The repairs going on indicate a tremendous increase in travel; and we would suggest to the next Board of Town Commissioners, the policy of inviting proposals to keep the streets in proper order. We haven't the slightest doubt that responsible contractors would give bond to do it for 10 cents on the $100 of taxable property of the town; 35 and 40 cents is too much tax, entirely, to spend on the little corporation of Elkton. Arrested for the Larceny of Valuable Diamond Rings .- Martha Ann Hutchinson, a colored girl about 18 years of age, was arrested and lodged in jail, on Saturday morning last, on the charge of having stolen two diamond rings, valued respectively at $200 and $300, the property of Mrs. Enis, who resides in Delaware. The girl had been living with Mrs. Enis for some time, but left her place about the first of the present month, telling Mrs. E. that she must go home, to Elkton, as she was to be married on the 3d of March. Some days after she had left, the rings were missing, and the girl having been seen at the drawer where they were kept, was suspected. It was found that the story about her expected marriage had been concocted as an excuse for leaving so summarily. MR. EDITOR .- A writer in The Democrat, of March 4th, advocates the formation of a Farmers' Club, and suggests that a meeting be held to organize said Club, farmers are here during Court. We say then, to our brother farmers, let the Club be organized without delay. What we want is co-operation. In other occupations interest in this community will be more fully developed, and great benefits will result by consulting together in reference to the best mode of applying fertilizers, raising stock, as well as every other branch

The above suggestions are eminently udicious, and we hope they will be acted upon promptly, at the time mentioned, and as no day is named we suggest that Tuesday be selected as a proper day for the meeting, as, on that day, there are generally more people in town, than any other.
