The $40,000 of county bonds, sold by the Commissioners for the construction of the new jail and sheriff's house, netted $36,321. The interest is payable semi-annually, at 6 per cent., and the bonds are clear of State and county taxation.

Local Miscellany.—There will be appropriate services at Hart's Meeting House on Thanksgiving Day, conducted by Rev. Mr. Tull.

Next Thursday, Nov. 30th, is Thanksgiving Day.

The Mutual Building Association meets to-night.

Back Again.—Miss Martha Biddle having resigned her position as Principal of the Warwick Academy, has accepted the position as Principal of the Graded School in Chesapeake City. Miss B. will resume her duties on Monday next. The Graded School consists of the Academy and Bayard School. All papers and letters will be directed to Chesapeake City after Monday next. This is a compliment to Miss Martha's already high reputation as a teacher.

The Sheriff Elect.—Mr. R. Thomas has received his Commission from the Governor, and intends taking possession of the office in a few days. He will not move his family to Elkton until the new building is thoroughly dry, which will require some weeks. The courteous and obliging Deputy and turn-key, who has been with Sheriff Denny, Mr. T. White, we understand will be retained in the office under Sheriff Thomas. A better choice could not be made by the new Sheriff.

Good Templars' County Convention.—The Good Templars of Cecil county, will meet in Convention in their Lodge Room, at Port Deposit on Tuesday, Dec. 12th, at 10 o'clock A. M. The time has been altered so as not to conflict with the Sabbath School Normal Institute, at Elkton. Delegates will report at the Odd Fellows' Hall immediately on arrival, when entertainment will be provided for them. A public meeting will be held in the Hall in the evening, that will be addressed by emminent speakers. Everybody is invited to be present, and hear the leading question of the day discussed.

The Peach Bottom Railroad.—The Lancaster Intelligencer of the 11th instant says:

"Mr. Hood, of Maryland, a civil engineer of very considerable ability, has been engaged by the directors to make the survey and location of the Peach Bottom Railroad. The work will commence immediately. The survey will begin at the Susquehanna, at Peach Bottom, and will be made by way of Delta, Muddy Creek, Neff's Summit and the foot of Dunker Valley, striking the Northern Central near the tunnel, about five or six miles south of York borough. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars has been subscribed towards the construction of this road, and the canvass will be vigorously pushed during the Winter, the board having determined not to attempt the construction of the road unless there be a sufficient sum raised to grade and bridge the entire line, which sum, it is hoped, will be raised by the early spring."

Toys.—Our old friends and favorites of the little folks, the Adams Brothers, of Wilmington, are out as usual ahead of all others, with their new stock of attractions in toys and holiday goods, for the children. The Messrs. Adams are thorough business men, and have for several years made a speciality of toy goods, in their season, and by judicious arrangements with manufacturers and importers, are able to fill large and small orders at wholesale to retailers, at prices that will fairly compete with the best houses in other cities more distant.

Persons who wish to purchase in small quantities for their own families will find it to their advantage to call at the large store of Adams & Brother. Every inducement is offered to patronize the Brothers—near to home, large and varied stock and low prices. See their advertisement in The Whig.

Wild Ducks are swarming on the flats at the mouth of the Susquehanna River, and the Havre de Grace gunners are anxious to be after the game, but the terrible Oyster Navy is lying off the town, watching for the poachers and guarding the fowl, while they quietly feed, all unmolested, on the bountiful repast prepared by nature for them. After awhile the rivers will be frozen up and the ducks will go further south, where they will be slaughtered by thousands and sent to our northern markets. The Democratic duck law is certainly a miserable attempt of the Shore gentry to monopolize the duck shooting, with no advantage to the public. If the State owns the ducks, while they settle on the Chesapeake flats, let it create a stiff License law, and derive some revenue from the game, and not keep up a fleet at the expense of the tax payers of the State to protect the ducks, while they feed and fatten in our waters, to make them ready for the gunners of Virginia and North Carolina.

Sale of Elkton Property.—Mr. Daniel Bratton, Trustee, has sold the new glass front Burton storehouse, on Main street, to R. C. Levis, at private sale, for $4,700.

Religious.—Seven persons united with the Elkton M. E Church, on probation, on Sabbath last. These were converts at the meetings just closed at Westamwell Iron Works, and which were conducted by several members of the above church. There were probably twice as many conversions, but as yet only the number named have connected themselves with the church.

Protracted meeting is in progress at Cherry Hill. On Sabbath night last Rev. B. F. String preached.

The coming Sabbath-School Normal Institute, to be held at Elkton, promises to be a grand affair.

Unusual Yield of Cloverseed.—The yield of cloverseed this season, in those sections of the county lying on and in the vicinity of the Susquehanna river and Octoraro creek, is something unusual. Some farmers claim as high as four bushels to the acre. Mr. Joseph W. Reynolds, of Port Deposit, had something over three bushels and three pecks per acre from a field of twelve acres. When we state that two bushels per acre of cloverseed is considered a very large "turn-out," the above figures seem almost beyond belief, but many of the farmers of the section above mentioned report similar results. We have not heard whether this unprecedented yield is general throughout the county. Will our correspondents ascertain and note the fact?

Survey for a New Railroad.—A corps of engineers have been running a line, this week, along the Octararo Creek, with the view of locating an air line railroad from Baltimore to New York. The work is being done by the Baltimore & Ohio Rail road Company. The line runs through Harford county, strikes the susquehanna River at the mouth of Deer Creek, thence running up the course of the river, a mile or more, crosses to the Cecil side below the mouth of the Octoraro, and up the course of that stream. The Pennsylvania Company having shut off the Baltimore & Ohio Company from all points on the Atlantic seaboard, north of Baltimore, by getting control of pretty nearly all the present railroad lines, north of the latter city, no other course seems open to the latter Company, and its enterprising and ambitious President, Mr. John W. Garrett, but to strike boldly out, and build the much and long-talked-of "air line to New York."

CHESAPEAKE CITY ITEMS.

Religious—A union Thanksgiving service will be held in the M. E. Church, in this town, on Thursday morning, 30th inst., at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. P. Mallery, of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. T. S. Williams, of Bethel, and Rev. J. E. Kidney will be present and conduct the exercises.

Quarterly Meeting will be held in the M. E. Church on the 2d and 3d of December. Preaching on Sabbath morning, by Rev. J. E. Kidney; in the evening, by Rev. J. B. Quigg, Presiding Elder.

Improvements.—Capt. John Smithers is building an addition to his dwelling, on Bohemia Avenue. The Presbyterians have nearly finished the addition to their church. Mr. Thos. Conrey is having his new brick building plastered. Messrs. Reed Brothers opened their new store on the corner, on Wednesday last.

Grand Parade.—The Knights of Pythias intend having a grand parade and oyster supper, on the 30th. The procession is to move at 12 o'clock, M., and the supper to be given at 3 P. M. In the evening, at 7, their Hall will be dedicated, when addresses will be delivered by Samuel Reed, Esq., Supreme C. of the world; James Whitehouse, Esq., C. P. C.; John Cox, Esq., G. P. C., of Baltimore, and others.

Butchering.—There have been about 50 hogs butchered here during the past week.

Lectures.—Mrs. H. N. R. Goff, of New York, lectured in the Masonic Hall, on Thursday night of last week, for the benefit of the Chicago sufferers. The amount of the proceeds we did not learn. On Friday evening, Rev. B. F. Price, of North East, lectured. Subject—"When I was a Boy." The lecture was good but the audience small.

Boat Sunk.—A barge was sunk in the canal on Monday last, near Summit Bridge, which completely stopped the trade through that thoroughfare for three days. The barge was raised on Wednesday afternoon.

Grand Serenade.—Our townsman, J. T. Houck, Esq., had, on the occasion of his wedding, the grandest serenade that has taken place in our town for many years.—It was kept up for three nights. One good feature of the affair, was that Mr. H. did not treat his friends to wine or other intoxicating liquors. Will not some others take example.?

Bankers and Brokers—Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of Messrs. J. McLear & Son, Bankers and Brokers.—They allow interest on deposits, make collections, buy and sell stocks,—in fact, do anything in that line. They are thoroughly reliable, and we can cheerfully recommend them to persons having such business to transact.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge of I. O. G. T.

The Grand Lodge of Maryland, I. O. G. T., met in Temperance Temple, Baltimore, on Wednesday, 15th inst., S. L. King, G. W. C. T., presiding. Delegates were present from all parts of the State, and the Rev. J. H. Lightbourn, G. W. C. T. of Delaware, was in attendance during the first two sessions. He presented a communication looking to the consolidation of the Eastern Shore with Delaware, which was referred to a committee, who reported adversely to the proposition.

The reports of the Grand Lodge officers show a comparatively healthy condition of the Order in the State, though suffering for want of sufficient funds to properly extend itself and keep lecturers in the field.

Some measures were adopted to aid in overcoming this difficulty.

A committee was appointed to draw up and circulate a petition for a Local Option Liquor Law, and to prepare an Address to the people of the State, on the subject, asking their co-operation in the matter.

Considerable business of private interest was transacted, when the officers elect were installed, as follows: G. W. C. T., Rev. T. L. Poulson; Grand Counsellor, L. M. Haines; G. W. V. T., Miss Helen Preston; Grand Secretary, Robert F. Ross, of Baltimore, and others. Representatives to R. W. G. Lodge, Rev. T. E. Martindale and L. M. Haines, both of Cecil county.

After the appointment of committees and some other matters, the Grand Lodge adjourned to meet in Port Deposit on the 4th Wednesday of October, 1872.

On the evening of the 16th, a public meeting was held in the main hall of the Temple, which was ably addressed by Rev. T. E. Martindale, Dr. Le Peor and Rev. Thos. L. Poulson, closing with some eloquent remarks and a recitation of a selection from Hiawatha, by ——Mosier, of Baltimore.

The exercises were interspersed with singing by a volunteer choir, under the leadership of A. J. Simpson, Prof. J. G. Robinson presiding at the organ.

Rev. T. E. Martindale spoke of the prevailing apathy to the ravages of rum, and drew a fitting comparison by alluding to the fire at Chicago, and the almost universal sympathy occasioned by it, and the spontaneous movement for the relief of the sufferers, while we have in our midst a fire that is many thousand times more destructive, not only of wealth and personal property, but of the bodies and souls of men; yet the people stand idly looking on.

He gave, as one reason for it, that there is a very large class of people who derive a pecuniary profit from the traffic, which effectually seals their lips and blinds their eyes to the enormities of the sin.

Dr. Le Peor spoke about three-quarters of an hour, in a style that was forcible, instructive and amusing, which held the undivided attention of the audience. He is a veteran in the war, having stumped the State of Maine with Neal Dow for the first Main law; and we regret not being able to do justice to his remarks, and in not being permitted to listen longer.

Brother Poulson was in his usual humor, and made some good shots with his old anti-license musket.

FOURTH DISTRICT ITEMS.

Sudden Death.—A young man named Ashby, died very suddenly, at his residence at the Big Elk Cotton Mills, a few days ago. He had been sick with the measles a short time before he died and it is supposed they were the cause of his death.

Agricultural.—The farmers, with a few exceptions, have finished husking their corn which is the largest crop we have had for several years; It is calculated that the average crop will be fifty bushels to the acre. The wheat, particularly the early sowing, presents a very poor appearance it being eaten by the fly. We hear that some has been plowed down and re-sowed. Hog-killing is at its zenith now, which is a month earlier than last year, the feeders thereof thinking it won't pay to feed it at the price.

Debating Club.—The Debating Association, organized at the Jackson Hall, sometime since is still going on, and promises to be a valuable institution in the neighborhood, and is well worth a visit. The question debated at the last meeting "Ought the Usury Laws be repealed" was ably handled by both sides. Decided in the affimative. The question for this week is "Is the speculation of produce beneficial to society," some good speakers are expected. The meeting is held every Thursday evening.

Large Yield.—Mr. James Crow raised this year, on the farm of David Scott, five hundred bushels of buckwheat, from twelve bushels sowing. This is the best yield we have ever heard of.

Wearing Business.—Messrs. Browster & Son, who recently bought the "Homestead Mills," on Big Elk creek, are doing a large business in the way of making yarn, which They find a ready sale for in Philadelphia. they intend to build a weave mill and manufacture their yarn into ginghams, shirting, &c., as soon as circumstances will allow.

Religious.—Rev. Jos. Dare is holding a protracted meeting at Cherry Hill which promises a good result. Several persons have already been converted and others are seeking.

Storm.—The storm which visited here on last Wednesday week, was the most fearful that has visited us for several years, doing great damage to the fences, trees, &c. We heard of two or three market wagons being blown over while on their way to Wilmington market.

Theft.—On last Sunday night some scoundrel entered the granary of Mr. Thos. Scott, near Cherry Hill, and stole twenty bushels of potatoes.

Political.—From the number of persons around with petitions soliciting signers one would natnrally suppose that the Collectorship of the fourth is a big thing.—There are not less than twenty applicants for it now, (all Democratic.) Some of them have been out with petitions since the nominations were made last fall.

Sickness.—There is a great deal of sickness in our District at the present time, mostly of measles and scarlet fever; whole families of children are down with the former disease.

New Building.—Mr. William E. Canaan is putting an addition to his barn making it twice as large as before.

The Weather.—The weather has been quite cold the past week, freezing very hard at night, making sad work with vegetation.

Died.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benge lost a little child, by measles.

ZION ITEMS.

Wooden Wedding.—Quite a run was made last week on the stock of wooden ware, at the Empire Store, which found its way to the dwelling of Mr. Thomas Astel, and was presented to him and wife, on their 5th wedding anniversary. The company were having a good time generally, when the fainting of a young lady produced some change in the scene.

Sabbath School Entertainment.—It is stated that the M. E. Sabbath School contemplate an entertainment for the benefit of the School, to consist in an exhibition and concert, to come off some week hence.—Hope we shall be able to give more definite information in due time.

Thanksgiving.—It is probable there will be a union service in one of the churches on that day.

NORTH EAST ITEMS.

Snakes.—In excavating and taking away the old walls, and preparing foundations for the new culvert, on Main street, the workmen found some twelve snakes, which had taken up their winter quarters.

Religious.—The quarterly meeting for North East M. E. Church, transpired last Sabbath. Love Feast in the morning, followed by a sermon by Rev. J. D. Curtis, P. E., 10½ o'clock. Preaching at 7½ P. M., by Rev. B. F. Price, pastor.

Dedication.—The new M. E. Church at Mrs. Boulden's, was dedicated on last Sabbath afternoon. Rev. H. S. Thompson, from Elkton, delivered a good sermon. The congregation was large, and about one hundred dollars was raised to pay the balance due.

Excitement.—Some curiosity was manifested by a portion of our citizens, on Wednesday afternoon last, to get a glimpse of the Russian Grand Duke, Alexis, as the express train, of three splendid Pulman cars, carried him past our R. R. Station.

Markets.—Pork $6.50 per hundred; Flour $8@7.50 per bbl.; Apples scarce, $1.25 per bushel; Lard 15 cts.; Potatoes 60 cts., per bushel; Butter 30 cts.; Eggs 20 cts., dozen; Oak wood $4 00 and $4.50 per cord.

Money Sale.—On Wednesday night, 22d inst., the North East B. and L. Association sold $3,400, at 12 and 13 per cent, premium.

Personal.—On Monday, this week, Mr. Joseph Roach, our townsman, left for the West, St. Louis, Mo., being his objective point, but intending to look in at Chicago, on the way.

RISING SUN ITEMS.

Sale of Property.—The old Krauss tavern stand and 37 acres of land, was sold at public sale, on the 21st inst. Jas. McNutt, purchaser. Price $2,000.

Thieves are still around, but have tired of honey and now go for beefsteak. On Saturday night last, a Sabbath's dinner was stolen from a carriage in front of one of our hotels. Strong suspicions are entertained as to the guilty party.

Snow.—On Wednesday morning last, we found the first "skiff" of snow—could "track a rabbit" and slide on the sidewalk; so it counts.

An Exhibition and Concert, by our Good Templar Lodge, is now the next sensation on hand for our town; to take place Dec. 6.

Installed.—Cecil Lodge, No. 46, I. O. G. T., have installed as officers, for the ensuing quarter, the following persons: J. H. England, W. C. T.; Corinda Kirk, W. V. T.; Edwin Hunt, W. S.; Frank Way, A. S.; Hannah Selfridge, F. S.; J. C. Bird, W. T.; Emma Hunt, W. C.; Cecil Stubbs, W. M.; Rebecca Hunt, W. D. M.; Addie Gray, I. G.; Wm. Coulson, W. O. G.

COLORA ITEMS.

Improvements.—Zacharia Gray and Jos. N. Krauss are rapidly building their new houses on High street. The former is being built with cottage style of roof, and will be quite an ornament to the place.—B. F. Brinton is erecting a shop for Joseph H. Balderston, in which he expects to finish and store his Cecil Grain Fans. You will see by the above that the News is wrong again. The dedicatory ceremonies at Nottingham drew together a very large concourse of people. $1,400 was subscribed towards paying for the lots, repairs, &c.

Temperance Meeting.—Cecil Lodge, No. 73, 40, I. O. G. T., will hold the first public meeting in the new hall, at Rising Sun, on Dec. 6th, having been postponed one week on account of Thanksgiving. The exercises will be composed of Speeches, Essays, Dialogues, Recitations, &c., interspersed with music by some of the best singers in our county.

PILOT TOWN ITEMS.

Accident.—On Saturday, John Adams (of James) while drawing a charge from a gun accidentally discharged the piece. The charge passed through his left hand, mangling it in a shocking manner.

Election.—The election is now over—but the agony by no means. We have a little army who would willingly sacrifice their time and comfort to be servants of the good people of this District. "Barkis is willin'"

Religious.—The protacted Meeting at Bethesda is still in progress, under the able management of Rev's Eversole and Sullivan. There has a large number embraced religion and added to the roll of membership. May the good work go on.

Cattle.—There are a great many cattle on the road this Fall, from West Virginia—I think the finest I ever saw drove from there. It shows that stock raisers are alive to the importance of raising good stock.

Alrich is selling out his entire stock of Clocks Watches Jewelry spectacles, Silver and plated ware, at reduced rates, to close out stock. [tf

—The United States Treasurer has prepared his annual report, and it shows the condition of the treasury as it was at the close of the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1871. Mr. Boutwell in his report refers to his recent European tour, and says that his observations were to the effect that the time for placing our new loan on the market was an unfavorable one for its success in European money markets. It was too late and too soon. Mr. Boutwell further says that had Congress given him authority to negotiate the loan before the breaking out of the late German war, it would have been all taken at once at that time, but later the bonds of several other Governments were in the market and offered at rates much lower than those of the United States.

—A recent order from Postmaster-General Creswell has abolished a custom that was becoming something of a nuisance.—The order is as follows: "Complaints having been received that the letter-carriers at several of the free-delivery offices solicit donations by means of New-Year's addresses, and this practice being considered prejudicial to the service, and derogatory to the respect carriers should at all times command, it is therefore ordered that the issuing of any addresses or substitute therefor by letter-carriers, intended or calculated to induce the public to make them donations, or the soliciting of presents by any means whatever, be forbidden."

Be Guided by what you Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist.—He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor.—Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wide range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the tonic which for so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada, and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods." [Nov 11, 1871.

LORT.—At his residence, in Elkton, on Wednesday, 22d instant, Franklin W. Lort, aged 45 years.

WEAVER.—In Elkton, on the 21st inst., Frank Bozwell, youngest son of Samuel H. and Sarah M. Weaver, in the 14th year of his age.

Little Frank—the "Pet of the household," and comfort and companion of his Mother—who, but a few days ago, was in the bloom of youth, and mirthful as the lark on a May morning, now rests peacefully in the voiceless silence of the tomb. Love and Hope are blossoms gathered for the tomb! How uncertain are all earthly prospects—how certain that all things beneath the skies must pass away! The ruthless hand of death has severed the cord that bound his spirit to earth, and to those who loved him so tenderly, and who desired his association here; and though his body must now repose in the "cold and silent grave"—but his spirit stamped with immortality—until the resurrection trumpet shall peal forth its echoes, and his dust be quickened and put on immortality, and we left in this selfish world without the comfort of his sweet companionship, may we feel the consolation that when our day of life shall close, we may renew our friendship on the bright plains of eternal bliss.

"Though cold be the clay where thou pillow'st thy head,
In the dark, silent mansions of sorrow,
The Spring shall return to thy low, narrow bed,
Like the beam of the day-star to-morrow.

"Oh! still I behold thee, all silent in death,
Reclined on the lap of thy mother,
When the tear trickled bright, when the short stilled breath,
Told how dear ye were aye to each other.

"But now thou art gone to the home of thy rest,
Where sufferings no longer can harm thee,
Where the songs of the good, where the hymns of the blest,
Through an endless existence shall charm thee.

"While she, thy fond mother, must sighing sojourn,
Through the dire desert regions of sorrow,
O'er the hope and misfortune of being to mourn,
And wait for this life's latest morrow."
