In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce sillious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third, at least, of the population die of this terrible diesase. In the Middle states it does not prevail so largely, atill there are many thousands of cases there. # Enterprise are located there. Laboud give a decided preference to Mellouville. It is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Floribla neight be better, and patients complain at times, but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and what the it is the case they generally increase in flesh, and then the large must heat. Jacksonville, Hibrario, dreen Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptive, in whiter. My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take rold there than where there is less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposes humself for frequent coles, he is certain to distortly. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State out of the reach of pertailing east winds and figs. Stake out life, or almost any other of the localities I have namel, will benefit those whose lungs are diseased a more southern point is earnestly recommended. For fifteen years prior to 1800, I was provided that or cough, but for those whose lungs are diseased a more southern point is earnestly recommended. For fifteen years prior to 1800, I was point in the state of the localities of the numbered patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every peculie phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence, my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take large quantities of "Schenka's Pulmonie Syrup, Seaweel Tonic and Mandrake Pills," and yet die If he does not avoid taking cold. In Florida, nearly everybedy is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce stilled to the finite of the finite stilled that the sold the say that the say of the finite of Folicia, rarely die well established fact that natives of Islands. fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night or every other night, and you may then drink water or ear water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chillis and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you goed only.

I have aban louned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 18 N. SIXTII Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 94. N. to 10 y. N. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of my medicine depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions. In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so ilable to take cold, yst not one with diseased lungs can hear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the brouchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be longht from any druggist.
