We think if Commissioner Pleasanton will make even a slight effort, he can find ample cause for revoking this permit.

A notice, signed by the Commissioners and Trustee, dated June 1st, is published in the papers of the 8th, stating that the "Grand Gift Concert and Distribution".

C. Douglas Galloway, son of Wm. Gallow "Grand Gift Concert and Distribution" has been postponed till the 27th of July, as it was impossible, in the time between obtaining the permit from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, (28th of April and the 7th of June, the time appointed for holding the proposed Concert,) to establish agencies and complete the sale of tickets. It is an unaccountable oversight that there has been no agency established in Elkton, or any part of Cecil county, the home of the principal Commissioner, if the numerous prizes advertised are as valuable as represented, and the "Concert and Drawing" are ever to take place.

We publish this statement to place our readers on their guard how they spend their hard-earned money in this or any similar gift enterprise, raffle or lottery; and if Commissioner Pleasanton is fit for the office he holds, he will grant permits for no more of these gambling enterprises. The law certainly was never intended by Congress to sanction such illy-disguised lotteries.

TO Farmers and Thrashermen. The attention of the Trenton Agricultural Works has been called to an advertisement in the papers, signed by John S. Beers, purporting to give an account of the trial of Thrashing Machines, at the farm of Benjamin Briggs, in Bucks county, Pa, which statement is incorrect and intended to prejudice the community against our machines. In justice to our Agents, who have our interest in clearge, we bring to your notice the published opinion of the committee appedinted at the said trial, and also append the letter from the gentleman in whose burn the machines were tried, in which he condemns the Cleaner attempted to be palmed upon the public by John S. These persons were formerly in our employ; but their services having been dispussed with, they seek to injure the reputation of our Cleaners. With the knowledge of the facts, we confidently believe you will comprehensing the unworthy motives which actuate our former agents. As to our machines, we claim that they cannot be excelled by any other manufactured, and we challenge fair competition.
