Murdoch.-On Tuesday evening next, 28th inst., as the fourth in the star lecture course, Mr. James E. Murdoch will give readings in the Odd Fellows Hall, composed of selections from several standard authors. Murdoch is an old favorite with Elktonians, and those who have enjoyed the rare pleasure of listening to his wonderful powers as a reader, will not fail to hear him on Tuesday evening next.

The following item is from the letter of a appear in print:

E. E. Ewing-Esteemed Friend:-I see by a notice in last week's Whig that you have adopted the cash principle for your paper. That is right, a man should as paper. That is right, a man should assoon think of wearing a suit of clothes before paying for it, as to read his paper before the printer is paid. I enclese $2.00 to keep my subscription going.

Re-opening-The M. E. Church at Mount Pleasant, near Rising Sun, having been under repair for several months, was reopened Sabbath, February 19th. Rev. J. E. Bryan preached in the morning; at the close of which, Rev. Mr. Weston, the Pastor, stated the entire indebtedness was $946.00. In a short time, $700 of the amount was raised. In the evening, Rev. W. E. England preached. The collection was again resumed, and soon $256 or more realized,-making full amount, and leaving a surplus of $10.

Installation of Officers .- At a regular meeting of Riverside Lodge, No. 84, I. O. G. T., held in their Hall, in Charlestown, Feb., 21st, the following officers were installed for the current quarter:

Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church.-The third session of this ecclesiastical body will assemble at Dover, Del., on Wednesday, the 8th day of next March. Bishop Levi Scott is to preside. The Conference embraces the entire State of Delaaware, the nine counties of Eastern Shore of Maryland, and the two counties of the Eastern Shore of Virginia. There are within its bounds two hundred and ninetycharges, which are supplied by one hundred old ones repaired. The prospects are that five churches, divided into eighty-nine and fourteen travelling preachers, who are assisted by one hundred and twenty-eight local preachers. In the several appoint-

Mn. Entron—Dear Sir:—Looking over The Whig of last week, I notice in the letter from Zion, some good friend has been misinformed in legard to my business arrangements, and sends me to the Chester County Alms House. They are entirely mistaken, it is a cousin originally from Harford, now practicing in Chester county, or he could not have been appointed to that office. I am not tired of Cecil yet, and think, if life is spared, I will remain a resident of the good old county for some time to come.

I owe you an apology, Mr. Editor, for oncroaching upon your time and paper, with so trifling a matter. My only excuse is I have a particular reason for so doing.

Religious-The protracted meeting which has been in progress here for about three weeks, closed on Wednesday night last .-It did not prove as successful as was anticipated, only about six persons having professed a change.

Exchange of Property .- Mr. John Mears,

Being Repaired .- The steamer Wyoming laying at the wharf, here, is being repaired, and will be in good running order by the time the towing season begins.

Horse Drowned .- Mr. Stradley, residing at Back Creek, had a horse drowned, on Saturday last, while crossing Moore's Run, to leave seven times daily, and arrive as on Bohemia Manor. The stream was much swellen by the rain, and the horse losing stations in our town limits, viz.: the Depot, his footing, could not get out, and was Rock Run, Tome's, and Bloomingdale .drowned. Musical .- "Itemizer" was complimented one evening this week by a service of music from the string band of our town, now under the professional training of Prof. Robinson. Their performance was excellent, and gave evidence of special genius in that line. But their uniform, which is scrupulously unique, must be seen to be appreciated. Our artist has taken a fine picture of the gentlemen, in "full feather." I herewith send you a copy of the original draft. Cannot you possibly have it transferred to the columns of your paper, for the benefit of Cecil County Historical Society? The only criticism we venture to give on the picture is, that Digby suggests that the artist has rather flattered his ubjects.

[The accompanying sketch of the band when they serenaded "Itemizer" is admirable, and we regret not being able to transfer it to The Whig, for the benefit of our readers, on account of our artist being out of town this week.] Religious .- An interesting Communion service was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday morning. At night the pastor received probationers into full membership. The extra meetings have been continued during the week. Temperance .- It is announced that the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this place, will preach on the subject of temperance next Sunday Morning in his pulpit. We hope to see a large congregation present to hear this important question discussed at that time. Licensed to Exhort .- Mr. John Gray, of

LETTER FROM HARRISVILLE.

"A little nonsense now and then Is relished by the wisest men." A correspondent at Harrisville sends us the following jocular letter for publication. Conference for two years, but the inade. He is particularly facetious on our young quacy of the ministerial support in that Friends, whom he designates by the old direction is why he has been excused from crude appellation of "Quakers," and our filling the appointment to which he was new brother of the press, but he is well assigned one year ago. Mr. S. is at pres- aware that the latter has been schooled to ent principal of the public school in North all manner of jokes, in the practice of his East. He has been recently filling the M. calling, and with the solid virtues which on same day, real estate of Kirk Brown, E. Church pulpit at Chesapeake City, for shine out in the every-day life of the former,

> North East School-house to report whether around the village called, by an act of repair or a new building is needed. We Assembly, Harrisville. This village, situare prepaired to say in advance that noth- ated on the road leading from Rising Sun ing short of a new school house will answer to Porter's Bridge, about one mile from the former place, was at one time a flourishing village, and bid fair to compete with Rising papers recently published the marriage of a Sun. The telegraph wires were stretched along in front of said village, and there was ing been consumated by Rev. T. L. Poul-Phil. & Balt. Central Railroad would certainly follow the telegraph line; but, alas the railroad took another direction, and the telegraph poles were taken down and put up along the line of the railroad, thus completely leaving Harrisville out in the cold.

Business seems to be reviving east and west of this place. The Rising Sun, I think, will yet have a cheese factory. It has now in operation a printing office, and as soon as the printer gets his new dictionary, so that he can spell all the words he intends to print, a paper to be called the Rising Sun, will be issued. [Is now out.] The old Octoraro Forge, west of this point, also seems to be a business place. So Harrisville will have to make an effort to build up and improve. The blacksmith will leave the 25th of March. The villagers will not hear the sound of the anvil that during the past year sounded so seldom in their cars. But when one goeth another cometh. I am informed a shoemaker intends to locate in the village about the time the blacksmith leaves. So this little village will not go where the woodbine twineth." We have had fine sleighing, lately, the merry sound of the bells greeted our ears so often, that we think, although the snow has left, we hear them still. During the sleighing, two young men started out to break a colt. In going from Harrissville to Corner Catch, opposite Squire Taylor's, the colt became frightened, upset the sleigh, and threw the young men out. The colt, instead of taking the straight forward road, made a short turn up a lane by the Squire's, toward Samuel Smith's. The young men left their hats and whips in the road, and ran after the colt, but could not overtake it. Samuel saw the race, and stopped the colt. The boys returned home and related to their father what had hap pened. The old man remarked that it was mpossible for two colts to break one. We have had a good many parties, lately, although the times are hard, and the prin ter not paid, still the dance goes on. The Quakers are fond of music. I think there was to be four parties in our neighborhood, last Saturday night. Some are very par ticular about the dance ceasing at 12 o'clock at night. These are called religious dances. The Friends are not so particular about the hour, as they esteem every day alike. for railroad facilities. Besides being able to leave seven times daily, and arrive as often, by passenger trains, we had four attend on account of having the headache. So the young Quakers had to play "Who's got the button." Unanswerable Arguments.

Established facts are silent arguments which neithe pen nor tongue can shake, and it is upon established facts that the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, as a health-preserving elizir, and a wholesome and powerful remedy, is based. When witnesses come for ward in crowds, year after year, and reiterate the same statements in relation to the beneficial effects of a medi cine UPON THEMSELVES, disbelief in its efficacy is LITER-ALLY IMPOSSIBLE. The credentials of this unequaled tonic and alterative, extending over a period of nearly twenty years, include individuals of every class, and residents of every clime, and refer to the most provalent among the complaints which afflict and harass th nan family. Either a multitude of people, stranger to each other, have annually been seized with an insane and motiveless desire to deceive the public, or Hostet-ter's Bitters, for no less than a fifth of a century, have been affording such relief to sufferers from indigestion fever and ague, biliousness, general debility, and ners ous disorders, as no other prejaration has ever imparted.
To-day, while the eyes of the reader are upon these lines, tens of thousands of persons, of both sexes, are relying upon the litters as some defense against the allments which the present season engenders, and their confidence is not misplaced. The local potions which interested dealers sometimes embeaver to foist upon the sick in its stead, are every where meeting the fate that is due to fraud and imposture, while the demand for the great vegetable specific is constantly increasing.

Travelers are always liable to sudden attacks of Dysentery and Cholera Morbus, and these occurring when absent from home, are very unpleasant. The Pais Killiam ay always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspooutul in a gill of new milk and molasses and a gill of hot water, str well together and drink hot. Repeat the done every hour until relieved. If the pains the severe, bathe the lowels and back with the medicine clear.

In cases of Asthma and Phthisic, take a teaspoonful in a gill of hot water sweetened well with molasses; also, bathe the throat and stomach faithfully with the medicine, clear.

Dr. Sweet says it takes out the soreness in cases of lonesetting faster than snything he ever applied.

Fishermen so often exposed to limits by having their skin pierced with hooks, and fins of sh, can be relieved by lathing with the Pain Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon absted; bathe as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble.

The bites and scratches of dogs and cats are soon cured by bathing with the Pain Killer clear.

Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the simly of lung diseases and con-sumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably last case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking rold you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been recented from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everyleady should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomed, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and distribou ensures, a dose of the Mandrake will cure you. If you are subject to six headerle, take a dose of the Mandrake and they will cure you in two hours. If you would obvinte the effect of a change of water, or the too free indeligence in fruit, take one of the Mandrake are repright or every other night, and you may then drink water or rat watermelous, peuts, apples, blums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being male sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless, They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 N. SIXTII Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 a. N. to 10 r. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are cursible or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of my medicine depends entirely upon their leing taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater of lees irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medication of the promose of the secondary accompany my medicated experiments.
