The Democrat's Abortive Attempt. The Democrat, "as in duty bound," we suppose, makes a lengthy, but exceedingly feeble attack, upon the Address issued by the Republican party, "To the Voters and Tax-Payers of Cecil County," in which it manages to admit all the statements put forth in that Address, charging the Demoeratic party with corruption and extravagance. Its excuses, where not entirely false, are the weakest imaginable. For instance, the defence says, "They (the through their violence, or by their neglect." This is singular, rambling talk. What single interest did they neglect? New roads were opened, and old ones supervised; new bridges were built, and old ones repaired, whenever and wherever necessity demanded. cited. In the matter of the Public School expen-

"The Sheriff's fees are limited by law They have not been increased since Radical Sheriffs ceased to prevail. If their bills are higher now, it only shows that there are more criminals or more delinquent debtors to deal with."

The Democrate pleads, was on account of he trial of Harris and Bolt being removed to Harford. But how does it happen that the other four years of Democratic Sheriffs are a third higher than the same length of time previous, when the office was held by Union or Republican Sheriffs? The only answer attempted is quoted above only answer attempted is quoted above-"it only shows that there are more criminals or more delinquent debtors to deal Republican ticket triumphantly through, with." The facts of the Address are not denied, and this is the extenuating excuse. When the Democratic pot is set a aboiling, "criminals and debtors" rise to the surface. The tax-payers will doubtless consider this a valid reason for keeping that party in power.

The Court expenses are admitted, and excused in quite as lame a manner. Of the road expenses, while the county has been in Democratic hands, the follow-

Tale farm is situated in Sasafras Neck, Cecil county, Maryland, about six miles below Cecilion, on the public road leading from that place to Grove Point.

It extends to the Sasafras Ever, where there is a good Wharf and Steamboat Landing belonging to the property. It is about multiway between the cities of Philadelphia and Italimore, and not over rixty miles distant from either city. The Peach Orchards on this farm comprise 200 acres—120 acres in full beading, and 40 acres covered with peach trees two yearsold. The superiority of the fruit is well known in the Philadelphia market.

By stoumboat communication the peaches may be delivered daily, Juring the peach season, in Biltimore or acknowledged to be among the most extensive and productive in the Intied States, and are worthy the attention of all persons wishing to make a side and advantageous investment of explaid. There is also on the premises a small apple Orchard of select trees; and sufficient Woodland for the use of the farm. The land is in the highest state of improvement, and in addition to the peach crops, yields abundant-crops of wheat, corn, bay, 2c.
