J. Thomas C. Hopkins, Esq., State's Attorney for Harford county, was admitted to this bar. James Ramsey, a native of Ireland, de clared his intention to become a citizen. The Grand Jury closed its labors on Wednesday by visiting the new jail and Sheriff's house; and from the tevor of their report, which we give below, Mrs. Sheriff Thomas must have done the handsome in the customary spread. The "Grand Inquest for the body of Cecil county" is unquestionably very sensitive in the gastronome nerve: To the Honorable the Judges of the Circuit Court for Cecil County :

The Grand Jury for the present term respectfully represent to your Honors that we have visited the new jail, where we were courteously received, in the absence of Sheriff Thomas, by one of his deputies, and shown over every part of the building

We found everything in perfect order, the rooms and cells very clean and the prisoners well cared for, several of whom are insane and require extra attention for which we are of the opinion that the Sheriff should be allowed additional com pensation in consideration of the fact that the is required to employ an extra hand about the jail at his own expense. The new building is a model of strength and durability, combined with perfect security, has all the modern improvements in he tring and ventilation, and reflects much c.ra lit upon the late Board of County Commissio ners who supervised the work. After part, iking of the liberal hospitality of Mrs. Sher iff Thomas, we left, fully impressee with the idea that our new Sheriff will render on tire satisfaction to the people of the county.

Before closing this report, we would re spectfully add tha. in view of the dilapidated condition of the Court House, we are of the opinion that your Honorable Court should instruct the County Commissioners to consider the exp. diency of thoroughly repairing it as soon, as in their judgement the expense of do ing so may not bear too heavily upon the tax -pa) 'qrs. Respectfully submitted,

JOB HAIN'ES,

Foreman. The following supplementary report was of sulaw. also made by the Grand Jury, which we were requested to publish. It seems to be a rather singular paper to come from a Grand Jury, and is nothing more than a notice to the sporting gentleman to be on their guard in future, a little more:

The Grand Jury, anxious to perform their whole duty, consider it obligatory on all of Cowantown. them to call the attention of the Honorareached us of violations of the statute relating to gambling houses and illegal sale of liquors to minors and on Sabbath; changed to freezing. but that no witnesses appeared before us have appeared before us, to give strict attention to these matters, and would respectfully suggest to the Honorable Court, if in their judgment it is proper, to instruct the next Grand Jury to make thorough inquiry

Respectfully submitted, &c.

It strikes us that it was the duty of the late Grand Jury to have investigated these rumors, and, if the ends of justice required it, to have summoned every man in Elkton and ascertained, if possible, what foundation there was for them, and not attempted to shift the responsibility on the shoulders of some future Grand Jury.
