WILTBERGER'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS FLAVORING EXTRACTS

Are warranted equal to any made. They are prepared from the founts, and will be found made better than many of the Extracts that are sold. Ask your times or or Bougest for Wiltergork Extracts. BRHOWS INDIAO BRUE is, without doubt, the best article in the in class for blump clothes. It will color more water than four times the same weight of indice, and much more than four times the same weight of indice, and made more than four times the same weight of indice, and made more two times the same weight of indice, and made more two for the same weight of indice, and made more than four times the same weight of Hardeston's bottom story, No. 23, North Second Street, Philadelphia. The labels have both Militergor's and Barbow's name on them, all other are est integrial. For adely most those stand Druggists. Wiltergor's INDELHILE INK will be found on trial to be a upperior article. Always on hund and for sale at reasonable prices. Pure Ground SPICES, Genne Madelland Spices, Part Ground SPICES, Genne Militergor's INDELHILE INK, Sponges, Tajoen, Parl Suga, and all articles in the drug line, at ALFRED WILTERGORE'S DRUG STORE.

No. 250 North Second Street, Philadelphia, No. 253 North Second Street, Philadelphia, May 28, 1870-19.

BUSINESS COLLEGE Assembly Buillings, s. w. cor. Tenth and Chestnut STS.

Scholarships good in 40 Colleges in the United States and Canadas. For particulars call or send for Catalogue, Aug. 20, 1870-tm LADIES' FANCY FURS! Assets, - - $5,500,000.

JOHN FAREIRA. 718 ARCH STREET, Millie of the Island, between 7th and 5th streets, South PHILADELPHIA, PHILADELPHIA.

Importer, Manufacturer and boaler in all kinds and quadity of
FANCY FUIES

FOR LADIES and CHILDREN'S WEAR.

Having enlarged, remodeled and improved my obtaind favorably known PUR EMPORTEM, and having imported a large and splendid associated for all the different kinds of Fure from first hands in Europe, and have had them made up by the most skillful workneam, I would respectfully invite my friends of Cevil and adjacent countries to all and examine my very large and beautiful association of Fancy Fure, for Ladies and Children. I am determined to sell at as low prices as any other respectable house in this city. All Fure warranted. No misrepresentations to effect sales.

JUNE FAREHRA.

118 ARCH STREAT, PHILADELPHIA.

Oct 22, 1870—5m.

Oct 22, 1870—Sm 1870. FALL. 1870

GEORGE D. WISHAM, No. 7 NORTH EIGHTH STREET, PHILADELPHIA,

The Cheapest Irish Poplins. The Cheapest Silk Popling. The Cheapest Corded Poplins.
The Cheapest Plaid Poplins.
The Cheapest Silk Valour Poplin The Chargest Wood Valour Poplins. The New Cloth Shades.

The Cheapest Satia De Chine Poplins. CLOTH SHADES. The Cheapest 64 Gala Cloth Plaids. The Cheapest and Best Velyeteens. The Chemest Black Modales and Alpacas The Cheapest Green, Gold & Black Water The Cheapest Muslims and Table Linens. The Cheapest Canton and Wood Flannels.

Eighth St. Emporium for Black Silks. Being determined to maintain our reputation of the last five years, for selling the best and cheapest black filks in this or any other market, I have now opened a full line of them much under price. CEO. D. WISHAM.

Politeness and attention to our customers, and On rice is our motto. [Oct 22, 1870-31 BLANKETS, QUILTS, LINENS, &C.

513 pairs Blankets, $1.00 to $18.00. 211 Wood Coverlets and Comfortables, Jacquard Quilte, $1.00 to $15.00. Marseilles Quilte, $1.00 to $15.00. Lap Blankets, Carriage Rugs. Traveling Blankets and Mande.

LINENS.

215 der. Pine Towels, $2,50 to $5,00.
275 der. Naphine, $1,00 to $2,00.
176 der. Naphine, $1,00 to $2,00.
110 k Towelinge, Er. to finest.
Russian and American Grasher.
Russian and American Grasher.
Russian and American Grasher.
Russian and American Directors.
Russian and American Directors.
Spiress First Damasks, 65c, up.
Barasley Table Limens, $1,25 up.
Bichardson's Limens, every number.
Shirt Bossens, full limes, all styles.

$1.00 SILK POPLINS. $1.00 MERINOES. $1.00 SERIES $1.00 SATIN CLOTHS.

COOPER & CONARD. S. E. cor. Ninth and Market Streets. Nov 5, 1970-11m PHILADELPHIA.

RAND. PERKINS & CO. 124 North Sixth Street. PHILADELPHIA, the most approved Brick Set. and Portable Heaters.

FLORAL GUIDE FOR 1871.

OUR BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED "FLORAGUIDE AND GARDENER'S MANUAL" 1871 20 Varieties Palox Drummondil, packot, Bouble Portulaca, like miniature roses... Double Petunis

Sent post paid. Address, PHELPS & REYNOLDS.

Dec 3, 1570-3er TDICIFIC GUANO COMPANT'S

Capital ($1,000,000.) SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO certified by these who have used it to yield more than Peruvian Guano, and costing about half as much, Secalivertisement in another column. For sole by apr 16 JOHN PARTRIDGE, Electon.

THE CECIL WHIG.

ELKTON, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1871.

WHOLE NO. 1,539.

LIFE INSURANCE.

VOL, XXX---NO. 24.

Mutual Life Insurance Company OF NEW YORK. 144 and 146 Broadway. F. S. Winston, President.

Assets, July, 1870, $41,000,000 Cash. 19_The Largest Company in the World.

THIS COMPANY Issuel 937 more Policies in 1869 than any other Co.

It has 11,070 more Policies in force than any other Co. Premium Income is $5,775,720 Larger than any other Co Interest Income is $733'670 Larger than any other Co. Total Income is $6.515,380 Larger than any other Co. Cash Dividends $2,088,171 Larger than any other Co. Gross Assets are $10,012,600 Larger than any other Co. Amount Insured is $59,587,308 Larger than any other Co Total Out-go for Expenses and Death Losses is SMALLET The Cost of Insurance is 1754 than in any other Co. O. F. BRESEE, General Agent, No. 15 SOUTH ST., BALTIMORE, MD.

T. Ascherfeld, Agent, Nov 26, 1870-2m

CONTINENTAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

OF NEW YORK.

PURELY MUTUAL.

Policies issued, - - 30,000.

Profits of the Company Annually Divided. One-Third of the Premium may remain unpaid as a LOAN.

NO NOTES REQUIRED. Policies Non-Forfeitable.

WILLY HOLDERS WAT TRAVEL IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD WITHOUT BETRA CHARGE.

OFFICES, CONTINENTAL BUILDING,

Nassau Street, corner of Cedar. BALTIMORE BRANCH. LANGLEY & FORBES, Managers, A VALUABLE FARM 42 POST OFFICE AVE.,

J. T. YATES, AGENT FOR THE EASTERN SHORE, DR. R. H. TUFT'S OFFICE,

The subscriber having purchased the Real Estate of the alcove-named defendant, at a sale thereof, by virtue of an execution issued upon the foregoing judgment, made on the 15th day of October, in the year eighten hundred and seventy, by William T. King, Bailiff and Constable, hereby gives notice that he intends to apply to the Judges of the Circuit Court for Cedi county, at its next session, to be held at Elkton, on the third Monday of March, next, for a confirmation of said sales when and where the said defendant or her creditors or any other person or persons claiming an interest in the notice will have an operating of stating their edgections, if any they have, why the said sale should not be confirmed, and for that purpose are hereby warned to appear.

The property purchased by the subscriber is one malitided third part of a Tavern House and Lot of Landon which the same is situate, at Rock Run, In the village of Port Deposit, conveyed to her by S. Rowland Carson by deed dated the thriteenth day of May, 1807, and recorded among the Land Records of Cecil county, in Liber IL R. T., No. 1, folio G3, and was struck off at the sum of one bunded dollark.

Bet C1, 1810—4w MARTIN C. HUBER.

PROPOSALS For Wrapping Paper & Twine.

POF WRAPPING PAPER & TWING.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 2, 1870. }

SEALED PROPOS ALS will be received at this Department until the 20th day of January, 1871, at 12 o'clock neon, for furnishing WRAPPING PAPER AND TWINE for the use of the Post Offices in the United States for one year from the lat day of February, 1871, the said articles to be delivered, free of expense, to the Department, Washington, D. C.

The quality and the estimated quantity of each article required are specified below:

18,000 reams of Wrapping Paper, 20x25 inches in size, and to weigh 22 pounds to the ream, each ream to contain 20 perfect quires.

10 reams of Wrapping Paper, 20x40 inches in size, and to weigh 50 pounds to the ream, each ream to contain 20 perfect quires.

50,000 pounds of Cotton Twine, in balls, to weigh about one-half pound each, and so beamd as to prevent their becoming loose and taiged by transportation.

20,000 pounds of Coarse Hemp Twine, in balls, to weigh on. inds of Coarse Hemp Twine, in balls, to weigh from one to two pounds each, and so bound as to prevent their becoming loose and tangled by to prevent their recoming toose and tangenty from the proposal of the articles required will be furnished to persons who desire to bid on application to the First Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C. More or less than the estimated quantities may be ordered as the necessities of the Department may require, at the discretion of the Postmaster General.

Each biddler must furnish with his proposal guarantees of his ability to comply with his bid, and a certificate from a postmaster that such guarantees are reliable persons.

ersons.

Awards will be made for each article separately if leoned most advantageous to the Department.

Two sufficient sureties will be required to each con-Two sufficient sursines will be required to entracted for, or an attempt to impose upon the Department articles inferior, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, to those contracted for, will be considered sufficient came for the forfeiture of the contract.

Bids not made in conformity with this advertisement will not be considered.

The Postmaster General reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if in his opinionit is required by the interests of the Department. The Postmaster General reserves the right to reject any or all bis, if in his opinion it is required by the interests of the Department.

Proposals must be inderested in the envelope, "Proposals for Warpping Paper," or "Proposals for Twine," and addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C.

JNO. A. J. CHESWILL,

Dee 10. 1870-949

Postmaster General.

PROPOSALS For Letter Balances.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2; 1870. SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this Depart ent until the 20th day of January, 1871, at 12 o'clock fifer the lat day of February, 1871, of the following leavingtion, namely:
First. Balances capable of weighing eight ounces, avordinged weight, to be graduated down to quarter names. Of these it is supposed that 1,600 will be wanted, Second. Balances of the same capacity, graduated by the metric or gramme system. Of this class 100 may be consisted.

Second. Balances of the same capacity, graduated by the metric or grainese system. Of this class 100 may be required.

Third. Balances capable of weighing four pounds, assirdupois weight, to be graduated to half ounces. Of this class it is supposed 20 will be wanted.

Perfect accuracy, strength and durability will be required in the Balances of a graduated to half ounces. Of this class it is supposed 20 will be wanted.

Samples of each description of Balances of a quality many each bid, and the history who may obtain the contract will be required to furnished.

Samples of each description of Balances of a quality in all respects equal to the sample.

Each balance must be well and securely packed in a key for transportation, and delicated from all expense to the Blank Agency, Washington, D. C.

Each bidder must furnish with his proposal guarantees of his ability to comply with his bid, and a certificate from a postmaster that anch guarantoes are reliable persons.

Two sufficients sureties will be required to a contract. Awards will be made for each article separately if deemed most advantageous to the Bepartment.

A failure for furnish promptly any article contracted for, or an attempt to impose upon the Department articles inferior, in the ophion of the Postmaster deneral, to those contracted for, will be considered sufficient cause for the Grif-time of the contract.

The Postmaster General reserves the right to reject any or all bids if in his ophion, it is required by the interests of the Department.

Proposals must be endorsed on the suvelope, "Proposals for Letter Balances," and directed to the kirat Assats and Datmaster General, Washington, D. C.

PALINICIE BARTHACE

MINCE MEAT. The best MINCE MEAT in the market for sale at 18 cents per B. by

Dec 10, 1870—1m

JOHN M. TERRELL,
Elkton. MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR RENT. THE FARM now occupied by Wm. P. Howard, two miles from Chesapeake City. 80 to 100 scres to be planted in corn. WM. P. HOWARD, on Table 10, p. M. HOWARD, Eikten. Dec 3, 1870-1f

WANTED. A Store Stand in Cecil County.

NORTH OF THE PHIL, WIL. & BALT. RAILROAD Address William Turner,
Box 87, NEW CASTLE, Delaware

FARM FOR SALE. The substriber offers for sale the FARM on which he resided, near Weedlawn, containing 160 Acres of Gray Stone Land, with large and substrutial processing well watered; with good supply of Timber for building, feneing and Indel Large. Apple orehard, alochoice Fouches, Cherries, Pears, Ac.

Tersens wishing to purchase a good Tatm will please call and examine, or address

Jas. O. McCormick,

Woodlawn,

may 14, 1870—tf

Cecil county, Md.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

HOUSE AND LOTS IN ELKTON. By virtue of a Decree in Chancery, the subscriber, as Trustee, will offer at Public Sale, to the highest hidder, On Tuesday, the 24th of January, 1871, at 2 o'clock F. W. at the Court Hense doer, in Elkton, all that STONE and FRAME DWELLING and LOT OF LAND and OUTHULLINGS thereon, lying on the newest side of Bow Street, in the Town of Elkton, now in the occupancy of Wrn.

Also, the VACANT LOT, Iying between that property and the let of Rebert Marshbank.

Also, a VACANT LOT, on the north side of Main street, nearly opposite the M. E. Church, 85 feet front, 1200 feet leads will be without reserve.

ApThe sale will be without reserve.

TREMS OF SALE—One-shalf the courthose money in TERMS OF SALE—One-half the purchase money in cash; the Issiance in two instalments of Siz and Twelre months, bearing interest from day of sale.

Procession of Lote immediately; of Dwelling, March 20th, 1871.

F. A. ELLIS, dee 31, 4870—ts

Trustee. TRUSTEE'S SALE. By virtue of a Decree passed by the Circuit Court for Cord county, in Equity, in a cause in which Jesse II, simpers was complainant and Robert Dawson and others defendants, the subscriber, as Trustee, will offer at Public Sale, at the Court House door, in Elkton, on TUESDAY, January 31st, 1871. at 2 o'clock P. M., all that TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND.

which was mortgaged by Robert Dawson and wife to Jesse H. Simpers, by increasing dated April 8th, 1854, and recorded in Liber H. H. M., No. 2, folio 92, &c., one of the Land Record Books of Credi county. This property is situated about 5 indice from Elkton, on the cast side of the Blue Ball road, adjedning lands of James McCauley, W. H. Vansant and others, contain-ling 84 ACRES, More or Less The land is of good natural quality, with southern exposure, and can be made a handsome property. There is sufficiency of Wood for fuel and building purposes.—The improvements are impossible raile.

is imfletency of Wood for fuel and buttoning proposed. The improvements are inconsiderable.

TERMS OF SALE, as prescribed by said Decree, are as follows: One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on day of sate; one-third in Six, and one-third in Six, and one-third in Six and one the bear interest, and to be ascured by the Bond or Notes of the purchaser, with surety or sureties to be approved by the Truttee; or the whole may be paid in cash on the day of sale, at the option of the purchaser.

ALEXANDER EVANS, Dec 21, 1870—ts.

Trustee.

AT PUBLIC SALE. THE VALUABLE FARM situate on the Octoraro Creek, about one mile from Rowlandsville. Depot of the P. A. B. C. Rallroad, formerly the property of the late P. Ewing, and containing nd cate successful and contains several and behavior forces, and contains several successful and the part basers.

MERCHANISM ill be sold at Public Sale, on SATURDAY, the 21st of January, 1871,

Terms will be made to suit the part basers.

W. P. EWING, Attorney for the Owners.

MILLINERY.

MRS. ROSA GANSS IAS RECEIVED ALL THE NEWEST STYLES OF MILLINERY GOODS.

PRICES LOWER THAN EVER!! She is also prepared to execute all orders for

DRESS MAKING, And keeps constantly on hand a select assortment

DRESS PATTERNS, TRIMMINGS AND NOTIONS. A2-Liberal reductions to Milliners.

MRS. ROSA GANNS, ELKTON, MD.

MRS. M. A. NELSON Again offers to the public a fine assortment of Fall and

Winter Millinery GOODS:

BONNETS, HATS. FEATHERS, FLOWERS and

FRAMES. Dress Trimmings of various kinds. Also, Infants' Knit Shirts, Sacks, Socks, Cloaks, Bonets and Hats, Gutta Percha and Pins. 45-ALL WHICH SHE OFFERS QUITE LOW. 64 All orders promptly filled. Elkton, Nov 5, 1870

SINGER'S IMPROVED

Having had the agency for the above Machine cil county, 3 years, I can confidently recommend MINGHIUM Improved Family Sewing Machine one of the best and most durable Machines in the orld.

Entire satisfaction warranted, and all necessary in 49-MACHINES REPAIRED.

James E. Haines, Sole Agent for Cecil county,

A CARD.

As will be seen by announcement elsewhere in to-tay's Whis, my stock and books were destroyed by fire, an Thursday morning lest, and being unable therefore to render correct accounts to my customers. I trust they will come forward and settle by whatever memorandum or recollection they may have of our previous boalness transactions. Helieving that the recent calamity which I have suffered will inske a stronger appeal to all owing me bills than any words of mine. I am, &c., JOHN E. ALEXANDER.

For The Cecil Whig.

I traveled through a fairy land, A wand'rer from the fold of God, False lights appeared on every hand And led me many a devious road-

Through fields profusely deck'd with flowers,
Through groves melodious with song,
By winding streams and sylvan bowers,
I sported with the giddy throng. cull'd those flowers I loved so much,

To weave me garlands rare and grand; I found they withered at the touch, And turned to ashes in my hand. I drank those waters, clear and bright, But, Oh, how bitter to the taste!

Their poison struck my soul with blight, And left it all a dark'ning waste. I lingered near those groves and bowers, Enchanted with their swelling song, And numbered not the golden hours

That swept incessantly along. I followed in each phantom's train,
But mainly fame and fortune sought;
I now pronounce them vile and vain,
Unworthy of a passing thought.

To purer joys I now aspire,—
To joys more worthy mortal's love;
My treasure and my heart's desire,
Are tending toward the world above, Where life's broad river ever flowes
'Mid banks in fadeless flowers array'd,
The tree of life immortal grows,
And angels worship in its shade.

Big Elk, January 12th, 1871.

On Inciting Emulation Among Pupils. AN ESSAY READ BEFORE THE TEACHERS'

NORMAL ASSOCIATION OF CECIL COUNTY.

All who have given the subject any hought, no doubt have a definition of Emulation formed in their own minds .-And any one else, by referring to our standard works on language, may find a definition ready manufactured. But in these remarks we shall not dwell upon the definition, but upon the means of inciting the proper spirit, and of preventing the improper manifestation of it. A generous rivalry, which exerts its utmost powers to secure success, will not place the slightest obstruction in the path of competitors, but stands ready to give assistance to overcome difficulties, is the proper spirit to be cultivated. Such a spirit fostered and encouraged through childhood, and carried into later life, would give to the world many more generous, noble-hearted men and women.

Among the many incentives which may be brought to bear upon our pupils, and by experience have been found effectual, may be mentioned the following, viz.: class criticisms, personal appeals to our pupils, by referring to the more industrious of our pupils as examples; by repeated and continued solicitations of the school as a body. Many other methods will doubtless suggest then selves to the teachers.

Class criticisms upon the exercises of each other, have been found a powerful NOTICES, &C.

NOTICES, &C.

NOTICES, &C.

NOTICES.

NOTI means of exciting this spirit. It keeps the tunity offers, often assist in producing a Meanwhile a popular feeling against Tengreater interest in study, showing to the nessee had grown up on the Bar. He was "Prisoner," said the Judge, interruntchild the advantage which will result from known to be a gambler; he was suspected ing, "have you any questions to ask this increased application. They will gain the to be a thief. In these suspicions Tennes- man?" can be adduced to produce the desired accounted for on the hypothesis of a this: Tennessee, than, has played it pretty result, and very dull or vicious must be the notive set forth by the earnest teacher. By referring as examples to the more industrious of the pupils, and thus induce others to imitate them. But caution must be exercised in this, as pride may be fostered in one pupil, and envy engendered in the other, by such references. Unless a teacher can be sure those evil passions will not be aroused, this motive to emulation should not be urged. There is too much increase the amount, by any method of instruction or discipline. By repeated and continuous solicitations of the school as a body; pointing out their could wholly subdue. failures, and correcting their mistakes: showing them the folly of continuing as

While then their natures are pliant and pistol, and rode back with his captor. susceptible of impressions, does it not behoove us to see that those impressions are not made wrongly. Now is the time down of the sun behind the chapparel- and saying, "I just dropped in as I was to plant good seed. Perhaps it will root and grow-often it will die. But suppose our efforts in directing the youthful minds was stiffing with heated resinous odors, and "it was a warm night," again mopped his to the proper motives of action are often the decaying drift-wood on the Bar sent face with his handkerchief, and without unsuccessful; do not be discouraged. You forth faint, sickening exhalations. The another word withdrew. will often fail, and your pupils will follow feverishness of day, and its fierce passions The two men never again met each their own headstrong desires, and all your still filled the camp. Lights moved rest. other alive. For the unparalleled insult of labors will be for naught. These things lessly along the bank of the river, striking a bribe offered to Judge Lynch-who are incidental to our profession. We must learn to labor and to wait. It is not often rent. Against the blackess of the pines least incorruptible—firmly fixed in the that we see immediate results to our labors. the windows of the old loft above the mind of that mythical personage any wav-But we will sometimes witness those who express office stood out staringly bright; ering determination of Tennessee's fate; handkerchief at that distance; and this angel, wouldn't you, you blockheads?" have received our instruction grow up to and through their curtainless panes the and at the break of day he was marched, point remained undecided. be ornaments to society, and a benefit to loungers below could see the forms of those closely guarded, to meet it at the top of those around them.

assumed contempt of the opinions of others, but censure will send the hot tide of feelings towards the censurer. Praise. TENNESSEE'S PARTNER.

. BY BRET HARTE.

I do not think that we ever knew his real name. Our ignorance of it certainly never unconcerned, evidently took a grant present unconcerned unconcer gave us any social inconvenience, for at "I don't take any hand in this yer game," Sandy Bar, in 1854, most men were chris-had been his invariable, but good-humored were derived from some distinctiveness of reply to all questions. The Judge—who sened anew. Sometimes these appellatives or from some peculiarity of habit, as shown in "Saleratus Bill," so called from an undue proportion of that chemical in his daily bread; or from some unlucky slip, as exhibited in "The Iron Pirate," a mild, inoffensive man, who earned that baleful title by his unfortunate mispronunciation of the term "iron pyrites." Perhaps this may have been the beginning of a rude heraldry; but I am constrained to think ceedings were becoming irksomely thoughtthat it was because a man's real name in that day rested solely upon his own unsupported statement. "Call yourself Clifford, do you?" said Boston, addressing a timid new-comer with infinite scorn; "hell is full of such Cliffords!" He then introduced the unfortunate man, whose name happened to be really Clifford, as "Jaybird Charley,"-an unhallowed inspiration of the moment that clung to him ever after.

But to return to Tennessee's Partner, whom we never knew by any other than only learned later. It seems that in 1853 he left the Poker flat to go to San Francisco, ostensibly to procure a wife. He never got any farther than Stockton. At that place he was attracted by a young person who waited upon the table at the hotel where he took his meals. One morning he said something to her which caused her to smile not unkindly, to somewhat coquettishly break a plate of toast over his in and see how things was gittin' on with retreat to the kitchen. He followed her, and emerged a few moments later, covered with more toast and victory. That day week they were married by a Justice of the Peace, and returned to Poker Flat. I am aware that something more might be made of this episode, but I prefer to tell it as it was current at Sandy Bar,-in the gulches and bar-rooms,-where all sentiment was modified by a strong sense of humor.

Of their married felicity but little is known, perhaps for the reason that Tennessee, then living with his partner, one day took occasion to say something to the bride on his own account, at which, it is said, she smiled not unkindly and chastely where Tennessee followed her, and where they went to housekeeping without the aid of a Justice of the Peace. Tennessee's Partner took the loss of his wife simply and seriously, as was his fashion. But to of his pardner?" everybody's surprise, when Tennessee one day returned from Marysville, without his retreated with somebody else, -Tennessee's Partner was the first man to shake his hand and greet him with affection. The boys who had gathered in the canon to see the shooting were naturally indignant .-Their indignation might have found vent in sarcasm but for a certain look in Tennessee's Partner's eye that indicated a lack of a difficulty. smile of their teacher, the approbation of see's Partner was equally compromised; "No!no!" continued Tennessee's Parttheir parents, and the approval of their his continued intimacy with Tennessee ner, hastily. "I play this yer hand alone. own conscience. Numerous other motives after the affair above quoted could only be To come down to the bed-rock, it's just The stranger afterward related that Tenanecdote and reminiscence, but illogically knife, your pistols, and your money. You the carpet-bag upon the table. see your weppings might get you into evil already in the world, for teachers to you said your address was San Francisco. a suggestion to "throw him from the win-

This exploit was his last. Red dog and again with his handkerchief. Sandy Bar made common cause against When order was restored, and the man laggards and drones in the busy hive of the highwayman. Tennessee was hunted was made to understand, by the use of forschool; impressing upon them the fact that very much in the same fashion as his pro- cible figures and thetoric, that Tennessee we are placed here to do good; that one totype, the grizzly. As the toils closed offence could not be condoned by money, means of doing our duty is to improve our around him, he made a despervte dash his face took a more serious and sanguinary minds and increase our knowledge, that we through the Bar, emptying his revolver at hue, and those who were nearest to him may have greater opportunities of doing the crowd before the Arcade Saloon, and noticed that his rough hand trembled so on up Grizzly Canon; but at its farther slightly on the table. He hesitated a Our characters are, in a measure, formed extremity he was stopped by a small man moment as he slowly returned the gold to in childhood; and the predominant char- on a gray horse. The men looked at each the carpet-bag, as if he had not yet entirely acteristic of the child will usually be found other a moment in silence. Both were caught the elevated sense of justice which in the adult, and if youth can be made to fearless, both self-possessed and independ- swayed the tribunal, and was perplexed understand this, it will influence many of ent; and both types of civilization that in with the relief that he had not offered them to build upon a sure foundation, to the seventeenth century would have been enough. Then he turned to the Judge, curb what is wrong and cultivate what is called heroic, but, in the nineteenth, sim- and saying, "This yer is a loan hand, ply "reckless." "What have you got played alone, and without my partner," he Children, properly treated, are amenable there?-I call," said Tennessee, quietly. bowed to the jury and was about to withto wise counsels and judicious advice .- "Two bowers and an acre," said the draw, when the Judge called him back. They are not the almost savages impatient stranger, as quietly, showing two revolvers of fyou have anything to say to Tennessee, parents and teachers would have us believe. and a bowie-knife. "That takes me," you had better say it now." For the first They can be made to love their teacaers as returned Tennessee; and with this gam- time that evening the eyes of the prisoner well as-ay! better than some parents.- blers' opigram, he threw away his useless and his strange advocate met. Tennessee who were even then deciding the fate of Marley's Hill. Few of us are so constituted as to be Tennessee. And above all this, etched on How he met it, how cool he was, how he striving to be first, will be the best method for all to be good, and this will insure the success of both teacher and pupil.

Q. exist. Secure in the hypothesis that he passed out of the mishappen thing that go for Tennessee; I must put 'Jinny' in trouble to persons desiring to insure propsuccess of both teacher and pupil.

Q. exist. Secure in the hypothesis that he passed out of the mishappen thing that go for Tennessee; I must put 'Jinny' in trouble to persons desiring to insure propsuccess of both teacher and pupil.

they indulged him with more latitude of sang, the flowers bloomed, the sun shone, defence than his reckless hardihood seemed as cheerily as before; and possibly the Red Struggling, he still pursued his singular to ask. The Judge appeared to be more Dog Clarion was right.

anxious than the prisoner, who, otherwise dress, as in the case of "Dungaree Jack;" was also his captor—for a moment vaguely once recognized the venerable "Jenny" —thar he is.—coming this way, too.—all regretted that he had not shot him "on sight," that morning, but presently dismissed this human weakness as unworthy of the human mind. Nevertheless, when there was a tap at the door, and it was said that Tennessee's partner was there on behalf of the prisoner, he was admitted at once without question. Perhaps the younger members of the jury, to whom the proful, hailed him as a relief. For he was not, certainly, an imposing figure. Short and stout, with a square face, sunburned into a preternatural redness, clad in a loose duck "jumper," and trousers streaked and splashed with red soil, his aspect under any circumstances would have been quaint, and was now even ridiculous. As he stooped to deposit at his feet a heavy carpet-bag he was carrying, it became obvious, from partially developed legends and inscriptions, that the material with which his trousers had been patched this relative title; that he had ever existed had been originally intended for a less as a separate and distinct individuality we ambitious covering. Yet he advanced with great gravity, and after having shaken the hand of each person in the room with labored cordiality, he wiped his serious, perplexed face on a red bandanna handker chief, a shade lighter than his complexion, laid his powerful hand on the table to steady himself, and thus addressed the Judge :-"I was passin' by," he began, by way upturned, serious, simple face, and to Tennessee thar,—my pardner. It's a hot night. I disremember any sich weather before on the Bar." He paused a moment, but nobody volunteering any other meteorological recollection, he again had recourse to his pocket-handkerchief, and for some moments mopped his face diligently. "Have you anything to say in behalf of the prisoner?" said the Judge, finally. "Thet's it," said Tennessee's Partner in a tone of relief. "I come yar as Tennessee's pardner,-knowing him nigh on four year, off and on, wet and dry, in luck and out o' luck. His ways ain't allers my ways, but thar ain't any p'ints in that young man, thar ain't any liveliness as he's been up to, as I don't know. And you sez retreated,—this time as far as Marysville, to me, sez you,—confidential-like, and between man and man,-sez you, 'Do you know anything in his behalf?' and I sez to you, sez I,-confidential like, as between man and man,- 'What should a man know

"Is this all you have to say?" asked the Judge, impatiently, feeling, perhaps, that partner's wife,—she having smiled and adangerous sympathy of humor was beginning to humanize the Court. "Thet's so," continued Tennessee's Partner. "It ain't for me to say anything agin' him. And now, what's the case?-Here's Tennessee wants money, wants it had, and doesn't like to ask it of his old pardner. Well, what does Tennessee do? He lays for a stranger, and he fetches that humorous appreciation. In fact, he was a stranger. And you lays for him, and you I put it to you, bein' a far-minded man, men, ef this isn't so."

copartnership of crime. At last Tennes- rough and expensive-like on a stranger, and pupil who cannot be influenced by some see's guilt became flagrant. One day he on this yer camp. And now, what's the overtook a stranger on his way to Red Dog. fair thing? Some would say more; some would say less. Here's seventeen hundred nessee beguiled the time with interesting dollars in coarse gold and a watch,-it's about all my pile, - and call it square !"concluded in the following words: "And And before a hand could be raised to pre now, young man, I'll trouble you for your vent him, he had emptied the contents of

For a moment his life was in iconords trouble at Red Dog, and your money's a One or two men sprang to their feet, sev temptation to the evilly disposed. I think eral hands groped for hidden weapons, and I shall endeavor to call." It may be stated dow" was only over-ridden by a gesture here that Tennessee had a fine flow of from the Judge. And apparently oblivious humor, which no business preoccupation of the excitement, Tennessee's Partner improved the opportunity to mop his face smiled, showed his white teeth, and, saying, It was a warm night. The cool breeze "Euchred, old man!" held out his hand. which usually sprang up with the going Tennessoe's Partner took it in his own, crested mountain was that evening with- passin' to see how things was gettin' on,' held from Sandy Bar. The little canon let the hand passively fall, and adding that indifferent to censure or praise. We may the dark firmament, rose the Sierra, remote refused to say anything, how perfect were affect to despise it, and hold our course in and passionless, crowned with remoter pas- the arrangements of the committee, were The trial of Tennessee was conducted as warning moral and example to all future shame or anger rushing to the cheek, and fairly as was consistent with a judge and evil-doers, in the Red Dog Clarion, by its various uncouth, but well-meant kindness. praise will call a beaming smile to the face. jury who felt themselves to some extent editor, who was present, and to whose But from that day his rude health and Children being subject to the same passions obliged to testify, in their verdict, the pre- vigorous English I cheerfully refer the great strength seemed visibly to decline; with ourselves, will be affected in the same vious irregularities of arrest and indict. reader. But the beauty of that midsummer and when the rainy season fairly set in, way, and undeserved censure, as many ment. The law of Sandy Bar was impla- morning, the blessed amity of earth and and the tiny grass-blades were beginning teachers often give, will produce angry cable, but not vengeful. The excitement air and sky, the awakened life of the free to peep from the rocky mound above Tenand personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and nessee's grave, he took to his bed. feelings towards the censurer. Praise, properly bestowed, will cause an increased effort to merit it again.

In conclusion, let us, by persistent, continuous appeals, as the smith by repeated blows forges the iron, impress on our pupils that unintermitted exertion is requisite in their school duties. That by each one striving to be first, will be the best method for all the great and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and personal feeling of the chase were woods and hills, the joyous renewal and promise of Nature, and above all, the infinite Serenity that thrilled through each, was not reported, as not being a part of the swellen river were heard their own minds, they were willing to give their school duties. That by each one striving to be first, will be the best method of the prisoner the benefit of any that might the prisoner the benefit of any that might they were willing to give their school duties. That by each one striving to be first, will be the best method infinite Serenity that thrilled through each, was not reported, as not being a part of the swell entire school duties and foolish deed was done, and a life, with the prisoner the benefit of any that might their own minds, they were willing to give the from the prisoner the benefit of any that might into the social esson. And yet when the week that unintensitied exertion is requisite in their own minds, they were willing to any the social through each, was not reported, as not being a part of the social through each, was not reported, as not being a part of the were swaying in the storm, and trailing the first through each, was not reported, as no and the two-wheeled cart as the property by himself, sober, and his face a-shining.of Tennessee's Partner,-used by him in Tennessee! Pardner?" carrying dirt from his claim; and a few paces distant the owner of the equipage himself, sitting under a buckey-tree, wiping the perspiration from his glowing face. In answer to an inquiry, he said he had come for the body of the "diseased," "if it was Carlyle is said to be quite in contrast with all the same to the committee." He didn't his simple, straightforward way of talking. wish to "hurry anything;" he could wait. He was not working that day; and when acteristics. One evening, at a small literary the gentleman were done with the "dis- gathering, a lady, famous for her "muslin cased," he would take him. "Ef thar is theology," was bewailing the wickedness any present," he added, in his simple, ser- of the Jews in not receiving our Saviour, ious way, "as would care to jine in the and ended her diatribo by expressing regret fun'l, they kin come." Perhaps it was for that He had not appeared in our own time. a sense of humor, which I have already "How delighted," said she, "we should intimated was a feature of Sandy Bar, - all be to throw our doors open to Him, and that; but two-thirds of the loungers accepted think so, Mr. Carlyle ?" the invitation at once. It was noon when the body of Tennessee was delivered into the hands of his partner. As the cart drew up to the fatal tree, we noticed that it contained a rough, oblong box—apparently made from a section of sluicing,—and half filled with bark and the tassels of pine. The cart was further decontrol of the property of t rated with slips of willow, and made fragrant with buckeye blossoms. When the come uttering His sublime precepts, and body was deposited in the box, Tennessee's Partner drew over it a piece of tarred canvas, and gravely mounted the narrow did, you would have treated Him much as of apology, "and I thought I'd just step seat in front, with his feet upon the shafts, urged the little donkey forward. The equipage moved slowly on, at that decorous pace which was habitual with "Jenny," even under less solumn circumstances. The men-half curiously, half jestingly, but all good-humoredly-strolled along beside the cart; some in advance, some little in the rear of the homely catafalque. But whether from the narrowing of the road or some present sense of decorum, as the cart passed on, the company fell to the got rid of them." This delicate allusion rear in couples, keeping step, and otherwise assuming the external show of a formal procession. Jack Polinsbee, who had at the outset played a funeral march in dumb show upon an imaginary trombone desisted from a lack of sympathy and appreciation-not having, perhaps, your true humorist's capacity to be content with the enjoyment of his own fun. The way led through Grizzly Canon,-by this time clothed in funeral drapery and shadows. The redwoods, burying their fluttered before them like outriders, until the outskirts of Sandy Bar were reached, exhibition of envious or angry feelings, by uncalled for remarks, calculated to wound uncalled for remarks. and to you, gentlemen, all, as far-minded and unlovely outlines, the unsavory details, it has been babtized Vincent." Nor does been used as a garden, but was now over- Was ever a life so curiously begun? grown with fern. As we approached it we were surprised to find that what we had taken for a recent attempt at cultivation was the broken soil about an open grave.

ders, and sat expectant.

"When a man," began Tennessee's Part-Why, to come home. And if he ain't in a friend do? Why, bring him home! And and we brings him home from his wandering." He paused, and picked up a fragment of quartz, rubbed it thoughtfully on his sleeve, and went on: "It ain't the first time that I've packed him on my back, as see'd me now. It ain't the first time that I brought him to this yer cabin when he as an Italian image boy. Some kindcouldn't help himself: it ain't the first time that I and 'Jinny' have waited for him on and sent him to school. The rest he did you hill, and picked him up and so fetched for himself. A parallel instance of the him home, when he couldn't speak, and success of a self-made man is that of Biandidn't know me. And now that it's the coni, the great car proprietor in Ireland. last time, why-" he paused rubbed the He came to that country as an itinerant quartz gently on his sleeve-"you see it's picture-frame mender. Seeing that the gentlemen," he added abruptly, picking up dear, he conceived the idea of starting his long-handled shovel, "the fun'l's over; a cheap car between Clonmel and Thurles, and my thanks, and Tennessee's thanks, to and continued his plans until he had an you for your trouble."

Resisting any proffers of assistance he began to fill in the grave, turning his back upon the crowd, that after a few moments' hesitation gradually withdrew. As they crossed the little ridge that hid Sandy Bar from view, some, looking back, thought they could see Tennessee's Partner, his work done, his shovel between his knees, and his face buried in his red bandanna handkerchief. But it was argued by others that you couldn't tell his face from his become angels. You'd look well beside an

In the reaction that followed the feverish excitement of that day. Tennessee's Partner was not forgotten. A secret investigation had cleared him of any complicity in Tennessee's guilt, and left only a suspicion all duly reported, with the addition of a of his general sanity. Sandy Bar made a point of calling on him, and proffering

JOB PRINTING!

Every Description of Job Printing executed at THE Pamphlets, Checks, Receipt and Bill-Books, Printed and Bound in any style ordered.

POSTERS, LETTER HEADING, Envelope Printing. CARDS OF ALL KINDS.

Colored and Bronze Printing. EXECUTED IN THE BEST STYLE. BB_Anything in the Printing or Lithographing line an be ordered at The Whig Office. Satisfaction guaranteed, or no charge made.

Terms Cash on delivery of all work. bed but for the restraint of his attendant. fancy: "There, now, steady, 'Jinny,'-Tennessee's Partner was not in the group steady, old girl. How dark it is? Look that surrounded the ominous tree. But as out for the ruts, -and look out for him, too, they turned to disperse attention was old gal. Sometimes, you know, when he's drawn to the singular appearance of a blind drunk, he drops down right in the motionless donkey-cart halted at the side trail. Keep on straight up to the pine on of the road. As they approached, they at the top of the hill. Thar-I told you so!

And so they met.

Anecdotes of Carlyle.

The curious and "troublesome" style of Hatred of sham is one of his notable charperhaps it was something even better than listen to His divine precepts! Don't you

The sturdy philosopher, thus appealed 'TO MEET OUR SAVIOUR!' but if He had denouncing the Pharisees, and associating with the Publicans and lower orders, as He the Jews did, and have cried out, 'Take

Him to Newgate and hang him!" On another occasion, when Earnest Jones. a well-known Chartist leader, was haranguing, in his violent manner, against the established authoritics, Carlyle shook his head, and told him that, "had the Chartist leaders been living in the days of Christ, he would have sent the unclean spirits into them, instead of into the swine of the Gergesenes, and so we should have happily to the suicide of the pigs so astonished the respectable representative of the numerous family of the Joneses that he said nothing more about Chartism that night.

Harper's Magazine.

BISMARCK'S BABY .- At the Prussian headquarters in Meux the King occupied the front and Count Bismarck the back rooms of the Archbishop's palace. The apartments of the Count were on the ground floor, and looked out on the extensive gardens to the rear of the palace .mocassoned feet in the red soil, stood in The 16th of September had been a very Indian-file along the track, trailing an busy day to many of the prussians, and uncouth benediction from their bending not least of all to the Count. He was ridboughs upon the passing bier. A hare, ing all day, and in the evening he had a surprised into helpless inactivity, sat long conference with the King. Tired and pulsating in the ferns by the roadside, with these difficult labors, he hastened, as the cortege went by. Squirrels hastened when he reached his room, to prepare for to gain a secure outlook from higher boughs; bed. He had scarcely, however, begun to and the blue jays, spreading their wings, undress himself when he heard a rustling among the bed clothes, and on searching found there, to his astonishment, an infant and the solitary cabin of Tennessee's Part- not more than four weeks old. On looking closer he found by the side of this enfant Viewed under more favorable circum- troute the following note:-" My husband t has been babtized Vincent which distingushed the nest-building of the this curious story end here. To make it California miner, were all here, with the dramatically complete and symmetrical, dreariness of decay superadded. A few the unfortunate mother committed suicide. paces from the cabin there was a rough | The matter is said to have reached the ears enclosure, which in the brief days of Ten- of the King, and orders were given that nessee's Partner's matrimonial felicity, had the desolate infant should be sent to Berlin.

THE SINS OF THE TONGUE. -The tongue may be employed about and made to serve all purposes of vice, in tempting and The cart was halted befere the enclosure; deceiving, in perjury and in justice. But and rejecting the offers of assistance with the thing here referred to is talkativeness; the same air of simple self-reliance, he had a disposition to be talking, abstracted from displayed throughout, Tennessee's Partner the consideration of what is said; with lifted the rough coffin on his back, and very little or ne regard to, or thought of deposited it, unaided, within the shallow doing, either good or harm. And let not grave. He then nailed down the board any imagine this to be a slight matter, and which served as a lid; and mounting the that it deserves not to have so great weight little mound of earth beside it, took off laid upon it, till he has considered what his hat, and slowly mopped his face with evil is implied in it, and the bad effects his hankerchief. This the crowd felt was which follow from it. It is perhaps true, a preliminary to speech; and they disposed that they who are addicted to this folly themselves variously on stumps and boul- would choose to confine themselves to tritles and indifferent subjects, and so intend only to be guilty of being impertinent, but ner, slowly, "has been running free all day, as they go on forever talking ot nothing, what's the natural thing for him to do ?- as common matters will not afford sufficient fund for perpetual, continued discourse condition to go home, what can his best when subjects of this kind are exhausted. they will go on to defamation, scandal, here's Tennessee has been running free, divulging of secrets, their own secrets as well as those of others, anything rather than be silent .- Bishop Butler.

SELF-MADE MEN IN ENGLAND .- Mr. Mundella, member of Parliament for Sheffield, is said to have first entered that town hearted citizen became interested in him ort of rough on his pardner. And now, means of communication were scanty and establishment working eight hundred horses, and carrying the mails throughout the country. He made a large fortune, and is now an extensive landed proprietor. with a fine seat in Tipperary, of which country he is a deputy lieutenant. His organizing powers are marvelous.

-A female lecturer said : "Get married, young men, and be quick about it. Don't wait for the mellennium, for the girls to

-Grace Greenwood, in comparing different kinds of women, says: "When the pleasure-boat is capsized in a squall, the most fastidious ladies' man has a profound respect for the woman who can swim." -A woman in Terre Haute glues her husband's eyelids together when he gets drunk, and when he promises better things

she soaks them in warm water and restores his vision. THE FARMERS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF YORK, PA .- This Company is one of the best Mutual Companies in the

