Probably every one connected with the enterprise would show similar good intentions, unless it be that some first originator who started it to get a ready good intentions, unless it but mark some insoriginator who started it to get a ready market for real estate, that had come to be an "elephant" on his hands. We believe no one denies that, as a whole, the property offered in this scheme is priced far above what it would sell for. Indeed, we are told that it was estimated that the managers should receive $10,000 each, and that gers should receive $10,000 each, and that there would still be a good surplus for the there would still be a good surplus for the institutions, after paying all expenses, advertising, commissions, etc. It amounts to just about this: People are invited to pay in their money, partly because a small percentage of it will go to benevolent institutions, which is "touching them in a tender spot," and they are further stimulated with the hope that there is a posibility (a very remote one) that they may draw a big prize. The best result which can happen to any but the managers, who get $10,000 each, and those who have put in property, will be that: 1,003 persons will get something worth on the average half of what is priced at in the scheme, and 50.997 persons results and the scheme and 50.997 persons results and the reads and dice, runtholders spewed forth their filth, and all hastened to the Court House, eager to back the "Ring."

The contest of the results of th thing worth on the average half of what is priced at in the scheme, and 50,997 persons will get nothing, except the consolation that a few cents on the dollar have gone to good objects. The whole scheme like every other one of the kind, is bad in its results; it differs nothing in principle from the old lotteries, and no amount of good intentions, and good faith in carrying it out, can whitewash it into credit. HISTORY OF THE WARTS EUROPE. - The National Publishing Co. of Philadephia, have just issued a very valuable history of the late War between Germany and France,

DEFAULT OF THE RING-UTTER ROUT OF THE ELKTON TAMMANY.

On Saturday last the "Democratic Conservatives," as The Democrat blandly put it, were called in primary meetings to cleet delegates to meet in convention in Elkton, on Tuesday last. The notice was short, but it was according to the programme of the "Ring," whose members had been causing for soveral weeks, and had overything arranged, as they thought, "cut and dry." A bitter contest had been carried on by the old, rotten Democratic Ring of orphans' Home, of Washington, D. C., and of the Foundling Assylum of the Sisters of Charity, of New York." Since the date of that issue we have received a letter from Maj. George T. Castle, one of the commissioners, which said:

"We have your paper of 17th inst., and regret to find a column devoted to "sundry lumbugs," wherein our enterprise is particularly referred to. Upon the general principle of the duty of journalists you are correct, but an investigation into the matter would have satisfied you, as it has Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of the Agriculturist."

Since the letter of Maj. Castle came to hand, from which the above extract is taken, we have received the July number and stege of Paris; the detailed instory of this great siege; its plans, sorties, baitles, successes and failures; the course of events of the beleagured city, given in the form of a full diary of the events of the siege; the campagns on the Loire, and in other portions of France; the peace negotiations, the surrenber of Paris, and the treaty; the naval history of the war; the diplomatic history on both the German and French sides; the history of the great German Empire; the proclaiming of King William Emperor, and realization of German unity; the events of the civil war and second rights of Paris, its terrible seemes of blood-; the events of the civil war and second siege of Paris, its terrible scenes of bloodshed and vandalism, with a minuteness, graphicness and brilliancy, which leaves nothing to be desired. No intelligent person can afford to be uninformed as to these events which have left so deep an impression on the world's history, and few will fail to read this splendid work; or, having read it, to endorse it as the Standard American History of the War.

It is published in both Fnglish and German, sold by subscription only, and the publishers want agents in every county. publishers want agents in every county.

The attention of the Trenton Agricultural Works has been called to an advertisement in the papers, signed by John S. Beers, purporting to give an account of the trial of Thrashing Mechines, at the farm of Benjamin Briggs. In Buckercounty, I.a., which statement is incorrect and thines. In justice to our Agents, who have our interest in charge, we bring to your notice the published epinden of the committee appointed at the said trial, and also append the letter from the gentleman in whose barn the machines were tried, in which he condemns the Cleaner attempted to be painsal upon the public by John S. Boers and John Butterworth, Jr.

These persons were formerly in our employ: but their services having been dispensed with they seek to injure the reputation of our Cleaners. With the knowledge of the facts, we confidently believe you will comprehend the unworthy metires which actuate our former agents. As to our machines, we dain that they cannot be excelled by any other manufactured, and we challenge fair competition.

Beers, in which great Injustice is shown to the Trenton Agricultural Works, we deem it our duty to state that we could arrive at no decision in regard to the merits of the respective machines, in consequence of the difference in the size of the sheaves, theiring much larger) and the dampiness of the oats thrashed by the machine from the Trenton Works. We will also state that a 25-inch cylinder. The trial is adjourned to another occasion, of which due notice will be given to the public.

[COPT.] NEAR TULLTLOWN, April, 1871. NEAR TULLIAWA, April, 1871.

Ma, John Buttermorf, Jr.—Your machine is dreadfully in my way: I wish you would come and take it away. I will not be responsible for any damage that may happen it. I have not used it since you were over; neither will I. I wish to thread my oats, and you know that I will have to remove yours before I can put one in its place; consequently I will have to set it out of the barn, and then it will be exposed to all kinds of weather. I will give you until the 12th inst, to remove it; if you do not, then I will be compelled to set if out. I cannot have it on the lower floor, for the reason that I want to shell my corn. Yours with respect,
