A Present for Every Subscriber FOR 1872.

To every new subscriber to The Whig, commencing any time between the present and 1st of January, 1872, for $2 in advance, we will send The Whig from the date of the first number mailed, and Wood's Household Magazine for one year, commencing with the January number of the latter; or the American Stock Journal, if preferred to the Household Magazine.

To every old subscriber, in arrears, who will pay up to the 1st of January, Wino, till the 1st of January, 1873.

Greeley, Rev. H. Ward Beecher, James Parton, Mrs. Stone, Dr. Dio Lewis, Gail Hamilten, Theodore Tilton, etc., etc. A specimen copy of the MAGAZINE will be sent to any one

THE AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL is de-Journals in the country.

LA Subscribers who desire to receive the above premiums must comply strictly with the terms-which are invariably Cash in advance-and name the publication they wish to receice as a premium.

The subscription price of the House-HOLD MAGAZINE and STOCK JOURNAL is $1 a year, each; and this very liberal offer on our part places it in the power of every family Monthly for one year, FREE.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Concert.-The Excelsior Musical Association will give a Concert of Sacred Music in Cherry Hill Methodist Church, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 20th, commencing at 71 o'clock. Tickets, 25 cents. Proceeds for Church purposes.

Auction.-Wirt & Robertson, having determined to discontinue the hardware business in Elkton, offer for sale, at auction, their entire stock. Sale to commence this (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock; and to continue every evening until the store is closed out. J. B. Asu, Auctioneer.

Sale of Real Estate.-J. M. Streett, trustee, sold on Tuesday, 5th inst., at private sale, a tract of land containing 35 acres with improvements, to W. R. Giffing, of Cecil county, for $1,500. This property is Situated in Dublin District, near the slate quarries, and was formerly owned by Mrs Stanefer - Rel Air Democrat.

Local Miscellany .- Money sold at the Elkton Building Society on Saturday night last, for 12} and 14 cents premium.

The Sabbath School of the Elkton Presbyterian Church will hold an anniversary celebration, on the evening of the 24th inst. Judging from the programme already published, the exercises will be very interesting and profitable.

evening of each day. A large and beautiful assortment of useful and fancy articles | ers concluding that the old jail and lot | above described. The upper tier of cells will be found on hand, furnishing those who may patronize, a fine opportunity for purchasing Christmas presents for old and young folks. Supper served in the most tempting manner, from 6 to 9 o'clock each evening. Let everybody go who can.

We have been kindly furnished with a graphic description and score of a pigeon match which came off last week, on the suburbs of the town. The reporter has report is excluded by other matter of more general interest. "Pigeon matches," at the best, are a barbarous species of sport: sharing all the depravity, while lacking the excitement of, a dog-fight or bull bait.

Small Pox in Town .- Mr. Willam T. Brown, son of John E. Brown, Crier of the Circuit Court, has been sick several days with the small pox. The young man town, and contracted the disease while in Philadelphia purchasing goods.

There used to be a clause in the Public the teacher with a physician's certificate that the child had been vaccinated. Is the clause retained in the present law, and if so, is the law strictly enforced? School Commissioners answer.

Orphans' Court was in session on Tuesday light and airy hall eight feet in width, and and Wednesday of this week, and the following, among other business, was trans-Present-Hon. James McCauley, Chief Judge, and Hon. James M. Evans, Hon. James Lewis, Associate Judges.

administratrix of Edmund Martin; bond Lon 3; bond of Elizabeth T. Lort and Jas. bond of James D. Headly, administrator of Annie E. Headly; bond of M. Elsie examined and passed: Inventory of the luxuries-grained work and stained glassgoods and chattels of John Markee; inven- are somewhat out of place in a kitchen .tory of the goods and chattels of Francis The parlor is handcomely walnut grained, W. Lort; inventory of the goods and chat and the other rooms on the heat figgr are tels of Annie E. Headly; investory of the naked. The wood work of the entire alleged to be about $2,000. Judge Price ing; first account of Ella C. Reiter and W. run, into which an outside door opens, dut-

Sundry claims agamined and passed. W. P. Ewing, trustec.

The New Jall .- The "Old Jail" was a There are five chambers on the second prolific theme for newspaper paragraphs, floor, including a small apartment, in front, of years, before the county authorities are finished up in keeping with the lower could muster courage to inaugurate steps story. There is a bath-room over the their keep, more than a new prison would comfort and convenience. Over the second the old jail was finally pronounced to be.—

Public opinion seemed to be unanimous in favor of a new jail, and strongly favored of filling the tank in three hours. A nice both a new jail and court house; but the airy dormitory or servants' room is fitted lamp was burning in the house, when the with teams to haul stone, gravel, &c. This incur. The four years of war effectually round the foundation walls and connect talked of new jail built. A bill was prethe above named publications with THE proper. Several hundred dollars of useless expenditure was put on the old structure, which was money virtually thrown away, the very best Family Magazines in the coun- that time seemed to shrink from the respontry. Included in its corps of contributors sibility of undertaking to erect a new are the following popular writers: Horace prison and sheriff's house for Cecil county, notwithstanding the general demand for aged by cords that hoist and lower them this much needed improvement.

of North East grew ambitious to become | windows in the east gable end of the coraddressing S. S. Wood & Co., Newburgh, the seat of government, and talked of ridor also serve to light the building, makdonating quite a large tract of ground on ing, what with less provision for the which to erect new county buildings. But accommodation of sunlight, would be a the American Stock Sock Rearing and nothing further than talk was done toward gloomy prison house, an airy and cheerful Management; and is one the best Agricultural the proposed new buildings, and the Act of looking place. The floor and corridor are books of the State. Finally the legislature of 1870 passed an of Cecil county power to build a new jail, combined into a solid mass by cement .or repair the old one, and to remodel the Over this is laid a floor of inch and quarter the same time to issue county bonds to the are laid with nine inch iron beams, placed amount of $40,000 to pay for the proposed on their sides, between which are four by work; and under this law the Board of four inch white-oak scantling to which the County Commissioners who took their floors are nailed, and which no prisoner in the county to procure a most excellent seats in the fall of '69, composed of Messrs. will ever be able to penetrate. There are tions, but similar in plan, to the New Cassome respects.

> Spring of 1870, inviting proposals to erect nace in the cellar warms the prison with the new building. A number of proposals heated air. Each cell being fitted with a were put in, differing widely in amount, regulating register under the control of and ranging from $24,000 to 39,000. The the inmate, and also a ventilation flue lowest bidder failing to give the required which supplies the cell constantly with a bond, after much delay, the County Com- current of pure air, from a six inch flue missioners concluded to abandon the con- built in the outside wall that connects ing the spot on which the old structure stands. The Commissioners had pretty Fair and Festival .- A grand Fair and nearly settled down to this conclusion; but on further consideration and examination, terian Fair Association, will be held in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Port Deposit, on the 19th, 20th, and 21st inst., afternoon and Communication of the corridor, fastened than that paid for the lot purchased. This tisements were issued for proposals to excavate for cellar and foundations, and for masonry and other parts of the work, and material. Mr. Nicholas Larzalere was awarded the contract for excavating, and Mr. T. V. Rose, the masonry. Mr. John Gilpin furnished the common brick for the building, about 225,000, and McClennahan & Bro. the Port Deposit granite. During our thanks for his interest in supplying

The Whiga special on the occasion; but his operations, and the cellar walls of the sheriff's house and prison, and the foundation of the yard wall were built, when the work was suspended till the opening of the Spring of 1871. Operations were then some finishing touches by the painters.

renewed with energy, and the building entirely completed in November, except The sheriff's house is faced with pressed brick on front and sides, is thirty-seven keeps a periodical and stationery store in feet deep, connecting with the prison, and forty-two feet eight inches wide, and two stories and an attic. The basement walls rise about four and a half feet above the School Law requiring each pupil to present ground, surmounted by a cut stone water solid foundation the brick work rises. The main entrance to the sheriff's house is from North street, by a broad flight of cut stone steps, and by a capacious door, surmounted by a beautiful semi-circular colored transom, crimson, blue and white, entering a left hand is the parlor; in rear of this the dining-room, and on the right the sheriff's office, fitted up with convenient closets, coat hooks, otc., etc. In the rear of the sheriff's office is a commodious kitchen, fitted with a large range and forty-gallon | yet arrived. The following bonds were duly examined | circulating boiler, with cast iron sink, and and approved: Bond of Anna M. Martin the necessary accompaniment of pipes with slop-cocks, where hot and cold water of Henry Reynolds, executor of Henry can be diagn at will. In the partition between the kitchen and prison, a large Merre,", administrators of Francis W. Lort; cast iron tank is built, provided with regu-Thomas, ggardian of Viva M. and Margaret of cells. The kitchen is also provided with lating cock and ball, for the purpose of cleaning the sawer pipes in the lower tier every conceivable convenience in the way of pantries, closets, etc., with an autside Confirmation of sale in the Hill estate, entrance door, surmounted by a splendid colored glass transom. The inside wood The following inventories were fully work is handsomely grained, which two It is an action for damages sustained by goods and cluttels of Edmund Martis. | building is very heavy, and elaborately and Jones for plaintiffs; II. McCullqugh The following accounts were duly exam- manifed. The walls are finished with and Constable for defendant. ined and passed: Becond account of Min- white cost all through the house, and the In the case of the State ca. James B. shall W. Fulton, executor of Wm. J. Gil- windows are wine and termed twin-win- Marrett, indicted at the last Term of Court lespie; first account of Mana Mershon, dows, furnished with inside water for selling liquor to a minor, a plea of man—the tobacco man—the eattish man—guardian to Mary F. and Addie L. Merian; ters. The rooms and chambers requiring guilty was confessed, and he was fined $50 and the man that runs for the Afghan.

Second account of John E. Wilson, guardian to John N., Rachel F. and Alice A. the ming room is warmed by a Bibb Upon the recommendation of numerous littles. The rooms are fitted up with beautiful slate man-the catilish man and the man that runs for the Afghan.

Upon the recommendation of numerous littles. The rooms are fitted up with beautiful slate man-the tobacco man—the catilish man and the man that runs for the Afghan. second account of John E. Wilson, guardiam to John N., Rachel F. and Alice A.

Clark; 2d account of Thos. J. Laudin, guardian to Mary J. and Robert S. BrookIn the rear of the dining-room, a Lacrage is ordered the Clerk to issue a new license to

Opening T.

It should not be forgotten that Levis will move lift the new Glass-Front Store on the first of January, when a "Grand ordered the Clerk to issue a new license to Opening T.

O guardian to Mary J. and Mabert S. Brook. In the rear of the dining-room, a parage is ordered the Clerk to issue a new license to J. Jones, administrators of John L. Rutter; mounted by a colored glass transom, simi- On motion of James R. Greggio, Ps.

and Grand Jury anothemas, for a number cut off of the passage. These chambers, Mr. J. A. Rankin was entered, and five to build a suitable prison to secure crimically authorized Agent and Collector to procure subscriptions and advertising for The Whig.

to build a suitable prison to secure crimically authorized Agent and Collector to procure subscriptions and advertising for The Whig.

to build a suitable prison to secure crimically in the most complete manner with hot and cold water pipes, startion, and Collector to manner with hot and cold water pipes, startion, and Collector to manner with hot and cold water pipes, startion, and Wildman, appointed by the cities of this District, to take into consideration, and wildman, appointed by the cities of this District, to take in the purposes of a jail, that the Court racks, closets, etc. The rooms on this entrance at two of the back windows. the purposes of a jail, that the Court racks, closets, etc. The rooms on this threatened to send prisoners to Baltimore, floor are well supplied with closets and and mulet the county, in a short time for clother many and mulet the county, in a short time for clother many and mulet the county. and mulct the county, in a short time, for clothes presses, and every way fitted for porch roof; a slat was broken out of one of repair, it was resolved that the Committee indicted by the Grand Jury, on one occa- of 1,200 gallons, from which the building with springs, and could not be opened with to be paid in money, material or labor to cost. The County Commissioners were story is fixed an iron tank with a capacity sion, for maintaining such a nuisance as is supplied with water. The water is out breaking the glass. An entrance was the repairs of the worst portion of said

County Commissioners fought shy of the up in the attic, with commodious lumber necessary expense which new buildings apartment. Under the whole is a cellar, would entail, and feared the responsibility seven feet deep, with concrete and cemented which they imagined they would have to thoor, which conceals drain pipe that pass put a stop to all thoughts of new public with a large drain pipe that empties into a buildings till that "oupleasantness" was street drain, thus insuring a dry cellar at all seasons. The jail is entered from the At the close of the rebellion, more active rear of the hall in the sheriff's house by a measures were taken to have the long- wide heavy grated iron door, on the inside, and a heavy ash door, strapped with iron, pared and passed by the legislature of and secured by one lock, which fastens by 1860, authorizing the County Commission- a triple bolting apparatus that enters the the year 1872, we will send either of one as in their discretical than the send of the rest of of the res one, as in their discretion they deemed | lar doors secure the entrance from the corridor to the yard and the cellar of the shere iff's house, and also each cell. Inside of the jail we stand at the bottom of a cor-Wood's Household Manazine is one of but the Board of County Commissioners at ridor fifteen feet wide, running the whole length of the prison, and rising to the roof, over which is erected a square tower, or > from the corridor, which serve the purpose About this time our neighboring town of lighting and ventilation. Large grated 1866 remained a dead letter on the statute laid with twelve inch iron joists, three feet eight inches apart, with corragated iron arches between them, covered with fifteen Act which gave the County Commissioners | inches of concrete composed of broken stone court house; granting them authority at yellow pine. The cell floors and ceilings

> H. H. Brady, John Mauldin and George ten cells on the lower floor, eight by nine Gillespie, ventured on the important work. feet in the clear and six on the upper or New Castle, Delaware, jail was consequently second floor. Two of the upper cells are inspected by the County Commissioners, nine by seventeen and a half feet each, and the plan of that model prison adopted and are intended for hospital purposes, for the proposed new structure for Cecil and occasions where more room is required county. Mr. Samuel Sloan, Architect, of than is afforded by the ordinary sized cell. Philadelphia, was employed to make the Each cell is supplied with an iron soil hopdrawings and specifications for a sheriff's per, which empties into a six inch iron house and jail, somewhat less in dimen- pipe, leading outside of the jail, where they intersect an eight inch pipe, runtle jail, which was pronounced by the ning under the wall to a well, fifteen builder to be a very inacurate draft in feet deep on the outside of said wall .-By means of a stop cock each cell is Advertisements were published in the supplied with water. A large Chilson fur-passes through a heavy cross piece in the middle and is imbedded in the cast window frame at top and bottom. The sash can ble of turning out from one and a half to be open and shut at the pleasure of the prisoner. Each cell has an inside grated four hours. Groome, Esq., for $2,500, the Commission- by the same contrivance as the large doors could be sold at a considerably higher figure open on a gallery four feet wide, supported on iron flanges. The stair to the gallery important point having been settled, adver- is of iron, and the hand rail on either side of the stairway and running round the gal lery is inch and half iron tubing this is placed the large cast iron furnace, which is intended to heat the entire jail. The yard wall of the jail runs thirty feet from the jail round three sides connecting with the prison at its intersection with the feet at base and twenty inches at top, and truly mild and lovely winter days. twenty-two feet high, capped with long blocks of hewn stone rounded on top, so as to prevent the possibility of fastening a grappling book in the wall. The entire building is roofed with the best slate from the York County, Pa., quarries. It is one of the most complete, Commissioner under whose administration | his. of flour, it was put through. The complete and stamps Mr. Sentman, the superintendent, a master mechanic. There were doubtless some unuccessary expenses incurred in the construction and completion of the work, but it is a structure that looks like it would work was about $42,000.

Court Proceedings, -The regular December Term of the Circuit Court for this

After swearing the Grand Jury, of which Mr. James O. McComick, of the Sixth Disjudgments and making cases for trial.

On Tuesday morning the Court entered upon the trial of the case of Woodrow & bled to fill them with a superior article-Richardson, House Ruilders, of Havro de an unusual thing in this month.

Grace, against W. W. Hlack, of CharlesMonsy.—At last meeting of c town, and is still engaged with it at the close of our report, with the prospect of its occupying the remainder of the week. the plaintiffs by reason of the defendant refusing to allow them to go on in the contract they had entered into with him to build a house near Charlestown. Damages dian to Sarah D. and Margaret E. Max vell; passing a flight of stairs ascends to the and on motion of Clinton McCullough, first account of Joseph Booth, guardian to second story, # $\frac{1}{2}\text{in} \text{s head of which another} \text{Esq., Mr. H. W. Vickers, of Kent county.} Mary Jane and James Thomas Greenwood, iron tank is built in the wife infinity of the most one in the kitchen from which the session on Wednesday next, 20th inst.

Second story, at the session of which the were admitted to practice law in this Court. Were admitted to practice law in this Court. Court will probably adjourn on Thursburghous one in the kitchen from which the session on Wednesday next, 20th inst.

Go Early to Chais P. Wand's sale, for Court will probably adjourn on Thursburghous one in the kitchen from which the session on Wednesday next, 20th inst.

Robberg .- On Sunday evening last, while the family were at church, the house of gold watches and one silver watch stolen.

have been seen the same evening the robbery occured, at the gate or on the street, in the neighborhood of the house, was apprehended the next day, and had a hearing before Justice Howard, but the magisto hold the accused, and he was released. of whom are doubtless professional thieves. | tip. Every year we have a periodical robbery or two. Some times several houses are entered, one or two nights in succession, and nothing more is seen or heard of the thieves sky light, five by ten feet, with sash man- People are very liable to attach suspicion from every slight circumstances, and doubt thriving and temperate village. less innocent persons are after accused of stranger acting in a mysterious and suspicious manner was stopped by the Sheriff a few days since, at the depot, and questioned as to his business and actions, but he was released after a few questions had been put to him which he did not answer, however. Our own residence was honored by a visit on Saturday morning last. About seven o'clock on coming down stairs and entering the dining-room a candle was found burning in a candlestick on a stand. Further investigation discovered a side door from the kitchen slightly open and another door at the entrance of a back alley, was also unbolted. Both doors fasten with bolts on the inside, and could not be opened from the outside. The candle too, was a piece left in the candlestick the night before, and not enough of it to burn more than a few minutes. How the morning visitor effected an entrance was not exactly apparent, but probably by a window, in the second story, the blind of which was found open. During the day it was discovered that a couple of canton flannel skirts that were cut out but not made, and the remnant of goods the garments were cut from, all of which were left on the work stand, the night before, where the candle was found burning, were gone. The thief was rather late in commencing operations. and was scared off with this small booty. Moral-fasten your houses securely and keep a loaded gun or substantial club con-The New Paper Mill .- A correspondent missioners concluded to abandon the contract plan, and keeping the work under their immediate supervision, purchase material, and employ a competent mechanic to superintend the work, who should be subject to the orders of the Board at all stages of its progress. Mr. Eli Sentman was employed for this important office, at a salary of six per cent on the entire cost of the work.

The next object of importance was a proper site on which to erect the new building. Public opinion was considerably divided on this point, many strongly favoring the spot on which the old structure county.

NORTH EAST ITEMS.

Entertainment .- The North East Sunday School, now propose to give their entertainment on next Friday evening, 23d instant.

Funeral. - The funeral of Miss Mary Ann Tull, late of Wilmington, Delaware, transpired in the M. E. Church here, on Tuesday morning 12th inst. Rev. Mr. Todd, fourteen by forty-eight feet with concrete and cemented floor. Near the centre of M. E. Cemetery.

Ice .- Several houses, in our vicinity, have recently been filled with clear, solid ice, about four inches thick.

Temperature. - There was a considerable sheriff's house. It is built of heavy blocks rise in the temperature in the early part of Why is it he has never delivered it in Elkof Port Deposit granite, two and a half this week. Monday and Tuesday were Skating .- The recent freezing term has prepared fine ice, on the creek and ponds adjacent to our village, for skating, and the young folk's have enjoyed it hugely.

Flour Mills .- A visit to the North East Flour Mills, a few days since, convinced us that their business was very brisk. All secure and comfortable prisons in the State was bustle and stir. We were informed and is a credit to the county and Board of that orders were in hand for two hundred Brick Burning .- The North East Fire thorough finish of the work in every part, Brick Manufacturing Company, during last week, burned a kiln of furnace brick, and stove tile.

New Culcert .- Last Friday evening, the work on the new culvert, on Main street, was completed, except the coping stone for stand for centuries. The entire cost of the the side walls. It is a great improvement.

RISING SUN ITEMS.

Accident .- On Tuesday last, as the train county met on Monday morning last, at 10 was passing the depot, going south, one of o'clock—Judge Stump on the bench.— the brakesmen, named Bally, in attempt-Neither Judges Robinson or Wickes have ing to jump on the train, after it had started, missed his step, fell and was caught between the platform and cars. The moving train rolled him around between the trict, was appointed foreman, the whole of two several times, but fortunately he fell clocks Watches Jewelry spectacles, Silver the first day was occupied in the calling of under the platform and away from the the various dockets by the Clerk entering track escapeing with a severe building.

[tf] the various dockets by the Clerk, entering track, escapeing with a severe bruising. Ice .- Has been quite plenty and all our citizens having icehouses have been ena-Money .- At last meeting of our Build ing Association $1,000 was sold at 33 per cent. premium, and $1,000 at 30 per cent. Good Boads are among our present blessings. This, up doubt, is owing to the fact, that Supervisor's can't work this season of the year. Litely .- From the number of applications for the use of our new Public Hall, we anticipate a lively winter, in the way of entortainments. bomothing new for us, and we hope they may all be successful. Around .- The dulcimer man-the drug an excellent time to procure bargains.

Preparatory to Infoicing.—Enquat gion is running down his stock much below reg-

FOURTH DISTRICT ITEMS.

Road Repairing .- At a meeting of the committee (consisting of Messrs. Chas. A. Mr. Raukin is a watch maker, and has his Murphy, Waid, Sentman, Steel, Wollasthe blinds and a blind of the other window issue an invitation to all persons interested opened, but the sash were fastened down to subscribe any amount they may please, family went out, and the thieves must have road runs through the whole length of our effected. A transient resident of Elkton, again, to take it into consideration, but William H. Wallace, who was reported to they have always turned a deaf ear to it. Now that the people have taken it in hand we hope to see it put in a passable condition; about four hundred dollars have A Buld Engle crossed our District, near trate did not deem the evidence sufficient Fair Hill, on Friday last, flying low enough to be reached by any common Our town is convenient to large cities and shot gun. All who saw the majestic bird is visited by a great many strangers, some agreed that it was full 6 feet from tip to

Big Elk Singing School changed its night pro-tem, in order that all might attend the Concert at Cherry Hill, on Wed-nesday evening next, the 21st. It will be all tastes. attend the Concert at Cherry Hill, on Wedtill the period arrives for another visit .- held in, and gotten up expressly for the benefit of the Methodist Church of that Accident .- On Tuesday last, Michael crimes they are entire strangers to. A. Sentman and his son Andrew, while ou their way to Wilmington market, and were descending a steep hill near McLaughlin's mill, one side of the wagon tongue became detached from the axle, throwing the front wheel under the body so far as to upset the wagon. The father's nose was badly cut (nearly broken) by the splintered bows; he was also badly hurt on one shoulder. The son was thrown out front several feet, but escaped unhurt. The horses ran nearly a mile and were caught and brought back .-The father was taken home by a neighbor; the son furnished with another wagon, reloaded and went ou to market.

Kindly Feeling .- Good neighbors voluntarily turned out on the same day and cut, hauled, and completely filled with ice, W. Anderson's ice-house, himself and family being all sick, with typhoid fever.

Slaughtered .- Within a mile circle, this week, over fifty hogs have squealed their last squeal, and an unusual quantity of pork is retained in every household, on account of the very low price in market.

LETTER FROM BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 11, 1871. MR. EDITOR:-If I could head this comnunication with " Letter from the West," would feel more certain of a welcome. You know how it was with the prophet, and so I fear Baltimore is not far enough away from you. Notwithstanding your proximity to Baltimore, I doubt very much whether one in of the Oxford Press writes thus of the new a dozen of your readers, is thoroughly paper mill of Messrs. Wells & Ramsey, informed in regard to its commercial imbuilding at the old Octoraro Forge, in this portance. I judge few are aware that in foreign imports Baltimore will, in all pro-

Port of New York. Here matters are better regulated, and ship masters fairly dealt with.

But sugar and coffee are but dull topics; and although sugar is sweet, we have something here in Baltimore-not of foreign importation either-far surpassing it; of course I refer to the fair ladies, -suffragists excepted-and think I can safely make the assertion that "There are more handsome ladies in Baltimore, than can be boasted of be any other city of its population, in this or any other country. If you dont believe me, come and see for yourself. On the evening of Thanksgiving Day, I went to hear a lecture by the Rev. B. F. Price, formerly pastor of the Elkton M. E. Church. It was a very pleasant hour I spent listening to the Rev. gentleman's recollections of his boyhood days. The lecture was chaste and beautifully written, and intensely interesting throughout .ton? Does the "prophet rule" apply here Politics are sound asleep here, both Republican and "Opossum." The leading topic is the Wharton trial or, as I consider it, "The Wharton persecution." The weather is unusually cold for the sea son; ice plenty, and the skate trade lively.

More anon. The Useful and Beautiful.-Christman is near at hand, and presents are much sought after. Every person should visit Alment before purchasing. There everything can be had-from a Gold Watch to a Silver Thimble. Don't fall to call before going elsewhere. Notice.—People have learned it will pay to travel some distance to the EMPIRE STORE. It would be well for such to make an early start, as the crowd in the after part of the day is sometimes so great as to make it difficult to wait on all; but additional help is secured. Old Newspapers for sale at this office.

Mr. H. H Makinson, of Port Deposit, is selling off his entire stock of Furuiture, at reduced rates, to close out business in that place. [tf

Alrich is selling out his entire stock of

"Improve each shining hour"-And go to Regae's every day, For anything sweet or sour.

> NOTICE. PETER CALDWELL

DYRORAII D. BROWN & ELINABETH W. CROTHERS In the Circuit Court for Cecil county. In chancery. No. 349.

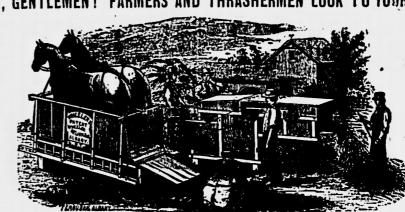

No. 319.

Ochears, This second day of December, 1871, that the sale male and reported by Reuben Haines, Truster for the sale of the rais estate of Elizabeth W. Crothers, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the fourteenth day of February, 1872; provided, a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper published at Ekton, one week for one month before the tenth day of January, 1872. NY2.
The Report states the amount of sales to La $500,00.
DAVID SCOTT. ClerkTrue copy; test,
David SCOTT.
Dec 9, 1841—hin Clerk.

EVERY ONE TO HIS BUSINESS. The Knights of the Furt Sitch and Pint Measure to their Colice and Molasses; the Tailor to his Goose, de. Newling Hachines of any kind, as to NAM strike or raice, supplied by the undersigned, and madrice given unless asked for.

B. E. Lodore. 23-Subscriptions taken for the "American Agricul-turies, $1.00 per annum. [Oct 14-6m* family went out, and the thieves must have been well acquainted with the premises and family, and knew that no person was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, the burglary was in the house at the time, and the whole length of our list of the most approved kinds. All of which are offered at Prices and on Terms to suit the times, and

THIS WAY, GENTLEMEN! FARMERS AND THRASHERMEN LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS.

A. J. MICHENER, Agent,

L. H. FOULK, BOOTS and SHOES. Having taken the eatire interest in the old stand formerly occupied by NICHOLSON & FOURK, at 102 West 21 Street, Wilmington, Del, and Isid in a large shock of BOOTS AND SHOES All orders will sceive my special attention.

WILMINGTON.

102 West 2nd Starer, Wil bo, Del.

HOLIDAYS. 1871.

To the Citizens of Elkton & vicinity We have the honor to call your attention to the fe owing facts:—
The Young Folks demand a share of your attention of the Holidays!

We promise to furnish you with

HOLIDAY GOODS

IMPORTED DIRECT.

NEW YORK & PHILADELPHIA DEALERI We invite you to visit our establishment, and shall be pleased to have you examine our stock, and after a thorough investigation of the goods and prices, we feel confident you will become our patron.

ADAMS & BROTHER.

506 MARKET STREET,

WILMINGTON, DEL.

THOS, Y. de NORMANDIE,

302 Market St.,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

China, Glass, Queensware,

SOLID SILVERWARE,

Fine Plated Goods,

IVORY HANDLE CUTLERY.

Hard Rubber Handle Knives, THE MOST SERVICEABLE YET MADE.

SOLID STEEL KNIFE, Blade and handle forged in one piece, and heavily plated, making the most beautiful as well as cheapest and most serviceable plated knile in the market. A great favority

FINE FANCY GOODS. nitable for Bridal or Holiday Gifts, in endless variet

Tollet, Tea, and Dinner Sets, OF FINE DECORATED CHINA.

GOLD BAND AND WHITE CHINA Dinner, Tea, and Toilet Ware. WHITE STONEWARE OF ALL THE BEST MAKES.

CUT, ENGRAVED AND PRESSED GLASSWARE

Prices that will defy Competition HAVING RECENTLY ADDED TO MY STOCK FULL ASSORTMENT OF

OF EVERY DECRIPTION, AND AT

SOLID SILVER GOODS,

No House in Philadelphia or New York presents a grea

The Prices will always be as Low .-First-Class Goods can be furnished as A careful inspection of the Goods, and a rigid examination of Prices, is earnestly invited.

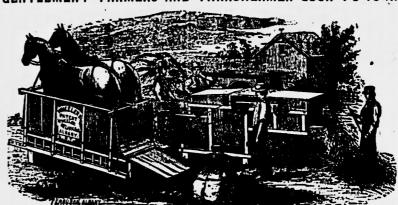

ow as TIFFANY & Co., and BALL, BLACK & Co., of New York; BAILY & Co., of Philadelphia, or any other House, having any reputation for honesty and fair-dealing. LE EVERY ARTICLE WILL BE

All Solid Silver Ware will be sold as

GUARANTEED TO BE EXACTLY AS REPRESENTED. Call and examine these Goods before

THOS. Y. de NORMANDIE, 302 Market Stre Wilmington, Del.

COE'S SUPER-PHOSPHATE.

COLORA P. O., CECIL COUNTY, MD.

CARPETS AND DRY GOODS.

220 & 222 MARKET STREET,

THE LARGEST STOCK OF GOODS IN THE STATE

And one of the Best Assorted Stocks in the country.

The patronage of the residents of Cecil county respectfully

ALL GOODS WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

GRANVILLE WORRELL,

220 & 222 MARKET STREET.

GRAND OPENING FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING! AT DE WOLF'S, 308 MARKET STREET, WILMINGTON, DEL.

HAVING THE Largest and Best Selected Stock of Gents', Youths' and Boys' WEAR to be found in any establishment in the city. I am determined to compete with any Philadelphia House, in PRICES, having purchased all my stock before the great rise in Woolen Goods.

A LARGE STOCK OF Black and Blue Beaver and Fancy Cassimere Suits. Fur Beaver, Bluck and Bluc Beaver, Chinchilla and Melton Overcoats.

A GOOD OVEPCOAT FOR $10.

Call and examine for yourself.

wilmington, delaware, A Rare Chance to Buy Cheap Goods!

LEVIS

SELLING OFF

PREPARING TO MOVE ON THE IST OF JANUARY. TO HIS NEW GLASS-FRONT STORE, HILMINGTON.

NEW PREPARATIONS.

E. BRINGHURST & CO.

Wine and Beef, each tablespoonful representing the nourishing const uents of one ounce of fresh Beef, with the gentle stim lating properties of Pure Cherry Wine.

ontaining the same as the above with the addition three grains of Citrate of Iron in each tablespoonful. Elixir of Beel, each tablespoonful representing the nourishment of one sunce of fresh Beef, with a dessert-spoonful of Finest

Wine of Beef and Iron,

Elixir of Beef, Iron and Calisaya, each tablespoonful of which contains the nourishing properties of one ounce of fresh Berf, three grains of Pyrophosphate of Iron, eight grains of Calisaya Bark, with Finest French Brandy. with Finest French Brandy.

The above elegant preparations are palatable and grateful to the taste, acceptable to the atomach and uniform in strength, having for their bods pure Extract of Beef, the nutritive and restorative value of which it debilitated conditions of the system is well established. They are eminently adapted for the treatment of those suffering from the debility resulting from protractic liness, in the sinking stages of typhoid and other fever in the exhaustion and fatigue arising from excessive work, loss of appetite, impaired digestion and dyspepsia. As a restorative and insignator they are invaluable for the convalencent, in the debility accompanying old age in the rapid growth of children, and in all forms of general debility attended by defective nutrition, nervous prostration, and an impoversished condition of the blood

PRIPARED AND SOLD WHOLESALE AND RETAIL BY E. Bringhurst & Co.,

Cor. 6th & Market Sts.,

WILMINGTON, LELL

Valuable Town Lot & Houses, IN ELKTON FOR SALE.

The subscriber will sell, on very reasonable terms, the YACANT LOT to Elikon, at the corner of Main and Bow streets, and the ground on Bow street. From Main and Bow streets, and the ground on Bow street. The Industry of the Main street, and is one of the most destrible location in Elikon, as a place of business.

The Lot fronts 40 feet on Main street, and is one of the most destrible location in Elikon, as a place of business.

Persona wishing to secure an eligible stand for business in Elikon are invited to examine the premises.

2-The property will be sold in lots to sett purchasters in Elikon are invited to examine the premises.

2-The property will be sold in lots to sett purchasters and a plat of the same can be seen at the object of McCulogh, from whom information can be spend in tregard to priorability and the street, while the street in the prior and dining room.

THE LOT

THE MOUSE and The prior and did every and and devirable for a private residence, and add small expense could be converted into a first by a devirable for a private residence, and add small expense could be converted into a first by a devirable for a private residence, and add small expense could be converted into a first by a devirable for a private

WILMINGTON.

PICTURE FRAMES. &C. F. McMONAGLE,

MANUFACTURER OF AND DEALER IN ALL RINDS Picture Frames, Looking Glasses

CURTAIN CORNICES,

And WALL BRACKETS.

The Best and Cheapest Assortment of PHOTOGRAPH FRAMES IN THE STATE. Entire satisfaction guaranteed in quality and price

WILMINGTON, DEL. BANKING HOUSE

ODD FELLOWS' HALL,

Corner Third & King Streets

JOHN McLEAR & SON, NO. 602 MARKET STREET, WILMINGTON, DEL.

DEPOSITS Received from Individuals, Firms, est allowed. Checks parable on presentation, without notice, the same as at a National Bank.

ORDERS PROMPTLY executed for the purchase Bonds, Wilmington City Leans, Bank and Railroad Stacks, on commission. Also, the 729 Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

DRAFTS for any amount, payable on demand in France, and other countries, found at lowest rates of INFORMATION furnished, and purchases or exchanges of Sweurities mode for investors.

Nov;23, 1871—6m

JOHN McLKAR & SON.

FOR SALE.