents. Due preparations are made in this place to amply honor the season in those respects. The stores and shops are filled with nicknacks and gewgaws, as well as with many useful and needful articles of supply, to meet the inflated demands of the times.— A number of Christmas trees are to be planted in private houses, and to be ladened with the "fruit of the season." A Village without a Grogshop.—I presume you are aware that there is a village called Lombardville, situated in the northeast corner of the 9th District. It consists of a store, wheelwright and blacksmith shops,—each doing a thriving business—and a few dwelling houses; and, to our great relief, no tavern within two and a half miles of us. There was a rumor, a short time ago, of having one started within a mile of us, at the place formerly known as the White House; but fortunately two of our old neighbors, whose land was adjoining, purchased the property between them, and, though small, they listened as attentively ing, purchased the property between them, our old neighbors, whose land was adjoining, purchased the property between them, and by so doing have raised themselves in the estimation of the order-loving and moral portion of the community, and especially the ladies. Improvements.—Our quiet little town is not much on the go-a-headitiveness, but still we have had some little improvements during the last year. Mr. J. N. Black has had his dwelling repaired, which adds greatly to its appearance. The Town Commissioners have purchased from Mr. J. N. Black, for the sum of $150, the square of ground lying north of the M. E. Church, J. N. Black, for the sum of $150, the square of ground lying north of the M. E. Church, for the purpose of making a burying ground. Mr. John B. Graham has just completed his contract of fencing in said lot, and also the lot on which the church stands. This was a much needed improvement and adds greatly to the ontward appearance of the church, for which the commissioners deserves credit. And we think if they would fix up some kind of a side-walk from the church door to the corner on the main street, and make it so that our church-going citizens would not that our church-going citizens would not have to wade in the winter time ankle deep in mud, they would at least receive a vote of thanks from our church going people.

School Matters.—The Public School of this place—numbering some sixty scholars
—is under the very competent care of Mr.
J. Wesley Falls, with Mr. Ellis C Graham, as assistant. We think that both principal and assistant will compare favorably with any other school in the county. Mr. Falls, we understand, rules his school with kindness, and has perfect order in every respect and has even the affection of both pupil and has even the affection of both pupil and parent.

Matrimonial.—We have a few marriage able young ladies here, but it would seem not enough marriageable young men, for it has not been long since A young man from the country came in and took from our midst one of our fair ones, Miss Maggie E. Bennett. Mr. Wm. Jones being the "lucky dog." The Rev. Joseph Dare, our pastor, was somewhat surprised one day last week, by a rap at his reception-room door, and on opening it his eves fell upon a fair and on opening it his eves fell upon a fair and on opening it his eyes fell upon a fair and loving couple, clinging.—yes, clinging to each other. They were invited in, joined in bands of holy matrimony and sent on their way rejoicing. If the most favorable of signs do not fail, we will certainly have a wedding here during the Christmas holi-days.

Ducks .- Those of our citizens who have for several years past been engaged in the ducking business, still retain in their posducking business, and retain in their pos-session the necessary outfit for carrying on that business, and in the absence of the Oyster Navy, which occasionally cruises on the waters of the Susquehanna, slip out and give the feathery tribe a salute, and many are the canvas-back, red-head and black-head that are brought to a sudden halt by the unerring marksman of Cecil and Harford counties. Ducks are selling at the following prices, per pair: canvas-backs, $4.50, red-heads, $2.25, black-heads,

Harness Stolen .- On Friday night of last veek a set of single harness, belonging to C. L. Brokaw, was stolen from the stable of John M. Sentman. Shot Himself. - Charles, son of Joseph Gracey, just over the line in Pennsylvania, who was accidentally shot some weeks ago, while out gunning, is gradually recovering. Being but a few feet from the muzzle of being but a few feet from the muzzle of the gun when it was discharged, the whole charge including the wad and a portion of his clothing, lodging in his back and lungs. Twice before he narrowly escaped being shot. Once a load of shot passed through his cost and consumers to the passed through his coat, and on another occasion a charge passed through his hat while on his head. A son of Amos Brown recently shot him-self through the hand with a revolver; another warning to parents and children Improvements.—Mr. David Scott, Sr., is about finishing a new barn, some 40x45 ft., which is a credit to himself as well as the Loss of Stock.—Mr. Scott, of Scott's Mills, lost a valuable horse, a few days since, by colic, and one of Mr. John Smith's also died last week, from the same disease.

Fair.—The ladies of the Rock Presbyterian Church are preparing for a fair to be held at some future day, in said Church, the proceeds to assist in reparing it. PILOT TOWN ITEMS.

Conoucingo Bridge.-Conowingo Bridge

Conseings Bridge.—Conowings Bridge Company have contracted with Henry Silver and Josiah Scarborough to build a span of the bridge one hundred and fifty feet long, to be covered. The span will connect the ravine bridge with the main bridge. The work to commence in April, 1871. The bridge to be passable during the time of building, except three days. 1871. The bridge to be passable during the time of building, except three days.

Railroad.—Mr. Snyder has succeeded in demolishing the Wild Cat Rock. He had five holes drilled ten feet deep, which were charged with nine kegs of powder, (225lbs). The result was the blowing off of twelve hundred enbic yards of rock. Mr. Malone has the abutments ready for the bridge across the Conowingo creek. across the Conowingo creek.

Roads.—Mr. Bell has had a force of men widening the road on the Conowingo hill.

widening the road on the Conowingo hill. He is also improving the grade.

The Ricer.—The river is in rafting order and the pilots are running the rafts to Port that they were unable to get down on the Spring flood. I believe everything in the shape of a raft below Phite's Eddy is now down.

Christmas.—Allow me to say in conclusion that the readers of The Which is this sion that the readers of The Whig in this vicinity send you their Christmas greetings, and hope they may always have as able and featless a journal in defence of morality and right. WILMINGTON,
