LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A Fact, that LEVIS' Goods are of the best quality and his prices the lowest in market. Try him and be convinced. No one ever failed to be.

A Novel Arrival.—Mr. Isaac Brown's floating saw mill, arrived at the bridge in Elk River, on Sunday morning last. A two story floating saw mill is something of a curiosity to the majority of folks.

Another "Cash Store."—Reed Brothers, of Chesapeake City, advertise a Cash Store and nothing else. Every buyer gets the benefit of the added percentage necessary to conduct business on the credit plan, where paying customers have to make up for losses by bad debts.

Rare Plants.—Mrs. W. H. Eder, whose handsome flower window is so generally admired, numbers among her exotics that rare plant, known as a century tree, and a pine apple. The latter is the product of the paring or top of a pine apple that was stuck in a pot of earth last fall and took root. The plant is small, but green and thrifty in appearance.

Good Templars County Convention.—The eighth session of the Cecil County Temperance Convention will convene at the Rising Sun, on Tuesday, March 12th, at 10.30 A. M. Full delegations are expected from all Lodges in the county and all members of the order from this or other counties will be welcomed. Entertainment for man and beast provided for all who report.

There will be a public session in the new hall, in the evening, to which the public is cordially invited.

Amateur Minstrels.—The Amateur Minstrels, of Elkton, will give an entertainment in the Hall, this evening, at 7½ o'clock. The performance will be enriched by Prof. Elwood, who will exhibit some of his most wonderful tricks in legerdemain. The Minstrels have a number of new sentimental songs and jokes for the occasion; the whole to conclude with a rousing side-splitting farce, entitled "Greeney Sold."

Temperance Lecture.—The Temperance Lecture, by Dr. R. M. LePoer, delivered in the Hall, on Saturday night last, evinced much learning and ability, but the speaker had been lecturing nightly for the past two weeks without rest, and seemed worn out, and fatigued, so much as to be unable to do that justice to the subject for which he is so celebrated. The audience was not large, and this had a tendency to damp the ardor of the speaker. He promised that at some future time he would give the people of Elkton a lecture on the subject of Intemperance, in which he would exert himself to the utmost to make it both profitable and entertaining. A synopsis of his argument will be found on our first page.

Arbitration.—Mr. T. V. Rose, contractor for building the stone work of the new jail and sheriff's house, had an unsettled claim against the county, for extra work and time lost, in consequence of other contractors not performing their part of the work within the time allotted, and by that means causing delay to the masons. This delay, Mr. Rose claimed, subjected him to heavy expense in keeping a gang of hands on pay, while lying idle, and for which he claimed to be re-imbursed by the county.—The old board of County Commissioners, however, differed in opinion with Mr. Rose, on the question of re-imbursing him for alleged losses from the above cause, and the case was handed over to the incoming Board to settle. In order to dispose of the matter satisfactorily to all parties they agreed to leave it to a board of arbitration, and Col. J. J. Heckart, Messrs. John Partridge and Joseph Miller were chosen to adjust the difficulty. The case was examined by calling witnesses on both sides—among them two members of the old Board of County Commissioners—on Thursday last, and $400 awarded Mr. Rose, in full satisfaction of his claim.

Mr. J. C. Murray a few years since purchased a poor run-down farm in the neighborhood of Bay View, and removed from the city of Wilmington to it. Last year he raised seventy-five bushels of corn to the acre on a field that had been in corn the year before. The first crop which was on a grass sod turned under, was as large as the yield last season. We may here state that no extra manure was put upon the ground to produce the second crop, a heavy coat of bones having been spread upon the land when plowed for the first crop. Mr. Murray's system of farming is to seed down his stock ground in oats and sow clover seed with the oats, and give the land a heavy coat of bones or lime. He raises no timothy, which is an exhausting grass on land, and feeds to stock all the hay and course provender raised on the farm. He stidiously avoids close pasturing, and allows much of the grass to rot on the land. By liberal manuring and the cultivation of clover, this farm has been brought to a state of fertility which is capable of producing two crops of corn in succession, average seventy-five bushels to the acre. And this result has been achieved in a few years on land whith had been run down to the starvation point. Mr. Murray has found wheat to be the poorest paying crop produced by the farmer, (in fact it puts him in debt is his experience), and has consequently abandoned it entirely. This in brief is the experience of one practical man who had faith in manure investments. A man, in who has a farm that he can take seventy five bushels of corn per acre from, for two successive crops, is better off than he would be with fifty dollars per acre deposited in bank and a poor worn out place.

PILOT TOWN ITEMS.

Accident.—Peter Gillespie, a carpenter, working on Mr. Bell's store-house, in Conowingo, had his fingers caught between two pieces of timber, crushing them so badly as to require amputation of the fore finger near the second joint.

Incendiarism.—A tenant house, belonging to J. C. Warne, was burned on Tuesday night. The house had been unoccupied for three or four years, the tenants having moved out. Loss about $300.

Wheat.—I think I never saw wheat look worse at this season. The fields seem perfectly bare of anything like living vegetation.

Ice.—The ice is moving slowly out of the river; if this fine weather continues a few days I think it will go out without much damage. Though the indications are that we will have a very high river.

Error.—In my last communication you made 800 rafts read 100, that run to Port last season.

Died.—At his residence, Pleasant Grove, on Feb. 22d, Jeremiah B. Haines, aged 76 years. He had been Postmaster at that place for thirty-eight years.

Childrens' Shoes for $1.15, at MASON'S.

FOURTH DISTRICT ITEMS.

Removal.—Alexander Hill, one of our most prominent citizens for many years, has sold his stock and farming utensils, and intends moving to Wilmington, Del., the coming Spring, to engage in the grocery business.

Oyster Supper at St. Johns' M. E. Church, on last Thursday evening for benefit of said Church, was well attended,—everybody in high spirit, and seemed to enjoy the bivalves "muchly." Net proceeds, $122.

Accident.—Norten, youngest son of T. W. Straborn, while playing in the barn, one day last week, fell and cut his head severely. He is recovering under care of a good physician and careful nursing.

Religious.—Rev. H. Mathews, of Elkton, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Johns, and delivered a carefully prepared sermon, in eloquent style, to a large congregation, at St. John's Church, last Sabbath.

Sale.—Thomas Peterson recently sold a house and and two acres of land, to Wm. E. Canna, for $675.

Debate at Centre School-house, continues to excite much interest. "Should Capital Punishment be Abolished?" was discussed in a spirited manner, by well posted speakers, last Tuesday evening.

Fatal Result.—John Wald, who was injured, last week, by a log rolling on him, died at the residence of his son-in-law, on Friday morning, the 23d inst. His remains were interred last Sabbath, at Head of Christiana Church, Del.

New Road.—The examiners, appointed by the County Commissioners, after viewing the ground, have granted a road from Devinney's barn, to the Jackson School-house. This road when opened will be of great advantage to the people in that vicinity.

Desecrating a School Room.—Last Saturday week, a couple of young men broke into the Elk Mills School-house and amused themselves by obscene writing in the copy books which they found in the desks, and destroying whatever they got their hands on. These gentlemen are in a fair way of becoming inmates of the "big house," near the railroad, at Elkton.

Concert.—The Kimble brothers gave a Musical Concert, in the Hall, on Wednesday evening last, which was listened to by a very select audience. The proceeds will be used towards finishing the Hall.

Didn't Sell.—James Gilmour offered his farm at public sale, last Tuesday, but it not bringing the price he set upon it, he bid it in.

NORTH EAST ITEMS.

Entertainments.—The entertainment given by the Lodge of I. O. G. T., on the evenings of the 22d and 23d, instant, were quite a success in their line. The Hall was crowded on both occasions.

Spring-like.—The ice in our waters is rapidly disappearing, and as a result, seine hauling has commenced, and, in the early part of the day, the booming of duck guns can be distinctly heard from the river below.

Religious.—On last Sabbath, in the absence of the Pastor of the M. E. Church, Rev. John Ford preached in the morning, and Mr. Kyle had charge in the evening.

Another Change.—After a number of bright and mild days, on Sunday with a north wester, the mercury suddenly fell some twenty degrees, followed by sharp freezing.

Sickness.—As a consequence in part, no doubt, of the frequent very sudden changes of temperature, during this winter, much sickness, in the form of pneumonia, throat affections &c, exists in our community.

Preparing for Spring.—The new Fire Brick Manufacturing Company are improving in and about their works, and preparing for earnest operations the coming season.

Money Sale.—The North East Building and Loan Association sold on last Wednesday night, sixteen hundred dollars, at 11 per cent premium.

LETTER FROM ELK NECK.

MR. EDITOR.—I often in reading different papers see articles in reference to the great inducements for persons to emigrate to the West, admitting that there are certainly great inducements for persons to go West. I think we have here in our own county everything that almost any person could desire. We have a climate that is healthy and very pleasant to live in; not so very extreme either in heat or cold. We have a county that is watered, as few if any other county in the United States, is watered; as many as five rivers in and adjoining it; all navigable.

We are in direct communication with all principal cities in the United States, both by railroad and steamboat.

We have a soil that is adapted to the growth of all the different kinds of grain, fruit, grasses, and produce that is grown in the Middle States.

We have churches, schools, stores, and all other conveniences that is required for those living in the county.

There is nearly, if not all of the farms in Cecil county, that have river fronts where produce can be shipped to at least four good markets at very slight cost, and lime and manure landed for the use of said farms and those situated back from the river; so you see there is very little expense attached to the applying manure to the land. I have on the farm where I reside, landed and spread fifteen hundred bushels lime in one day with three teams.

Elk River in the course of time is destined to be one of the greatest rivers we have. The constant increasing trade that is daily going to and from Alexandria, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia New York and different ports is constantly introducing and showing to the business men, and men of wealth and means, who use this great thorpughfare of trade and travel, the splendid locations for building and improving, which in a short time will make it almost a second Hudson.

In reference to going West we will take into consideration a man with large or small means. It does not make any difference in my mind, if farming is the objective point, what his means are, taking price of produce into consideration, in this county or State, and the price in the western States, also the expense of marketing his produce here and there, is so greatly in our favor that I contend if he raises three times as much as we do on the same number of acres, will still give us the difference in our favor. In my opinion Mr. Editor, by the time the western land is farmed as long as the land in the Eastern States, it will not produce any better crops then our land will here under the same treatment.

We will admit the West is becoming the great grain growing section, for which it is certainly adapted, but there is plenty for us to grow and produce in the fine vegetables, grass, and dairy line which is certainly of more benefit to the soil than grain farming.

There are other inducements that I might mention, if I thought it necessary, but I think the above enough for the most of our farming community.

Now I hope we will all with one accord go to work and improve and clear up our farms in Cecil county, and make it the garden spot of the great East, and let those that will go West put up with all the inconveniences of a back-woods life, fire, drought and the many other dangers to a new country. If you think this worthy of a place in your valuable paper, and have the space to spare, you are at liberty to publish it, and perhaps you may again here from CECIL.

CHESAPEAKE CITY ITEMS.

Personal.—Rev. J. E. Kidney, returned from Conference, on Tuesday last. His friends will be glad to hear that he has returned to this circuit for another year.

Temperance.—Rev. C. P. Mallery intends preaching a Temperance sermon, in the Presbyterian Church, on next Sabbath evening. The public is invited to attend.

Paper Mill.—Some speculation has been indulged in during a week past regarding a paper mill to be erected here, or in this neighborhood. Should such a thing happen, no doubt it would be a great benefit to Chesapeake. There is a good opening here for manufacturing business of some kind.

Railroad.—The Railroad from Elkton to Middletown is again engaging the attention of some of our prominent men.

Improvment.—From ten to twelve new dwelling houses are in course of erection in Chesapeake City. This looks like business and proves that we have some enterprising people here.

Accident.—One day last week a Mr. Murphey, while cutting wood, near Mr. W. P. Howard's, had one of his legs broken by a tree falling on him.

Fish.—Fresh fish have made their appearance in our markets.

Runaway.—A horse belonging to Mr. James Spear, of Bohemia Manor, ran off, on Wednesday last, smashing up the buggy to which he was attached. Mr. Spear happened to not be in the buggy at the time, consequently escaped injury.

RISING SUN ITEMS.

The Weather.—That standing topic for correspondents and grumblers, has been remarkably good for some time, and, as a consequence, the roads are better than ever before known at this time of the year—by the "oldest inhabitant."

Public Sales are all the rage. To look at the quantity of bills posted up one would think everybody was on the move, or declining business. The professional vendue attendant is kept very busy.

Accident.—Franklin Langdon, of Harrisville, fell from a load of straw, a few days ago, and was severely injured. No bone were broken.

Improvemenes.—The I. O. O. F., and K. of P., are rapidly finishing up their new Halls, and expect to occupy them in a short time. From the present appearances of furniture, carpets, &c., both Halls will compare very favorably with any in the occupancy of the orders, outside of the cities.

—It is now pretty certain that England will repudiate the treaty of Washington, when she finds she can't bluster the United States into any further concessions. When European affairs threaten to become troublesome, the British Government will again come honey-fugling round America for a settlement of the Alabama claims. A score or two of cruisers let loose on her commerce will most likely be the arbitration that will settle the matter. "Profidjious Albion" profidious still! Motives of honor and honesty never influenced the British Government since it has been a nation.

Pure Ground Bone.—We are prepared to receive orders for our Pure Ground Bone, by the single Ton or Car load, and shall be glad to have those interested to call at the Mill and examine our stock and the process of its manufacture. Samples sent by mail when desired.

THOS. WARING & BRO., Colora, Md.

CECIL COUNTY, Look!—Every one who has no tried the "Wilmington City Soap," should begin at once. If you do not try a bar for next wash-day, you are fined half price. Buy a bar, and save the fine.

Young Men's Christian Association.

MR. EDITOR:—It is with all due respect to those who have been foremost in the work of organizing the Young Men's Christian Association of Elkton, that I attempt briefly to give my views as follows:

It is a fact patent to every one interested in this great work, that it has not met with the approval of that class of young men for whom such an institution is especially designed, namely,—the young men who are not members of any church. Not the righteous, but sinners Christ came to save. It is with this view that I contend that, first, the Constitution shall be so changed that any man of a good moral character shall be eligible to office after the present officers' terms shall expire; in other words, that an associate member shall have all the rights and privileges that an active member shall have, removing all distinctions, whatever. The plan of excluding associate members from office has worked well in the cities, where the young men of the church are a power within and of themselves; but in a small place like Elkton it takes every man and every dollar that can be obtained to carry on a work of this kind. Get the young men interested in this work, and it cannot but flourish. Does any sane man pretend to say that it is to be supposed that they will come in and give their energies, time and money to the cause without an equal voice in all its deliberations? Why not, then, remove this stumbling block in the very outset? And while I believe that the more earnest, true, christian piety instilled into a work of this kind, the better, yet I think that the desired end can only be accomplished by getting all the young men of Elkton and vicinity engaged in this work. Make it their work, and trust to the good influences that there will be brought to surround them to eventually bring them into the church, which no one can deny is the true end and aim of the Young Men's Christian Association. Not those that be whole need a physician, but they that are sick.

CHURCH MEMBER.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISE.—We have learned that Mr. J. H. Brazier of the firm of J. E. Caldwell & Co., Jewelers, 902 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has just returned from Europe, where he has selected a very large stock of elegant bronzes, Clocks and Fancy Goods.

This we believe is the first occasion, upon which such a large importation has been made at this season of the year, it being customary to have such goods arrive only in the Fall.

The immense demand for these rare articles is however constantly on the increase, and it is certainly much more gratifying for the public to be able to select from a new invoice, than to be forced to select from a stock that has undergone the culling of the holiday season.

What Dyspepsia may End In.

Indigestion is not dangerous, say the faculty. Perhaps not in itself, while it remains mere indigestion; but look at the consequences to which it may lead, and often does lead when it becomes a chronic disease. A spark of fire is a small thing. A pressure of the foot will put it out; a breath will extinguish it. Yet it may fire a powder mill, or kindle a flame that will consume a city. In like manner indigestion may produce gastritis, cancer of the stomach, congestion of the bowels, apoplexy, liver disease, and many other dangerous maladies. Is it not wise, then, to check it in the germ? Nothing is more clearly and indisputably established than that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will eradicate dyspepsia in all its stages. The true policy, however, is to extinguish it in the first stages with this wholesome, powerful, and infallible tonic and alterative. It is easier to quench a spark than a flame, and it is easier to cure dyspepsia when it is first developed, than when it has made headway by neglect, and become complicated with other ailments. There is not the shadow of a doubt that the Bitters are as directly antagonistic to dyspepsia as water is to fire. There are thousands of cases on record proving this fact. The remedy is safe and agreeable. All the liquors of commerce prescribed as stimulants leave a sting behind. But the sting is taken out of the spirituous basis of this great remedy by vegetable medication, and, moreover, the stimulant thus medicated is of exceptional purity. Of all tonics taken as safeguards or remedies for fever and ague, Bilious remittents, and other epidemics, it is the only one that can uniformly be depended on. [mar 2, 1872—1m

Maryland Legislature.

There was no quorum in the Maryland Senate on Monday. In the House of Delegates the report of the Commissioners on the Maryland and Virginia boundary was received and referred to a joint committee. Petitions for a prohibitory liquor law and for the taxation of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company were presented. Among the leaves to introduce bills was one for the amendment of the Sunday law, and another to permit the voters of each district to decide whether liquor shall be sold within its limits. The bill to punish thefts of water and gas was amended by striking out the penalty of imprisonment and was then postponed until Thursday. The Frederick City bill was postponed until Wednesday. An order changing the hour of the meeting of the House from 12 to 11 o'clock was passed and the House adjourned.

In the Legislature on Tuesday several petitions from colored people were received asking for increased educational facilities to their race. The Senate concurred in the House resolution to appoint a joint committee on the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia. Among the leaves to introduce bills were those amending the law for the annual raising of money for the expenses of Baltimore, to comply with the law of Congress donating public lands to the States in aid of agriculture and mechanics, and amending the pilotage laws. The Senate had a long debate on the proposition to release the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from the capitation tax on passenger travel over the Washington branch if the Company will pay the money due up to December 10th, 1870, and submit to State taxation. Mr. Tuck offered a substitute for the appointment of a joint committee to settle the cases as decided by the Courts. In the House of Delegates the Judiciary Committee made an unfavorable report on the bill to add to the Sunday laws. The amended license law in regard to fisheries and horse-racing and the new wild fowl law for the upper Chesapeake were passed by the House.

In the Legislature on Wednesday, several petitions for an optional liquor law were presented. Leave was asked to introduce bills providing counsel for the defence of the Registers of Anne Arundel county, indicted in the United States Court; and to increase the salaries of Judges of the Court of Appeals. Mr. Denson, from the Select Committee, reported favorably on the bill to amend the local law of Baltimore so as to permit the raising of $2,500,000 annually for municipal expenses; and Mr. Spates from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably on the bill for improvements at the State House. Both bills were read the first time in the Senate. An unfavorable report was made on the bill extending the jurisdiction of Magistrates. The Senate continued the debate on the State's claims against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. In the House of Delegates the bill "gerrymandering" Frederick city was lost for want of a constitutional majority. The bill to punish fraudulent users of gas and water was amended, and before disposing of it finally the House adjourned.

In the Senate on Thursday, bills for the inspection of lumber and to incorporate the Drovers' bank of Baltimore were read the first time. The bill to authorize the raising of $2,500,000 annually by the city of Baltimore passed through a second reading without amendment. Several amendments were made to the bill regulating post mortem examinations. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad case was discussed and then postponed until Tuesday. In the House of Delegates petitions for a prohibitory liquor law were presented.—Leave was asked for the introduction of a bill to make seduction a penalty, punishable with fine and imprisonment. Mr. Duvall offered a joint resolution instructing the delegation in Congress to use all proper means to procure acceptation of proposals made by the International Steamship Company to establish an iron ship building yard, to be exempt, if located in Maryland from State and municipal taxes, which was laid over for future action. The vote against an addition to the Sunday laws was rejected, and the report of the committee is now before the House. The appropriation clause of the bill in relation to the House of Refuge was stricken out and the bill read the second time. After passing some private bills the House adjourned.

☞ Wilmington, Delaware, is a thriving city—made so by its manufactories.—Not the least of these is the establishment for making the "Wilmington City Soap," which is in such general use over the country.

THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC.—This is one of the oldest statistical annuals of its kind, and although it has many imitators, and new ones springing up every year, still retains its position as a reference book pertaining to all the most useful political matters, and its tables of election returns are acknowledged to be standard authority on that subject. In addition to furnishing all the information pertaining to a complete almanac, the public laws and joint resolutions, passed by the Forty-second Congress, are given in the Almanac of 1872; the proclamations of the President of the United States; the most important acts of Congress, passed by the last session; a statement of the public debt; receipts and disbursements of the U. S. Treasury; population by States and counties, and of the principal cities, and a great variety of other valuable statistical and highly useful political information. Whoever is careful to procure and save a Tribune Almanac yearly, will in a few years have acquired a library of most valuable statistical information, about the political affairs of the country, which for reference purposes can nowhere else, in so convenient and condensed form, be had.

Does Ground Bone act Quickly Enough for Potatoes?—Read the Following:—My potato field was manured with a broad-cast application from the barnyard and 500 lbs. per acre of WARING'S BONE DUST superadded. A small patch was left without any Bone, for experiment. The general yield per acre was 200 bushels; but according to the testimony of my son, who managed the gathering, the part without Bone made but 150 bushels per acre. This shows 200 bushels of potatoes from one ton of Bone Dust; or allowing 50 cts. per bushel for the potatoes, a return of $100 per ton for the Bone. LLOYD BALDERSTON.

OBITUARY.

We chronicle this week, the death of a young man, a native of this county, Montillion Brown, who left here April 1st, 1867, to try life in the West. He finally settled in Kansas, and married. He was just getting comfortably settled in life, when he was stricken with typhoid fever. All that a fond wife and kind friends could do, was done for his relief, but of no avail. He leaves a widow and one child. His parents and relatives, in their bereavement, have the entire sympathy of their friends.
